FLORIDA – COUNTY DIVISION

HEATHER PURNELL, individually and on behalf, of all those similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

LARSEN’S AUTOMOTIVE, INC.,

Defendant,

CLASS REPRESENTATION

Case No. 20-CA-002152

Division: K

FINAL ORDER APPROVING CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

On April 18, 2023, this Court granted preliminary approval to the proposed class action settlement set forth in the Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release¹ (the “Settlement Agreement”) between Plaintiff HEATHER PURNELL (“Named Plaintiff” or “Plaintiff”), on behalf of herself and all members of the Settlement Class, and Defendant LARSENS AUTOMOTIVE, LLC d/b/a LARSENS TOWING AND AUTOMOTIVE (“Larsens” or “Defendant”). The Court also provisionally certified the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only, approved the procedure for giving Class Notice to the members of the Settlement Class, and set a Final Approval Hearing to take place on August 8, 2023, at 10:30am. The Court finds that the Class Notice substantially in the form approved by the Court in its preliminary approval order was given in the manner ordered by the Court, constitutes the best practicable notice under the circumstances, and was fair, reasonable, and adequate.

On August 8, 2023, the Court held a duly noticed Final Approval Hearing to consider: (1) whether the terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement are fair, reasonable, and adequate; (2) whether a judgment should be entered dismissing the Named Plaintiff's Amended Complaint on the merits and with prejudice in favor of Larsens and against all persons or entities who are Settlement Class Members herein who have not requested exclusion from the Settlement Class; and (3) whether and in what amount to award attorneys' fees and costs to Class Counsel for the Settlement Class and whether and in what amount to award a Class Representative Service Award to Named Plaintiff Heather Purnell.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The Court has personal jurisdiction over the Parties and the Settlement Class Members, venue is proper, the Court has subject matter jurisdiction to approve the Settlement Agreement, including all exhibits thereto, and to enter this Final Order.

2. The Settlement Agreement was negotiated at arm's length by experienced counsel who were fully informed of the facts and circumstances of this litigation (the "Litigation" or the "Action") and of the strengths and weaknesses of their respective positions. Further, settlement occurred only after the Parties negotiated over a period of many months. Counsel for the Parties were therefore well positioned to evaluate the benefits of the Settlement Agreement, taking into account the expense, risk, and uncertainty of protracted litigation with respect to numerous difficult questions of fact and law.

3. The Court finds that the prerequisites for a class action under Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220(a) and (b)(3) have been satisfied for settlement purposes for each Settlement Class Member in that: (a) the number of Settlement Class Members is so numerous that joinder of all members thereof is impracticable; (b) there are questions of law and fact common to the Settlement Class;

(c) the claims of the Named Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Settlement Class they seek to represent; (d) Named Plaintiff has and will continue to fairly and adequately represent the interests of the Settlement Class for purposes of entering into the Settlement Agreement; (e) the questions of law and fact common to the Settlement Class Members predominate over any questions affecting any individual Settlement Class Member; (f) the Settlement Class Members, as defined, are ascertainable; and (g) a class action settlement is superior to the other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

4. Pursuant to Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220, this Court hereby finally certifies the Settlement Class, as identified in the Settlement Agreement, which shall consist of each person who at any time during the Class Period (December 6, 2017, to December 31, 2022):

(1) was towed by Larsens from a location within Hillsborough County; and;

(2) was charged and paid storage fees when their vehicle was stored in Larsens impound lot less than 24 hours, but was billed for more than one day; and/or

(3) was billed for one day when their vehicle was stored in Larsens impound lot less than 6 hours.;

But excluded from the foregoing group are any claims of such persons who, prior to the Opt-Out Deadline: (a) have been fully resolved through litigation, release, or settlement, including but not limited to those persons who negotiated and settled with the Defendant previously over the amount of the fees and charges for the towing of their vehicle or (b) are the involved in any pending litigation with Defendant over their towing fees and charges.

5. The Court finally appoints the law firms of Craig Rothburd, P.A., Jeeves Law Group, P.A., and Baird Law Group, as Class Counsel for the Settlement Class.

