Cases

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff and putative Class Representative Grace Grissom ("Plaintiff"), on behalf of herself and those similarly situated, and Defendant Sterling Infosystems, Inc. ("Sterling" or "Defendant") have settled this Fair Credit Reporting Act ("FCRA") case on a class-wide basis. The Settlement Agreement ("SA" or "Settlement") is attached to the Declaration of E. Michelle Drake ("Drake Decl.") as Exhibit 1. The Settlement provides for meaningful relief for Settlement Class Members and comes after extensive data discovery and analysis. The Settlement was reached after a full day mediation with the assistance of respected mediator Hon. Diane Welsh (Ret.) of JAMS Philadelphia. Plaintiff thus requests, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e), that the Court preliminarily approve the Settlement, authorize notice be sent to the Settlement Classes, and schedule a final approval hearing.

The Settlement requests the certification of two Settlement Classes. First, Plaintiff requests certification of the "Damages Class" under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). In exchange for a release of claims, Defendant has agreed to pay $2,500,000 into a non-reversionary fund from which payments to Damages Class Members will be made, along with attorneys' fees, costs, a class representative service award, and settlement administration costs. If the anticipated fees, costs, and service award are approved, Damages Class Members are expected to receive checks for between $175-200 each, with a double payment for those Damages Class Members that either (i) disputed information on their consumer reports and where an amended report was issued; or (ii) submit a claim attesting that they were harmed.

The Settlement also seeks certification of an Injunctive Relief Class under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2). As a result of this lawsuit, Defendant has agreed to make certain process changes to the policies at issue in the lawsuit. In exchange for this relief, Injunctive Relief Class Members do not release any claims they may have, but only their ability to bring claims against Defendant as part of a mass or aggregated proceedings. Hybrid injunctive relief and damages settlements are common in FCRA cases and ensure that the allegedly violative practices are changed benefitting the Injunctive Relief Class Members.

The Settlement here is "fair, reasonable, and adequate" and provides meaningful monetary and injunctive relief for Settlement Class Members. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e). The Court should enter the proposed Preliminary Approval Order and set a final approval hearing so that Settlement Class Members can be provided with this relief.

II. BACKGROUND

Defendant is a consumer reporting agency that provides, among other services, employment screening reports, which may include criminal records. (Compl. ¶¶ 8-10, ECF No. 1.) As a method of gathering alternative names and addresses regarding a consumer, Defendant offers a Social Security Number trace ("SSN Trace") which assists in obtaining names and addresses associated with the subject of the report. (Id. ¶ 27.)

In the litigation, Plaintiff alleged that reliance on SSN Trace information to locate criminal records to include in background checks can be problematic and "is not a reasonable procedure to assure maximum possible accuracy" as required by the FCRA, 15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b). (Compl. ¶¶ 79-85.)

Around September 2019, Plaintiff applied to work as a nanny through Care.com and found a family interested in her services. (Id. ¶¶ 35-36.) As part of Care.com's screening process, it obtained a background check from Sterling. (Id. ¶ 37.) In generating its report on Plaintiff, Defendant ran an SSN Trace. (Id. ¶ 38.) The SSN Trace revealed an "alternative name" of Martell Scott that was associated with Plaintiff. (Id. ¶ 40.) As alleged, Plaintiff has no relation to Martell

Scott and Martell Scott is not an alias for Plaintiff. (Id. ¶ 41.) The SSN Trace also revealed an address for Martell Scott in Lake Wales, Florida in Polk County. (Id. ¶ 42.) Plaintiff has never lived in Polk County or Lake Wales. (Id. ¶ 43.) The report included five criminal charges associated with Martell Scott from Polk County, Florida. (Id. ¶¶ 44-48.) These charges did not belong to Plaintiff, who has no criminal history. (Id. ¶ 49.) Plaintiff disputed the report and an amended report was issued, but by the time the dispute was completed, the position through Care.com was no longer available. (Id. ¶¶ 50-54.)

Plaintiff filed suit on September 25, 2020 alleging that Defendant had violated the FCRA, 15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b), for failing to follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy in generating its report on her and those similarly situated. (Id.)

Defendant answered the Complaint and denied all material allegations. The case proceeded into discovery. Both sides served written discovery and both sides responded. Defendant produced over 7,000 pages of documents and extensive additional data. In particular, Plaintiff focused her discovery efforts on obtaining the data from Defendant necessary to identify potential class members and demonstrate precisely how Defendant was using the SSN Trace. Negotiations regarding the data production were extensive and involved, with numerous meet-and-confers and voluminous exchanges of information. Plaintiff engaged a database expert to assist in the process, which involved obtaining data from a number of different database platforms. The ultimate data production in this case involved millions of pieces of information that had to be reviewed and analyzed.

After extensive data analysis, the parties agreed to engage in class-based settlement negotiations. The parties attended a mediation session with the Hon. Diane Welsh (Ret.) of JAMS Philadelphia on October 25, 2022. Subsequent to that mediation, the parties continued negotiations, reaching an agreement in principle on December 13, 2022. The parties' agreement was then formalized in the Settlement Agreement, presented here to the Court for preliminary approval.

III. THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

A. The Settlement Classes.

The Settlement Agreement seeks the certification of two classes: a class for damages under Rule 23(b)(3) and a class for injunctive relief under Rule 23(b)(2). Hybrid class action settlements with both injunctive relief and damages classes are fairly common in the FCRA context and many settlements with similar structures have been approved over the past decade. See Berry v. Schulman, 807 F.3d 600 (4th Cir. 2015) (approving FCRA settlement with Rule 23(b)(2) and Rule 23(b)(3) classes); Stewart v. Early Warning Services, LLC, No. 18-cv-3277 (D.N.J. June 24, 2020) (approving class settlement with both 23(b)(2) and 23(b)(3) classes where Rule 23(b)(2) class received injunctive relief but did not release individual claims for actual damages); Stewart v. LexisNexis Risk Data Retrieval Services, LLC, No. 3:20-cv-903 (E.D. Va. July 27, 2022) (granting final approval for FCRA settlement with both Rule 23(b)(3) and Rule 23(b)(2) classes); Kelly v. Business Information Group, Inc., No. 2:15-cv-6668 (E.D. Pa. Feb. 1, 2019) (granting final approval to hybrid settlement with Rule 23(b)(3) and Rule 23(b)(2) classes).

The Damages Class is defined as:

> All consumers for whom Sterling matched a record included in a consumer report based on a name developed through a SSN Trace from September 25, 2018 through June 4, 2021 wherein the consumer's first name, last name and middle name or middle initial did not exactly match the first name, last name, middle name or middle initial of the record reported; and where the consumer either made a dispute to Defendant regarding the report and an amended report was issued or where a pre-adverse action notice was sent to the consumer regarding the report.

(SA, ¶ 1.12.)

The Damages Class has an estimated 7,469 Members. (Id.) For the Damages Class, Defendant will pay $2,500,000 into a non-reversionary settlement fund. (Id. ¶ 1.14.) Every Damages Class Member will receive an automatic payment without the need for a claim form. Those Damages Class Members who either (i) disputed their report with Sterling and had an amended report issued; or (ii) submit a Request for an Enhanced Payment, attesting to harm will be eligible to receive an Enhanced Payment. (Id. ¶ 4.4.) After deductions for any Court-approved attorneys' fees and costs, class representative service award, and settlement administration costs, the fund will be divided pro rata such that those Damages Class Members who are eligible for an Enhanced Payment will receive twice the amount received by other Damages Class Members. (Id.) Depending on the amount of claims and the amount of the fund after Court-approved deductions, it is estimated that every Damages Class Member will receive a payment ranging from $175-200 and those eligible for an Enhanced Payment will receive twice that amount.

In exchange for this monetary relief, Damages Class Members are releasing all claims that were brought or could have been brought in the Complaint. (Id. ¶ 9.2.)

The Injunctive Relief Class is defined as:

> All consumers for whom Sterling matched a record included in a consumer report based on a name developed through a SSN trace from September 25, 2018 through June 4, 2021 wherein the consumer's first name, last name and middle name or middle initial did not exactly match the first name, last name, middle name or middle initial of the record reported.

(SA, ¶ 1.28.)

There are approximately 44,658 members of the Injunctive Relief Class. The Injunctive Relief Class is not releasing any claims against Defendant, only the ability to bring claims in a class action or other aggregated proceedings. (Id. ¶ 9.5.)

