ORDER GRANTING FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS SETTLEMENT

This matter having come on to be heard on the 7th day of October, 2025, before that branch of the Circuit Court for Milwaukee County presided over by the Honorable Michael J. Hanrahan, on the Plaintiffs' Motion for Final Approval of Class Settlement, and the plaintiffs appearing by Cannon & Dunphy, S.C., by Attorneys Brett A. Eckstein and Julie A. Leary; the defendant Froedtert Memorial Lutheran Hospital, Inc., appearing by von Briesen & Roper, by Attorneys Kelly J. Noyes and Nicholas D. Castronovo; and the defendant Verisma Systems, Inc., appearing by Hinshaw and Culbertson, LLP, by Attorney Corey J. Swinick.

Now, based upon the proceedings heretofore had, taken and filed,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. That notice to all Settlement Class members who would be bound by the Settlement Agreement has been provided in a reasonable manner under Wis. Stat. § 803.08(9)(a).
2. No objections from any Settlement Class Member or any party were received regarding the Settlement Agreement. That having previously granted preliminary approval that the Settlement Agreement between the parties was fair, reasonable, and adequate, the Court now gives final approval that the Settlement Agreement between the parties is fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Parties, their counsel, and the Claims Administrator shall fulfill their obligations and duties under the Settlement Agreement.
3. That the Release of Claims contained in and defined by the Settlement Agreement is binding on Plaintiffs as defined in the Settlement Agreement, the Froedtert Defendants as defined in the Settlement Agreement, and the Settlement Class as defined in the Settlement Agreement and as certified by the Court by Order dated June 25, 2025.
4. That the claims asserted by the plaintiffs, including on behalf of the Settlement Class, against Froedtert Memorial Lutheran Hospital, Inc., are dismissed with prejudice. All other claims between Froedtert Memorial Lutheran Hospital, Inc., and Verisma Systems, Inc., remain pending.
5. That the claims of any Settlement Class member who submitted a timely Opt Out request are dismissed without prejudice.

6. That incentive payments are awarded to Sharon Klecha, Todd Reynolds, Katherine Prbylski, and James Jasen in the amount of $5,000 each.
7. That the Court finds that the payment of attorney fees and reimbursement of costs to Cannon & Dunphy in the amount of $855,491.00 is reasonable.

THIS IS A FINAL ORDER FOR PURPOSES OF APPEAL