6. The Court finally designates Named Plaintiff Heather Purnell as the Class Representative.

7. The Court makes the following findings on notice to the Settlement Class.
- a. The Court finds that the distribution of the Class Notice by United States Mail as provided for in the Settlement Agreement and Preliminary Approval Order (i) constituted the best practicable notice under the circumstances to Settlement Class Members, (ii) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the Action, their right to object or to exclude themselves from the proposed Settlement, and their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, (iii) was reasonable and constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to be provided with notice, and (iv) complied fully with the requirements of Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220, the United States and Florida Constitutions, the Rules of this Court, and any other applicable law.
 - b. The Court finds that the Class Notice and methodology set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the Preliminary Approval Order, and this Final Order (i) constitute the most effective and practicable notice of the Final Order, the relief available to Settlement Class Members pursuant to the Final Order, and applicable time periods; (ii) constitute due, adequate, and sufficient notice for all other purposes to all Settlement Class Members; and (iii) comply fully with the requirements of Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220, the United States and Florida Constitutions, the Rules of the Court, and any other applicable law.

8. The Settlement Agreement is finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate pursuant to Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220(e). The terms and provisions of the Settlement Agreement, including all exhibits thereto, have been entered into in good faith and are hereby fully and finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate as to, and in the best interests of, each of the Parties and the Settlement Class Members.

9. The Parties are hereby directed to implement and comply with the Settlement Agreement according to its terms and provisions.

10. The Court hereby awards Class Counsel reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $155,000.00 payable pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement and Class Counsel's separate Motion for Attorney's Fees and Costs. The Court also awards a reasonable Class Representative Service Award to Heather Purnell in the amount of $6,000.00 payable pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

11. The terms of the Settlement Agreement and of this Final Order, including all exhibits thereto, shall be forever binding in all pending and future lawsuits maintained by the Named Plaintiff and Settlement Class Members.

12. The Class Releases, which are set forth in Section 11 of the Settlement Agreement, are expressly incorporated herein in all respects and are effective as of the date of this Final Order; and the Released Parties (as that term is defined below and in the Settlement Agreement) are forever released, relinquished, and discharged by the Releasing Persons from all Released Claims (as that term is defined in the Settlement Agreement).

13. The administration and compliance with the Settlement Agreement shall be under the authority of the Court. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to protect, preserve, administer, and implement the Settlement Agreement, including, but not limited to, enforcement of the Releases contained therein. The Court shall retain jurisdiction in order to enter such further orders as may be necessary or appropriate in administering and implementing the terms and provisions of the Settlement Agreement and this Final Order.

14. Upon entry of this Final Order: (i) the Settlement Agreement shall be the exclusive remedy for any and all Settlement Class Members; (ii) the Released Parties shall not be subject to liability or expense for any of the Released Claims to any Releasing Person; and (iii) Settlement Class Members shall be permanently barred and enjoined from filing, commencing, prosecuting, intervening in, or participating in (as class members or otherwise) any action in any jurisdiction based on or relating to any of the Released Claims or the facts and circumstances relating thereto.

15. Except to enforce the Settlement Agreement, neither the Settlement Agreement nor any of its terms and provisions, nor any of the negotiations or proceedings connected with it, nor any of the documents or statements referred to therein, nor any act performed, or document executed pursuant to or in furtherance of the Settlement Agreement, nor this Final Order, nor any of its terms and provisions, shall be:

16. This Final Order and the Settlement Agreement (including exhibits thereto) may be filed in any action asserting a Released Claim that may be brought against any Released Party in order to support any defense or counterclaim, whether legal or equitable, including, without limitation, those based on principles of res judicata, collateral estoppel, release, waiver, good faith settlement, judgment bar or reduction, or any other theory of claim preclusion, issue preclusion, or similar defense or counterclaim.

17. This Final Order shall be effective upon entry. In the event that this Final Order is reversed or vacated pursuant to a direct appeal in this Action, or the Settlement Agreement is terminated pursuant to its terms, all orders entered in connection herewith, including, but not limited to, the Court's Preliminary Approval Order and this Final Order, shall be null and void.
