In re:
Foxwood Hills Property Owners
Association, Inc.

CASE NO. 20-02092-bb

Debtor

Chapter 11

Adversary Proceeding No. 20-80049-hb

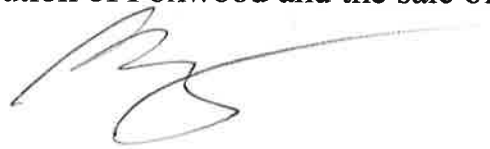

RESPONSE

Comes now Robin Jordan, Pro Se and files this Response to the Adversary Proceeding of the Debtor with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of South Carolina in the above referenced case. The Debtor has filed a motion with this court for a Declaratory Judgment. If this is granted, Foxwood Hills Property Owners Association, Inc. (hereafter referred to as Foxwood) would be allowed to get away with Court sanctioned robbery.

Foxwood has proven to be unworthy stewards and to allow them to continue to exist would be a severe perversion of justice.. The fact that this is a bankruptcy is proof that Foxwood cannot manage finances and should therefore be barred from any action that involves money. To allow Foxwood to have access to any monies would reward their utter incompetence.

I would ask that the court appoint a receiver to take control of the bankruptcy with the goal being the complete dissolution of Foxwood and the sale of all properties.