The relief for the Injunctive Relief Class was not negotiated until the amounts paid to the Damages Class had been agreed upon.

B. Settlement Notice Plan.

After soliciting and reviewing competitive bids, the parties have selected American Legal Claims Services to serve as the Settlement Administrator. The Settlement Administrator will handle the preparation and sending of notices; monitor and track Requests for Enhanced Payments; received and track exclusion requests and objections; implement and maintain the Settlement Website and telephone line; calculate, issue, and send settlement payments; and perform other administrative tasks. (SA ¶ 6.3.) Administration expenses are estimated to be approximately $49,950. (Drake Decl. ¶ 4.)

The parties have agreed to the forms of Notice attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibits A-C and E-G. Following receipt of the Class List from Defendant, and prior to sending notice, the Settlement Administrator will use publicly-available resources to confirm and update mailing and email addresses for the Class Members. (SA, ¶ 6.3.) All Damages Class Members shall be sent notice via email and mail, to the extent available. The Settlement Website will allow Damages Class Members to submit Requests for Enhanced Payments. The Settlement Website will also host a Long Form Notice for both the Damages Class and Injunctive Relief Class. (SA, Exs. A, E.) Injunctive Relief Class Members will be sent notice via email, and if a valid email address is unable to be located for the Class Member, they will be sent notice via mail. (Id. ¶ 6.3.2.) For forty-five days following the initial sending of notices, the Settlement Administrator will continue efforts to remail any undeliverable notices. (Id. ¶¶ 6.9.1, 6.9.3.) Additionally, twenty-one days prior to the Objections and Exclusions Deadline, the Settlement Administrator will email and/or mail reminder notices to those Damages Class Members not yet eligible for an Enhanced Payment. (Id. ¶ 6.9.2.) All forms of notice contain information regarding the claims at issue in the Settlement, the benefits to the Classes, and Class Members' rights and deadlines by which to exercise them. (SA, Exs. A-C, E-G.)

Prior to mailing, the Settlement Administrator will establish the Settlement Website. The Settlement Website will contain, along with the Long Form Notices, answers to frequently asked questions, important dates, the full Settlement Agreement, and additional relevant Court documents (Complaint, Answer, Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Preliminary Approval Order, and other settlement-related filings as they become available), and sections where Class Members can update their contact information and, for Damages Class Members, to submit Requests for Enhanced Payments. (Id. ¶¶ 1.54, 6.3.3, 6.7.) Additionally, the Settlement Administrator will establish a toll-free IVR phone line with answers to frequently asked questions, for both Settlement Classes. (Id. ¶ 6.7.5.)

C. Objections, Opt Outs & Requests for Enhanced Payment.

The proposed notices inform the Settlement Class Members of their right to object to the Settlement, and for Damages Class Members, the right to opt-out, as well as the deadlines associated with those processes. (SA, Exs. A-C, E-G.) Damages Class Members who choose to opt out must send a written notice to the Settlement Administrator stating the individual's desire to opt out of the Settlement. (Id. ¶ 7.2.1.) To object, a Settlement Class Member must mail a written objection to the Settlement Administrator, containing the case name and number, the basis for and an explanation of the objection, and the name, address, telephone number, and email address of the Class Member making the objection. Any objection must be personally signed by the Class Member, and if represented by counsel, by counsel. (Id. ¶ 7.3.1.)

D. Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Class Representative Service Award.

The Settlement Agreement contemplates Class Counsel petitioning the Court for attorneys' fees on behalf of both the Damages Class and the Injunctive Relief Class. As to the Damages Class, Class Counsel may seek an amount not to exceed one-third of the Damages Class Settlement Fund, as well as documented, customary out-of-pocket costs. (Id. ¶ 8.3.) As to the Injunctive Relief Class, Class Counsel may petition for up to $500,000, which would include Class Counsel fees, costs of administration, and a portion of the service award for the Class Representative. (Id.) Class Counsel will also petition the Court to approve an amount not to exceed $10,000 as a service payment for the Class Representative. (Id. ¶ 8.4.) That amount may be paid from the Damages Class Settlement Fund and or from the amount awarded in connection with the Injunctive Relief Class, or a combination thereof. (Id.) Class Counsel will formally petition the Court for these amounts fourteen (14) days prior to the Objection and Exclusion Deadline and the Settlement Administrator will post a copy of the motion papers on the Settlement Website so that Class Members can review them prior to the Deadline. (Id. ¶ 10.4.)

Class Counsel prioritized relief for the Classes over the negotiation of attorneys' fees, and also worked to ensure that the attorneys' fees related to the Injunctive Relief Class were not paid entirely out of the recovery for the Damages Class. Neither the attorneys' fees, nor the proposed Class Representative service award were negotiated prior to agreement on relief for the Classes.

IV. ARGUMENT

A. The Settlement Meets the Standard of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e).

Approval of a class action settlement "typically occurs in two stages:" first, "preliminary approval—where 'prior to notice to the class, a court makes a preliminary evaluation of fairness,'" and second, "final approval—where 'notice of a hearing is given to the class members, [and] class members and settling parties are provided the opportunity to be heard on the question of final court approval.'" In re Payment Card Interchange Fee & Merch. Disc. Antitrust Litig., 330 F.R.D. 11, 27 (E.D.N.Y. 2019) (quoting In re LIBOR-Based Fin. Instruments Antitrust Litig., No. 11-CV-5450, 2016 WL 7625708, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 21, 2016)).

"During the preliminary approval stage, a court 'must review the proposed terms of settlement and make a preliminary determination on the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the settlement terms.'" Id. (quoting In re Initial Pub. Offering Sec. Litig., 243 F.R.D. 79, 87 (S.D.N.Y. 2007)). The Court must direct notice to the class "if giving notice is justified by the parties' showing that the court will likely be able to: (i) approve the proposal under Rule 23(e)(2); and (ii) certify the class for purposes of judgment on the proposal." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1)(B).

With respect to whether the settlement likely warrants approval under Rule 23(e)(2), courts consider whether:

> (A) the class representatives and class counsel have adequately represented the class;
> (B) the proposal was negotiated at arm's length;
>
> (C) the relief provided for the class is adequate, taking into account:
>
> > (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal;
> >
> > (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class, including the method of processing class-member claims;
> >
> > (iii) the terms of any proposed award of attorney's fees, including timing of payment; and
> >
> > (iv) any agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3);[1] and
> (D) the proposal treats class members equitably relative to each other.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2); see also City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp., 495 F.2d 448, 463 (2d Cir.

1974) (listing factors), abrogated on other grounds by Goldberger v. Integrated Res., Inc., 209 F.3d 43 (2d Cir. 2000). In this analysis, "[c]ourts should remain mindful . . . 'of the "strong judicial policy in favor of settlements, particularly in the class action context."'" In re Payment Card, 330 F.R.D. at 27 (quoting Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Visa U.S.A., Inc., 396 F.3d 96, 116 (2d Cir. 2005)).

Courts also analyze certain non-enumerated factors—in the Second Circuit, the Grinnell factors—because the factors in Rule 23(e)(2) were intended "not to displace any factor" previously developed by courts to analyze class action settlements "but rather to focus the court and the lawyers on the core concerns of procedure and substance that should guide the decision whether to approve the proposal." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2) advisory committee's note to 2018 amendment; see also In re Namenda Direct Purchaser Antitrust Litig., 462 F. Supp. 3d 307, 311-15 (S.D.N.Y. 2020). Many of the Grinnell factors are substantively similar to those in Rule 23(e)(2) and may be considered together.[2]

1. The Proposal was Negotiated at Arms-Length and Class Counsel and the Class Representative Have Adequately Represented the Class.

The first two factors in Rule 23(e)(2) concern the procedural fairness of the settlement. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2) advisory committee's note to 2018 amendment; Namenda, 462 F. Supp. 3d at 311. "A presumption of fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness may attach to a class settlement reached in arm's-length negotiations between experienced, capable counsel." Puddu v. 6D Glob. Techs., Inc., No. 15-CV-8061 (AJN), 2021 WL 1910656, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. May 12, 2021) (quoting Wal-Mart, 396 F.3d at 116). There is also "a presumption of fairness when a settlement is reached with the assistance of a mediator." Id.; see also In re PaineWebber Ltd., P'ships Litig., 171 F.R.D. 104, 125 (S.D.N.Y. 1997), aff'd, 117 F.3d 721 (2d Cir. 1997).

[2] Specifically, the first, fourth, fifth, eighth, and ninth Grinnell factors are largely the same as the analysis under Rule 23(e)(2). These factors are, respectively: the complexity, expense, and likely duration of the litigation; the risk of establishing liability; the risk of establishing damages; the range of reasonableness of the settlement fund in light of the best possible recovery; and the range of reasonableness of the settlement fund in light of all the attendant risks of litigation. See Namenda, 462 F. Supp. 3d at 311-15.

Here, the Settlement has that presumption of fairness because it was reached with the assistance of an experienced mediator, Judge Diane M. Welsh (Ret.), who held a mediation session with the parties on October 25, 2022. After the mediation, the parties continued negotiations and were able to reach an agreement in principle on December 13, 2022, just prior to a second scheduled mediation. The parties subsequently engaged in two additional months of negotiations to reach a final formal agreement. The negotiations were at arms-length, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(B), and, as discussed further below, counsel for both sides are experienced in FCRA class actions.

Discovery in the case was thorough, with Defendant producing over 7,000 pages of documents as well as a substantial amount of data that was thoroughly reviewed and analyzed with expert assistance. Plaintiff also responded to written discovery and produced documents. Enough discovery was completed that the parties were adequately informed about the strengths and weaknesses of the case. See, e.g., D'Amato v. Deutsche Bank, 236 F.3d 78, 87 (2d Cir. 2001) (affirming settlement approval when "although no formal discovery had taken place, the parties had engaged in an extensive exchange of documents and other information"). Hence, this Settlement bears the hallmarks of procedural fairness. See McReynolds v. Richards-Cantave, 588 F.3d 790, 804 (2d Cir. 2009) (holding that a settlement was procedurally fair because it was the product of arms-length negotiations between experienced counsel after substantial discovery).

Furthermore, the Class Representative and Class Counsel have adequately represented the Classes. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(A). Plaintiff performed all the duties of a class representative, including producing documents, responding to written discovery, and assisting counsel with the progress of the litigation. (Drake Decl. ¶ 5.) For settlement, "the focus at this point is on the actual performance of counsel acting on behalf of the class." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2) advisory committee's note to 2018 amendment. Class Counsel has been litigating FCRA class actions for over a decade and E. Michelle Drake and John Albanese are two of the preeminent FCRA litigators in the country. (Drake Decl. ¶¶ 6-15.) Here, Class Counsel vigorously pursued discovery, and have achieved a settlement wherein Defendant is changing the practices at issue and is providing significant monetary and injunctive relief to Settlement Class Members.

2. The Settlement Provides Significant and Meaningful Relief.

The second two factors in Rule 23(e)(2) concern the substantive adequacy of the settlement. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2) advisory committee's note to 2018 amendment. At this stage, the primary pertinent factor is the relief to the class, taking into account "the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C)(i). "The adequacy of the amount achieved in settlement may not be judged in comparison with the possible recovery in the best of all possible worlds, but rather in light of the strengths and weaknesses of plaintiffs' case." In re Giant Interactive Grp., Inc. Sec. Litig., 279 F.R.D. 151, 162 (S.D.N.Y. 2011) (internal quotation marks omitted). "[W]e must examine whether the settlement amount lies within a range of reasonableness, which range reflects the uncertainties of law and fact in any particular case and the concomitant risks and costs necessarily inherent in taking any litigation to completion." In re IMAX Sec. Litig., 283 F.R.D. 178, 191 (S.D.N.Y. 2012) (internal quotation marks omitted).

a. The Settlement Provides Appropriate Benefits Especially in Light of the Litigation Risks.

Here, the Settlement provides substantial relief for Settlement Class Members. For the Damages Class Members, expected payouts are between $175-200 for Damages Class Members, and twice that amount for those Damages Class Members eligible for an Enhanced Payment.

These are not insignificant amounts and are reasonable recoveries given that the statutory damages range provided by the FCRA is $100 to $1,000 per violation. 15 U.S.C. § 1681n. These recoveries also compare favorably to other FCRA settlements, many of which settle for less than $100 per class member, and, specifically, to FCRA settlements involving inaccurate reporting. See, e.g., Ryals v. HireRight Solutions, Inc., No. 09-cv-625, ECF No. 127 (E.D. Va. Dec. 22, 2011) (final approval of settlement for inaccurate criminal record reporting, providing $15-$200 gross per class member); Dougherty v. QuickSIUS, LLC, No. 2:15-cv-06432, ECF No. 66 (E.D. Pa. May 31, 2018) (final approval of settlement for claims under § 1681e(b) providing automatic payments of $104 or $419 to class members); Patel v. Trans Union, LLC, No. 14-00522, 2018 WL 1258194, at *5 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 11, 2018) (final approval of class action settlement involving §1681e(b) claims where class members received $400 and could make a claim for further damages); Stokes v. RealPage, Inc., No. 2:15-cv-01520, ECF No. 63 (E.D. Pa. Feb. 6, 2018) (final approval of settlement involving §1681e(b) claims creating a common fund of $1,079,200 for 21,607 class members).

For the Injunctive Relief Class, the changes are significant and will prevent the similar alleged misattribution of criminal records through a SSN Trace from occurring again. It is estimated that 94% of employers and 90% of landlords use background checks to evaluate job and housing applicants.[3] Given Sterling's prominent position in the background check industry, it is common for job seekers to have reports issued by Sterling. Thus, the injunctive relief here provides a benefit to these Settlement Class Members by ensuring the challenged practices have been changed. The injunctive relief here is particularly significant, especially given that the weight of authority suggests that injunctive relief is not available to private plaintiffs under the FCRA. See Owoyemi v. Credit Corp Sols. Inc., 596 F. Supp. 3d 514, 519 (S.D.N.Y. 2022) (stating the "[t]he FCRA, however, does not provide for injunctive relief to consumers" and collecting authority). Moreover, the Injunctive Relief Class Members are not releasing any substantive claims, only their ability to bring a class action or other aggregated proceeding.

The relief obtained is impressive especially considering that there were substantial litigation risks in this matter. Defendant continues to vigorously deny liability, and the case has yet to survive class certification, summary judgment, and likely appeals. Establishing liability in this case was far from certain. Notably, "[t]he FCRA does not provide for strict liability for a [consumer reporting agency] that reports inaccurate information." Wenning v. On-Site Manager, Inc., No. 14 CIV. 9693 (PAE), 2016 WL 3538379, at *16 (S.D.N.Y. June 22, 2016). Plaintiff would have had to show that Defendant's violations not only were negligent, but were "willful" in order to recover statutory damages on behalf of the class members. 15 U.S.C. § 1681n. This can be a high bar and presents a real risk to recovery. See Safeco Ins. Co. of Am. v. Burr, 551 U.S. 47, 69 (2007) ("a company subject to FCRA does not act in reckless disregard . . . unless the [challenged] action is not only a violation under a reasonable reading of the statute's terms, but shows that the company ran a risk of violating the law substantially greater than the risk associated with a reading that was merely careless."). Indeed, FCRA plaintiffs can lose on this standard even after a successful verdict at trial. See Smith v. LexisNexis Screening Sols., Inc., 837 F.3d 604, 611 (6th Cir. 2016) (reversing jury verdict, holding that consumer reporting agency's conduct did not constitute a willful violation of the FCRA); Domonoske v. Bank of America, N.A., 790 F. Supp. 2d 466, 476 (W.D. Va. 2011) ("[G]iven the difficulties of proving willfulness or even negligence with actual damages [under the FCRA], there was a substantial risk of nonpayment.").

Rule 23 also calls for consideration of the costs and delay of trial and appeal. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C)(i). "The expense and possible duration of the litigation are major factors to be considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement." Milstein v. Huck, 600 F. Supp. 254, 267 (E.D.N.Y. 1984). Substantial work remains in this matter to prepare for trial if the Settlement is not approved. Continued litigation would result in complex, costly, and lengthy proceedings before this Court and likely the Second Circuit, which would significantly delay any relief to Class Members or might result in no relief to Class Members at all. In order to prosecute their claims to a final judgment, Plaintiff would have to engage in class certification motion practice, summary judgment motion practice, expert discovery, prepare for trial, and present evidence during a jury trial. Even if Plaintiff recovers a larger judgment after a trial, the additional delay through trial, post-trial motions, and the appellate process could deny the Settlement Classes any recovery for years, further reducing any recovery's value. Hicks v. Morgan Stanley & Co., No. 01 Civ. 10071 (RJH), 2005 WL 2757792, at *6 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 24, 2005) ("Further litigation would necessarily involve further costs [and] justice may be best served with a fair settlement today as opposed to an uncertain future settlement or trial of the action."); Strougo v. Bassini, 258 F. Supp. 2d 254, 261 (S.D.N.Y. 2003) ("even if a shareholder or class member was willing to assume all the risks of pursuing the actions through further litigation…the passage of time would introduce yet more risks…and would, in light of the time value of money, make future recoveries less valuable than this current recovery").

b. The Method of Distributing Benefits Is Effective.

Rule 23(e)(2)(C)(ii) requires courts to examine "the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class, including the method of processing class-member claims." "A claims processing method should deter or defeat unjustified claims, but the court should be alert to whether the claims process is unduly demanding." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2) advisory committee's note to 2018 amendment; see also In re GSE Bonds Antitrust Litig., 414 F. Supp. 3d 686, 694 (S.D.N.Y. 2019). Even in cases involving claimants with different interests, "[c]ourts frequently approve plans involving pro rata distribution." In re Payment Card Interchange Fee & Merch. Disc. Antitrust Litig., 2019 WL 6875472, at *20 (E.D.N.Y. Dec. 16, 2019) (addressing Rule 23(e)(2)(C)(ii) for a plan that provided for pro rata division by claimants). Here, the distribution is even more effective than the typical case. All Damages Class Members will receive a payment automatically, and those who disputed and had an amended report issued or who attest to further harm will receive a double payment. The Injunctive Relief Class Members, of course, receive the relief provided without having to do anything.

c. The Attorneys' Fees and Service Award Are Appropriate.

The Settlement is not contingent upon approval of attorneys' fees or any service award to the named Plaintiff. The Court will separately and independently determine the appropriate amount of fees, costs, and expenses to award to Plaintiff's Counsel and the appropriate amount of any incentive award to the named Plaintiff. Counsel's fees and cost petition will be posted on the Settlement Website for Settlement Class Members to review prior to the Objection and Exclusion Deadline. The anticipated fee request of one-third of the Damages Class Fund plus reasonable out-of-pocket costs is a typical fee award in the Second Circuit. See, e.g., Wal-Mart, 396 F.3d at 121; McDaniel v. County of Schnectady, 595 F.3d 411, 417 (2d Cir. 2010) (stating that the "trend in this Circuit is toward the percentage method"); Suarez v. Rosa Mexicano Brands Inc., No. 16 Civ. 5464 (GWG), 2018 WL 1801319 (S.D.N.Y. April 13, 2018) (approving one-third of $3.6 million settlement fund); Zorrilla v. Carlson Rests., Inc., No. 14 Civ. 2740 (AT), 2018 WL 1737139 (S.D.N.Y. April 9, 2018) (approving one-third of $19.1 million settlement fund).

Moreover, the separate contemplated request for $500,000 as attorneys' fees for the injunctive relief achieved is modest compared to other FCRA settlements. See, e.g., Berry, 807 F.3d at 617-19 (approving fee of $5.3 million for injunctive relief class). Any approved Class Counsel's fees will be paid on the same timeline as payments to Damages Class Members. (SA, ¶¶ 8.3.1, 8.5.)

In addition, the named Plaintiff will request a service award in the amount of $10,000, which is subject to Court approval. The proposed service award compensates Plaintiff for her time and effort, the risks she undertook in prosecuting the case, and the actions she took for the benefit of the Settlement Classes. The requested award is well within the range of approval, particularly given the level of participation required and the risk she undertook in publicizing her individual circumstances in order to achieve a recovery for the class. See Godson v. Eltman, Eltman, & Cooper, P.C., 328 F.R.D. 35, 60 (W.D.N.Y. 2018) ($10,000 to named plaintiff in a consumer class action); Norflet ex rel. Norflet v. John Hancock Life Ins. Co., 658 F. Supp. 2d 350, 354 (D. Conn. 2009) (approving award of $20,000 to named plaintiff).

d. Settlement Class Members are Treated Equitably.

The division between Damages Class Members and Injunctive Relief Class Members is appropriate. The Damages Class Members have some indication that their report may have adversely affected their employment, either in receiving a pre-adverse action notice[4] or in disputing their report. In exchange for the monetary payment, Damages Class Members are providing a full release of FCRA claims related to the report. The Injunctive Relief Class Members are not receiving payments but are also not releasing any claims. They are only releasing their ability to bring such claims as a class action. If they were harmed by the report, they can still maintain any claims.

Further, for Damages Class Members, it is equitable that those that disputed their report or who can attest to a further harm are entitled to an Enhanced Payment. Everyone is receiving an automatic payment without the need for a claim form and those Settlement Class Members who attest to further harm will receive more money than those Class Members who do not make such representations. Under these circumstances, all of the Damages Class Members are being treated fairly relative to each other even though some Class Members may be afforded different relief. Indeed, it is common in FCRA settlements to provide a larger payment to people who disputed reports or attested to further harm. See, e.g., Ryals v. Strategic Screening Solutions, Inc., No. 14-643 (E.D. Va.) (approving FCRA settlement where some class members received $35 and other class members received $11,000); Thomas v. Backgroundchecks.com, No. 13-29 (E.D. Va.) (approving FCRA settlement with where some class members could receive additional payments by asserting that background check caused certain types of harm); Henderson v. Acxion Risk Mitigation, Inc., No. 12-589 (approving FCRA settlement where all class members received $35.25 and consumers who disputed and submitted claims received up to $8,000).

B. The Settlement Classes Should Be Certified.

When a plaintiff seeks preliminary approval of a classwide settlement for a class that has not yet been approved, the court must also determine whether the class should be provisionally certified. See In re Stock Exchanges Options Trading Antitrust Litig., 2005 WL 1635158, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. July 8, 2005) ("In the context of settlement, courts often provisionally certify the class along with preliminary approval of the settlement."). In the Second Circuit, "Rule 23 is given liberal rather than restrictive construction, and courts are to adopt a standard of flexibility" in evaluating class certification. Reade-Alvarez v. Eltman, Eltman & Cooper, P.C., 237 F.R.D. 26, 31 (E.D.N.Y. 2006) (quoting Marisol A. v. Giuliani, 126 F.3d 372, 377 (2d Cir. 1997)). As a result, doubts as to whether or not to certify a class action should be resolved "in favor of allowing the class to go forward." In re Indep. Energy Holdings PLC Sec. Litig., 210 F.R.D. 476, 479 (S.D.N.Y. 2002). This is especially true in the context of a settlement class, because the court need not inquire whether a trial of the action would be manageable on a classwide basis. See Amchem Prods., Inc. v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 620 (1997) (finding that it is unnecessary to consider management problems in the context of a settlement class).

To certify a class, the class must meet all the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a) and meet one of the prongs of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b). Here, Plaintiff seeks to certify the Injunctive Relief Class under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2) and the Damages Class under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3).

1. The Settlement Classes Meet the Requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a).

a. Numerosity is Satisfied.

"In the Second Circuit, numerosity is presumed for classes of 40 or more." In re Restasis (Cyclosporine Ophthalmic Emulsion) Antitrust Litig., 335 F.R.D. 1, 11 (E.D.N.Y. 2020) (citing Consol. Rail Corp. v. Town of Hyde Park, 47 F.3d 473, 483 (2d Cir. 1995)). "At the same time, '[c]ourts have not required evidence of exact class size or identity of class members in order to satisfy the numerosity requirement.'" Brooklyn Ctr. for Indep. of the Disabled v. Bloomberg, 290 F.R.D. 409, 418 (S.D.N.Y. 2012) (quoting Robidoux v. Celani, 987 F.2d 931, 935 (2d Cir. 1993)). Here, both Settlement Classes have thousands of members. Numerosity is satisfied.

b. There are Questions of Law and Fact Common to the Classes.

Commonality is satisfied when class members "have claims that depend upon a common contention, that is capable of classwide resolution—which means that determination of its truth or falsity will resolve an issue that is central to the validity of each one of the claims in one stroke." Brooklyn Ctr., 290 F.R.D. at 418 (internal quotation marks omitted). This requirement "is not demanding and is met so long as there is at least one issue common to the class." Id. (internal quotation marks omitted).

There are numerous common questions of law and fact here. The most important common question here is whether Sterling's procedures violated the FCRA's requirement that consumer reporting agencies follow "reasonable procedures" to assure "maximum possible accuracy." 15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b). See, e.g., Patel v. Trans Union, LLC, 308 F.R.D. 292, 304 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (finding common question of whether "there [] reasonable procedures in place (here, the name-only logic) to ensure the maximum possible accuracy of the information"); Soutter v. Equifax Info. Servs., LLC, 307 F.R.D. 183, 205 (E.D. Va. 2015) (finding consumer reporting agency's procedures to "raise a common contention of reasonableness that can be resolved with common answers on a classwide basis"); Feliciano v. CoreLogic Rental Prop. Sols., LLC, 332 F.R.D. 98, 106 (S.D.N.Y. 2019) (finding "whether defendant followed reasonable procedures to ensure the accuracy of its records" to be a common question). Willfulness also presents a common issue. See, e.g., Soutter, 307 F.R.D. at 207 ("[C]ommon evidence applicable across all class members regarding willfulness will resolve a common contention and drive the litigation forward by common answers."); Milbourne v. JRK Residential Am., LLC, No. 12-861, 2014 WL 5529731, at *6 (E.D. Va. Oct. 31, 2014) ("[T]he question of willfulness is also a common question."); McIntyre v. RealPage, Inc., 336 F.R.D. 422, 438 (E.D. Pa. 2020) ("Plaintiff's sole claim, willfulness violation, does not give rise to individual determinations..."); Taha v. Cty. of Bucks, 862 F.3d 292, 309 (3d Cir. 2017) ("Clearly, the trier of fact should be able to determine whether a violation was 'willful' by considering common evidence regarding defendants' actions and intent without taking into account information regarding the individual class members.").

c. Typicality is Met.

The commonality and typicality requirements "tend to merge." Ge Dandong v. Pinnacle Performance Ltd., No. 10 CIV. 8086 JMF, 2013 WL 5658790, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 17, 2013). Typicality "is satisfied when each class member's claim arises from the same course of events, and each class member makes similar legal arguments to prove the defendant's liability." Beach v. JPMorgan Chase Bank, Nat'l Ass'n, No. 17-CV-563 (JMF), 2019 WL 2428631, at *7 (S.D.N.Y. June 11, 2019) (internal quotation marks omitted). When "the alleged injuries derive from a unitary course of conduct by a single system," typicality is generally found. Brooklyn Ctr., 290 F.R.D. at 419 (internal quotation marks omitted).

Here, Plaintiff meets the typicality requirement. Defendant prepared a report on her that included a criminal record with a name developed through a SSN Trace where the personally identifying information on the criminal record did not sufficiently match Plaintiff's personally identifying information. Plaintiff's claims thus rest on the same legal and factual issues as those of the other Settlement Class Members.

d. Plaintiff and Class Counsel are Adequate.

"Class representatives can adequately represent a class if they (1) have an interest in vigorously pursuing the claims of the class and (2) have no interests antagonistic to the interests of other class members." Beach, 2019 WL 2428631, at *8 (internal quotation marks omitted).

Plaintiff has an interest in vigorously pursuing the claims of the Classes because she seeks the same relief for herself as for the rest of the Class Members, damages as provided by the FCRA and the changes to the practices at issue. She has no interests antagonistic to the interests of other Class Members. She has further participated actively in the case for over two years, including responding to discovery.

The Court also considers whether "plaintiff's attorneys are qualified, experienced, and able to conduct the litigation." Ge Dandong, 2013 WL 5658790, at *7; Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g)(1) ("Unless a statute provides otherwise, a court that certifies a class must appoint class counsel."). Plaintiff's Counsel are experienced in class actions and FCRA litigation and are qualified to conduct this litigation. E. Michelle Drake and John Albanese are experienced in complex class-action litigation and consumer litigation in general, and FCRA litigation in particular. (Drake Decl. ¶¶ 6-15.) They are highly qualified to represent the Classes here.

2. The Damages Class Meets the Requirements of Rule 23(b)(3).

a. Common Issues Predominate.

"The predominance requirement is satisfied 'if resolution of some of the legal or factual questions that qualify each class member's case as a genuine controversy can be achieved through generalized proof, and if these particular issues are more substantial than the issues subject only to individualized proof.'" In re U.S. Foodservice Inc. Pricing Litig., 729 F.3d 108, 118 (2d Cir. 2013) (quoting UFCW Local 1776 v. Eli Lilly & Co., 620 F.3d 121, 131 (2d Cir. 2010)). "For common questions to predominate over individual ones, it is not necessary for each element of plaintiffs' claims to be susceptible to classwide proof, but only for common questions to predominate over any questions affecting only individual class members." Ge Dandong, 2013 WL 5658790, at *8 (internal quotation marks and brackets omitted). Often, predominance is "easier to satisfy in the settlement context." In re Payment Card, 330 F.R.D. at 56 (quoting In re Am. Int'l Grp., Inc. Sec. Litig., 689 F.3d 229, 240 (2d Cir. 2012)).

The common factual and legal issues regarding the Damages Class Members' claims are based on the alleged standardized policies and procedures of Defendant. Whether Defendant's (1) procedures were reasonable and (2) alleged violations were willful are common issues that predominate over any individualized concerns. See, e.g., Kang v. Credit Bureau Connection, Inc., No. 18-1359, 2022 WL 658105, at *6-9 (E.D. Cal. Mar. 4, 2022) (finding that "common questions predominate" on FCRA claim for statutory damages where "primary common question" was whether defendant failed to follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy of its reports); Soutter, 307 F.R.D. at 215-16 (finding that common questions concerning both willfulness and reasonableness of defendant's procedures predominated); Stillmock v. Weis Markets, Inc., 385 F. App'x 267, 273 (4th Cir. 2010 (finding predominance as "the qualitatively overarching issue by far is the liability issue of the defendant's willfulness, and the purported class members were exposed to the same risk of harm every time the defendant violated the statute in the identical manner").

b. Superiority is Met.

In general, four factors are pertinent to superiority:

> (A) the class members' interests in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
> (B) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already begun by or against class members;
> (C) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and > (D) the likely difficulties in managing a class action.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). "Confronted with a request for settlement-only class certification, a district court need not inquire whether the case, if tried, would present intractable management problems, for the proposal is that there be no trial." Amchem, 521 U.S. at 620 (citation omitted). Hence, only factors (A)-(C) are relevant here.

A class action in this case is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the case. A class resolution of the issues described above outweighs the difficulties in management of separate, individual claims and allows access to the courts for those who might not gain such access standing alone. This is particularly true here, in light of the relatively small amount of the damages claims that would be available to individuals, with the FCRA providing for statutory damages of $100 to $1,000 per violation. Moreover, the Settlement permits individual class members to opt out and pursue their own actions separately if they believe they wish to pursue a higher recovery. See Murray v. GMAC Mortg. Corp., 434 F.3d 948, 953 (7th Cir. 2006) ("Unless a district court finds that personal injuries are large in relation to statutory damages, a representative plaintiff must be allowed to forego claims for compensatory damages in order to achieve class certification. When a few class members' injuries prove to be substantial, they may opt out and litigate independently.").

3. The Injunctive Relief Class is Properly Certified Under Rule 23(b)(2).

"According to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, a class may be certified under Rule 23(b)(2) in a single circumstance: when 'the party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds that apply generally to the class, so that final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief is appropriate respecting the class as a whole.'" Hyland v. Navient Corp., 48 F.4th 110, 118–19 (2d Cir. 2022) (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2) and cleaned up).

Here, each member of the Injunctive Relief Class has been subjected to the same allegedly violative procedures by Defendant. The proposed injunctive relief will ensure that those procedures are no longer used in future reports for Settlement Class Members. Rule 23(b)(2) certification is appropriate. Hyland, 48 F.4th at 120-21 (upholding certification on injunctive relief class where injunctive relief prevented defendant from "providing incorrect information" and where plaintiffs maintained right to bring individual lawsuits for damages).

C. The Proposed Notice is the Best Notice Practicable.

Rule 23(e)(1) requires that notice of a class action settlement be sent "in a reasonable manner to all class members who would be bound by the proposal." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1). "[F]or due process to be satisfied, not every class member need receive actual notice, as long as class counsel 'acted reasonably in selecting means likely to inform persons affected.'" In re Adelphia Commc'ns Corp. Sec. & Derivatives Litig., 271 F. App'x 41, 44 (2d Cir. 2008) (quoting Weigner v. New York, 852 F.2d 646, 649 (2d Cir. 1988)).

The proposed notice is direct notice, with a combination of email and mail. The Settlement Administrator will also create a Settlement Website with detailed information about the case and the Settlement, and the Classes' Long Form Notices will be available on the Website. Each notice "describe[s] the nature of the action, identifie[s] the class, describe[s] the proposed settlement terms, and note[s] that any member of the class c[an] exclude themselves from the settlement and the class[,]" and further "apprise[s] the class members of the date, time, and location of the final fairness hearing, and indicate[s] that the recipient of the notice had the right to object to the proposed settlement or any portion thereof." Godson, 328 F.R.D. at 51; see also In re GM LLC Ignition Switch Litig., 2020 WL 12918022, at *7 (S.D.N.Y. April 27, 2020). Each notice is written in plain English, and each notice directs the reader to the Settlement Website for more information. (SA, Exs. A-C, E-G.) This form of notice is the best notice practicable under the circumstances.

V. CONCLUSION

For all of the above reasons, Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement should be granted.

From Judge Paul A. Engelmayer, United States District Court, Southern District of New York:

I know the diligence of counsel and dedication of counsel to the class…Thank you, Ms. Drake. As always I appreciate the—your extraordinary dedication to your – to the class and the very obvious backwards and forwards familiarity you have with the case and level of preparation and articulateness today. It's a pleasure always to have you before me…Class counsel [] generated this case on their own initiative and at their own risk. Counsel's enterprise and ingenuity merits significant compensation…Counsel here are justifiably proud of the important result that they achieved.

You're very articulate on this issue. … Obviously, you're very thoughtful and you have given it a great deal of thought. … And I appreciate your ability to respond to my questions off the cuff. … It shows that you have given these issues a lot of thought ... I have to say that your thoughtfulness this morning has somewhat diminished my concerns [regarding high multiplier on attorney fees]… You're > demonstrating credibility by a mile as you go….You are extraordinarily impressive. And I thank you for being here, and for your candid, noninvasive [sic] response to every question I have. I was extremely skeptical at the outset this morning. You have allayed all of my concerns and have persuaded me that this is an important issue, and that you have done a great service to the class. And for that reason, I am going to approve your settlement in all respects… And I congratulate you on your excellent work.

The Court has previously commended counsel for their excellent lawyering. …The point is worth reiterating here. [Plaintiffs' counsel] was energetic, effective, and creative throughout this long litigation. The Court found [Plaintiffs' counsel]'s briefs and arguments first-rate. And the documents and deposition transcripts which the Court reviewed in the course of resolving motions revealed the firm's far-sighted and strategic approach to discovery. … Further, unlike in many class actions, plaintiffs' counsel did not build their case by piggybacking on regulatory investigation or settlement. … The lawyers [] can genuinely claim to have been the authors of their clients' success.

It is the intention of this distribution that Enhanced Payment Damages Class Members shall receive a payment that is two times the amount of non-Enhanced Payment Damages Class Members.

5. Relief for Injunctive Relief Class Members

5.1. Injunctive Relief. As a result of this Action and Settlement, Defendant has agreed to the following injunctive relief: Defendant agrees not to use any name that is solely developed through a SSN Trace as a primary matching identifier to associate consumers with criminal records that are included on consumer reports prepared by Defendant.

6. Selection of Settlement Administrator.

6.1. Selection of Settlement Administrator. After obtaining competitive bids from multiple reputable administrators, Defendant shall recommend the name of the Settlement Administrator to Class Counsel. Subject to Class Counsel's consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, Defendant shall propose the appointment of the selected Settlement Administrator.

6.2. Settlement Administrator's Agreement with the Parties. Class Counsel and Defendant shall enter into an agreement with the Settlement Administrator that shall require the Settlement Administrator to abide by all Court orders in this Action and to perform the functions described in this Agreement, the Preliminary Approval Order, and the Final Approval Order, within the time limits specified in this Agreement, the Preliminary Approval Order, and the Final Approval Order, as well as such other services as are customarily performed by class action administrators.

6.3. Settlement Administration.

6.3.1. The Settlement Administrator will update the address information included with the Class List and use its best efforts to obtain the last known email and mail address for all Settlement Class Members. The Settlement Administrator will, as necessary, print, copy, format, and mail (as specified herein) the Damages Class Postcard Notice and shall also email the Damages Class Email Notice (Exhibits B and C) to each Damages Class Member for whom such information is available or obtained by the Settlement Administrator. The Settlement Administrator will also as necessary, print, copy, format, and mail the Damages Class

Reminder Postcard Notice and email the Damages Class Reminder Email Notice to each Damages Class Member who has not yet qualified for an Enhanced Payment at least 21 days before expiration of the Objection and Exclusion Period.

6.3.2. The Settlement Administrator shall use reasonably available commercial means to locate email addresses for all Injunctive Relief Class Members. The Settlement Administrator will email or mail (as specified herein) at least one version of the Injunctive Relief Email Notice to each Injunctive Relief Only Class Member, using email where an email address is located. If an email returns as undeliverable or if no email address can be found, the Settlement Administrator shall mail a copy of the Injunctive Relief Mail Notice.

6.3.3. The Settlement Administrator will use reasonable commercial means to update mailing addresses prior to any mailing, shall also perform a skip trace for undeliverable addresses, establish and maintain a Qualified Settlement Fund, obtain appropriate tax identification numbers, calculate individual settlement payments, file all required IRS forms, mail individual settlement payments and tax forms, create a mutually approved Settlement Website (with a URL that is mutually agreed to by the Parties) so that Settlement Class Members can access such materials as the operative Complaint, the Agreement, all Court orders related to the settlement, and the Long-Form Notices of Settlement (Exhibits A and E), submit Requests for an Enhanced Payment for the Damages Class, remit all required documentation to taxing authorities, implement the process for any uncashed settlement checks, and perform all other duties associated with settlement administration, including, but not limited to, all those specified in this Agreement.

6.3.4. Any dispute relating to the obligations of, or the performance by, the Settlement Administrator, shall be, after good-faith efforts by the Parties to resolve the dispute, referred to the Court.

6.4. Information Security. The Settlement Administrator shall ensure that the information that it receives from Class Counsel, Defense Counsel, and Settlement Class Members is secured and managed in such a way as to protect the security and confidentiality of the information. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, the Settlement Administrator shall not disclose or disseminate any information that it receives from Class Counsel, Defense Counsel, and Settlement Class Members without the prior written consent of all Parties.

6.5. CAFA Notice.

6.5.1. The Settlement Administrator will prepare and mail, subject to the approval of Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, the notice(s) required by CAFA. This notice shall be mailed within seven (7) calendar days of the filing by Class Counsel of the Motion for Preliminary Approval.

6.5.2. Within five (5) business days of mailing the CAFA Notice, the Settlement Administrator shall provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel a declaration that the CAFA

Notice has been served and upon whom it has been served. The Parties will then file that declaration with the Court.

6.6. Qualified Settlement Fund Documents. No later than three (3) business days after filing of the Motion for Final Approval, the Settlement Administrator shall send Defense Counsel all necessary tax and wiring information for the Qualified Settlement Fund.

6.7. Internet Posting of Long-Form Notice of Settlement and Other Case Documents.

6.7.1. The Settlement Administrator will post on the Settlement Website the mutually agreed and Court-approved Long-Form Notices of Settlement in the form of Exhibits A and E hereto, or in another form agreed to by the Parties that contains the same or substantially similar information as Exhibits A and E hereto.

6.7.2. The Settlement Administrator shall also post the Complaint, the Agreement (with Exhibits), and the Motion for Preliminary Approval.

6.7.3. The Settlement Website shall be established and "go live" on the same date that the Notices are disseminated to the Settlement Class Members.

6.7.4. Within 24 hours of their filing, any other settlement-related dockets (including but not limited to the Preliminary Approval Order, the Motion for Class Counsel Fees, for a Class Representative Service Payment, the Motion for Final Approval and the Final Approval Order) shall also be posted to the Settlement Website.

6.7.5. The Settlement Administrator, at the time of having the Settlement Website "go live" shall also implement toll-free IVR telephone support that shall provide the answers to frequently asked questions, for both Settlement Classes.

6.8. The Class List. No later than twenty-one (21) days after the Court enters the Preliminary Approval Order, Defendant shall provide to the Settlement Administrator the Class List.

6.9. Notices to Class Members.

6.9.1. Within forty-five (45) calendar days of Preliminary Approval, the Settlement Administrator shall send the Court-approved Damages Class Postcard and Email Notices (in the form of Exhibit B and C hereto, or in another form agreed to by the Parties that contains the same or substantially similar information) to all Damages Class Members, and email the Court-approved Injunctive Relief Email Notice (Exhibit G) to the Injunctive Relief Only Class Members. For any Injunctive Relief Class Members for whom no email address can be located, the Settlement Administrator shall send the Injunctive Relief Mail Notice on the same date.

6.9.2. The Settlement Administrator shall send the Damages Class Reminder Notices no later than 21 days prior to the expiration of the Objection and Exclusion Period and shall only send to those Damages Class Members who are otherwise not yet qualified for an Enhanced Payment at that time.

6.9.3. Undeliverable Notices. Any physical mailing returned as undeliverable shall be re-mailed on a weekly basis for 45 days following the initial notice mailing, via First Class U.S. Mail to any available forwarding address, using publicly available databases as practical to update mailing addresses. If no forwarding address is available, then the Settlement Administrator shall attempt to determine the correct address by using a computer-based skip-trace search, and shall then perform, if feasible, a re-mailing via First Class U.S. Mail. If no current address is available for a Settlement Class Member, then the Postcard Notice for that Class Member will be deemed undeliverable. For those Injunctive Relief Only Class Members whose Email Notice is returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator shall promptly mail them an Injunctive Relief Mail Notice (Exhibit F) after the Email Notice is returned as undeliverable.

6.10. Settlement Administrator Obligation to Provide Information to the Parties and the Court.

6.10.1. Within three (3) calendar days of receipt of any Objection or Request for Exclusion, the Settlement Administrator shall provide copies of any Objection or Request for Exclusion to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel.

6.10.2. The Settlement Administrator shall also provide weekly updates regarding: (i) the number of Settlement Class Members whose Postcard Notices or Email Notices have been deemed undeliverable; (ii) the number and identification of Requests for Exclusion; (iii) the number and identification of any Objectors; and (iv) the number of Requests for an Enhanced Payment received.

6.10.3. At least seven (7) calendar days prior to the deadline for filing the Motion for Final Approval, the Settlement Administrator shall provide Class Counsel with a declaration attesting that all the Settlement Administrator's responsibilities under this Agreement and the Administrator's separate agreement have been fulfilled. At a minimum, the declaration shall attest to: (1) the number, manner, and timing of all Notices provided, undeliverable Notices, and Notices re-mailed; (2) the number of Objections received, and attach copies thereof; (3) the number of Request for Exclusions received, and attach copies thereof; (4) the number of Requests for Enhanced Payments received, (5) establishment and maintenance of the Settlement Website, (6) the Settlement Administrator's fulfillment of all other responsibilities of the Settlement Administrator pursuant to this Agreement or the Settlement Administrator's contractual agreement with the Parties; and (7) any other information requested for inclusion by the Parties or the Court.

7. Objections and Requests for Exclusion.

7.1. Objection and Exclusion Deadline. Prior to the Objection and Exclusion Deadline, Damages Class Members may, as provided below, submit to the Settlement Administrator a Request for Exclusion. Prior to the Objection and Exclusion Deadline, both Damages Class Members and Injunctive Relief Class Members may submit an Objection. Except as specifically provided herein, no Request for Exclusion or Objection postmarked (or submitted online after midnight Pacific time) after the Objection and Exclusion Period shall be considered.

7.2. Requests for Exclusion and Opt Out Rights. Damages Class Members will have the opportunity to opt out by timely submitting a Request for Exclusion.

7.2.1. Opt-Out Procedure. Damages Class Members may opt out of this Agreement by mailing the Settlement Administrator a Request for Exclusion postmarked by the Objection and Exclusion Deadline. A Request for Exclusion, to be valid, must be signed and dated by the Damages Class Member, must provide the Damages Class Member's full name (and former names, if applicable), current address, current telephone number, and the last four digits of the Damages Class Member's Social Security number, and must include an express statement that the Damages Class Member wishes to be excluded from the Settlement. Any Request for Exclusion that does not include all of the required information or that is not submitted in a timely manner will be deemed ineffective.

7.2.2. No Representative Opt-Outs. No person or entity shall be permitted to submit a Request for Exclusion or otherwise exercise any exclusion or opt-out rights on behalf of any other person, whether as an agent or representative of another or otherwise, except upon proof of a legal power of attorney, conservatorship, trusteeship, or other legal authorization, and no person or entity may make a Request for Exclusion on behalf of other persons within the Damages Class as a group, class, or in the aggregate.

7.2.3. Effect of Opting Out. Any Damages Class Member who opts out of the Settlement may not submit an Objection and shall not receive any payment in connection with this Settlement, and shall not be bound by the releases included within this Agreement. If a Damages Class Member submits both a Request for Exclusion and an Objection, then the Request for Exclusion will be valid and will invalidate the Objection. Each Damages Class Member who does not submit a timely, valid Request for Exclusion shall be bound by the Releases in Section 9 below.

7.3. Objections. Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, only those Damages Class Members who do not submit a Request for Exclusion and Injunctive Relief Class Members shall be entitled to object to the terms of the Agreement.

7.3.1. Objection Procedure. Any Objection must be in writing, must be submitted to the Settlement Administrator, postmarked within the Objection and Exclusion Period, and must contain (1) the Objector's full name and current mailing address, (2) the last four digits of the Objector's Social Security number, (3) the specific reason(s) for the Objection, (4) all evidence and supporting papers (including, without limitation, all briefs, written evidence, and declarations) for the Court to consider, and (5) identification of all counsel representing or assisting the Objector, if any.

7.3.2. Obligations of Individuals Who Object. Objectors can appear at the Final Fairness Hearing either in person or through counsel, but must state their intent to do so at the time they submit their Objection. An Objection may be withdrawn at any time.

7.3.3. Waiver of Objections. Settlement Class Members who fail to submit an Objection in the manner specified herein shall be deemed to have waived any Objection and shall be foreclosed from objecting to this Agreement, whether by appeal or otherwise.

7.4. Binding Effect of Settlement. A Settlement Class Member who does not timely submit a Request for Exclusion shall be bound by this Agreement, including the releases in Section 9 below, even if the Settlement Class Member's inability to timely submit a Request for Exclusion is the result of the inability of the Settlement Administrator to locate them or for other reasons beyond the Settlement Class Member's control.

7.5. No Interference with Class Member Responses. Each Party agrees not to encourage any Settlement Class Member to submit an Objection or a Request for Exclusion and agrees not to retaliate against any Settlement Class Member participating in this Agreement.

8. Administration of Settlement Proceeds.

8.1. Final Funding of Damages Class Gross Settlement Amount. Within 21 business days of the Effective Date, Defendant will deposit (or cause to be deposited) the Gross Damages Class Settlement Amount into the Qualified Settlement Fund.

8.2. Administrative Costs. The Parties have obtained an estimate of Administrative Costs for both the Damages Class and the Injunctive Relief Class. Class Counsel will seek approval in the Motion for Final Approval for the Settlement Administrator to be paid for administrative work related to the Damages Class from the Damages Class Gross Settlement Amount. Class Counsel shall be responsible for paying the Settlement Administrator for expenses incurred in connection with providing relief to the Injunctive Relief Class from any amount approved by the Court for the Injunctive Relief Class.

8.3. Class Counsel Fees and Injunctive Relief Administrative Expenses and Class Representative Incentive Award. Class Counsel may seek fees not to exceed one-third of the Damages Class Gross Settlement Amount as well as reasonable out of pocket litigation expenses related to Counsel's work and benefits achieved for the Damages Class. Class Counsel may also seek up to $500,000 as consideration for work performed and settlement administration expenses incurred by Class Counsel in connection with relief provided to the Injunctive Relief Class to be paid separately by Defendant. The $500,000 amount to be requested for the Injunctive Relief Class may include an amount for a Class Representative Service Award and/or an amount for Administrative Costs for the Injunctive Relief Class but in no event shall the amount requested for the Injunctive Relief Class exceed $500,000. Class Counsel shall file the requests for approval of these amounts no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the Objection and Exclusion Deadline. By signing below, the Parties warrant that these amounts were not discussed until all relief for the Settlement Classes had been negotiated.

8.3.1. Timing of Class Counsel Fees. The Settlement Administrator shall issue any approved Class Counsel Fees from the Damages Class Gross Settlement Amount and Defendant shall pay any approved Class Counsel Fees awarded in connection with the Injunctive Relief Class no later than fourteen (14) calendar days of the funding of the Damages Class Gross Settlement Amount in accordance with Section 8.1 above. Prior to the Effective Date, Class Counsel shall instruct the Settlement Administrator and Defendant with wiring instructions as to how the Class Counsel Fees may be paid and shall also provide any necessary tax information to the Settlement Administrator, including a form W-9. The Settlement Administrator and Defendant shall issue an appropriate Internal Revenue Service Form 1099 to Class Counsel. Class Counsel shall be solely responsible for paying all applicable taxes on any Class Counsel Fees and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Released Parties from any claim or liability for taxes, penalties, or interest arising as a result of the Class Counsel Fees

8.4. Class Representative Service Payment. Class Counsel intends to request a Class Representative Service Payment for the Class Representative. Class Counsel may seek a service payment not to exceed $10,000 in total and the service payment may be requested to be paid from the Damages Class Gross Settlement Amount or from the amounts awarded in connection with the Injunctive Relief Class, or some combination thereof, at election of Class Counsel and subject to Court approval. The request for approval of such amount shall be made at the time Class Counsel files the motion for approval of Class Counsel Fees.

8.4.1. Approval of Class Representative Service Payment. If the Court does not approve a Class Representative Service Payment or approves only a lesser amount than that requested, then the other terms of this Agreement shall remain in effect.

8.4.2. Timing of Class Representative Service Payment. The Settlement Administrator shall pay any Class Representative Service Payment no later than fourteen (14) calendar days of the funding of the Damages Class Gross Settlement Amount in accordance with Section 8.1 above, and shall issue an IRS Form 1099 to Plaintiff. Plaintiff shall be solely responsible for paying all applicable taxes on any Class Representative Service Payment and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Released Parties from any claim or liability for taxes, penalties, or interest arising as a result of the Class Representative Service Payment.

8.4.3. Release by Class Representative. The Class Representatives agrees to the releases in Section 9 below, regardless of the amount of any Class Representative Service Payment approved by the Court.

8.5. Timing of Damages Class Member Payments. The Settlement Administrator shall issue the Damages Class Members' settlement payments no later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the funding of the Damages Class Gross Settlement Amount in accordance with Section 8.1 above.

8.6. Responsibility for Taxes. Each Damages Class Member shall be solely responsible for complying with any and all income tax liabilities and obligations which are or may become due or payable in connection with this Agreement and the Settlement. The Settlement Administrator shall provide each Damages Class Member with a notice advising them to seek personal tax advice regarding any tax consequences of the settlement payments. The notice regarding the potential tax treatment to Damages Class Members shall be included with each disbursement to Damages Class Members. For the avoidance of doubt, none of the Released Parties, Defense Counsel, or Class Counsel, have made, or are making in connection with the Settlement, any representations regarding possible tax consequences relating to the settlement payments to Damages Class Members, and none of the Defendant, Defense Counsel or Class Counsel shall be held responsible for any such tax consequences.

8.7. Undeliverable or Uncashed Checks. All individual Damages Class settlement checks will remain negotiable for ninety (90) days from the date of their mailing. The Settlement Administrator shall notify Class Counsel and Defense Counsel of any undeliverable and uncashed checks. After ninety (90) days from the mailing, the Settlement Administrator will provide an accounting and proposed redistribution of remaining funds to Damages Class Members who cashed their checks as long as the anticipated redistribution amount will result in individual checks being greater than $25. If redistribution cannot be made or after redistribution, the total amount of any settlement checks from the Net Settlement Amount that has not been cashed will be donated to the Innocence Project as the cy pres recipient.

9. Releases.

9.1. Plaintiff's Individual General Release. By entry of the Final Approval Order, Plaintiff will release and forever discharge Defendant and the Released Parties from any and all individual claims, actions, causes of action, including claims for attorneys' fees, asserted or which could have been asserted as of the date of this Agreement. This release includes the claims that were, or could have been, asserted in the Action, as well as all claims, whether known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, which Plaintiff may currently have against Defendant and the Released Parties, or that may arise in the future, up to and including the Effective Date.

9.2. Damages Class Members' General Release. By entry of the Final Approval Order, each Damages Class Member will have their claims against Defendant and the Released Parties dismissed with prejudice, and each Damages Class Member—and each Damages Class Member's representatives, agents, attorneys, partners, successors, predecessors, assigns, and all those acting or purporting to act on their behalf —hereby releases and forever discharges Defendant and the Released Parties from any and all claims, actions, and causes of action, including claims for attorneys' fees, that were asserted, or which could have been asserted against Defendant and the Released Parties in the Action as of the Effective Date.

9.3. General Release of Unknown Claims. The Class Representative and each Damages Class Member further acknowledge that this Agreement is a full and final accord and release of each and every matter specifically and generally referred in Sections 9.1 above and 9.2. Class Representative and each Damages Class Member acknowledge that they may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those which they now know or believe to be true, but it is their intention to fully and finally and forever settle and release any and all matters, disputes, and differences known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which heretofore have existed with or relating to Defendant and the Released Parties with respect to any alleged acts or failures to act on the part of Defendant or the Released Parties specifically and generally referred in Sections 9.1 above and 9.2. In furtherance of this intention, the release herein shall be, and will remain, in effect as a full and complete general release notwithstanding the discovery or existence of any such additional or different facts. Accordingly, Class Representative and each Damages Class Member hereby waives all rights or benefits under California Civil Code Section 1542, which provides:

> A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.

9.4. Class Representative and each Damages Class Member accept and assume the risk for claims arising before or after the Effective Date of this Agreement, known or unknown, and they specifically waive any rights they may otherwise have under Section 1542.

9.5. Injunctive Relief Class Member Release. By entry of the Final Approval Order, each Injunctive Relief Class Member releases the right to bring a class action or otherwise assert claims on an aggregated basis against Defendant and the Released Parties for any and all claims, actions, and causes of action, including claims for attorneys' fees, that were asserted, or which could have been asserted against Defendant and the Released Parties in the Action as of the Effective Date.

10. Settlement Approval Procedure.

10.1. Motion for Preliminary Approval. As soon as practicable after the execution of this Agreement, Plaintiff will request that the Court enter the Preliminary Approval Order. The Motion for Preliminary Approval shall also include the bases for demonstrating that certification of the Settlement Classes is appropriate, that the settlement terms are reasonable in light of the facts and law pertaining to the claims alleged.

10.2. Motion for Final Approval. Plaintiff shall file the Motion for Final Approval and request that the Court enter the Final Approval Order and the Injunctive Relief Order at or after the Final Fairness Hearing, with such Motion to be filed no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the Final Fairness Hearing.

10.3. Schedule of Final Fairness Hearing. The date of any Final Fairness Hearing shall be scheduled for a date no earlier than ninety (90) days after the CAFA Notice is sent and Plaintiff will request that it be scheduled 110 days after the Preliminary Approval Order is entered.

10.4. Motion for Class Counsel Fees and Class Representative Service Payment. Class Counsel may move for approval of attorneys' fees and costs and a class representative payment in the amounts set forth above in Sections 8.3, 8.4. The Motion for Class Counsel Fees and a Class Representative Service Payment shall be filed no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the Objection and Exclusion Deadline, and shall be promptly posted on the settlement website, so that Class Members will have the opportunity to review it prior to the Objection and Exclusion Deadline.

10.5. Entry of Judgment. The Final Approval Order shall contain a provision by which the Court enters judgment in accordance with this Agreement, without an award of further fees or costs to any Party, or Settlement Class Member.

11. Modification by Court or Non-Approval of Agreement.

11.1. This Agreement, and the Settlement, shall be null and void if the Court requires changes to the Agreement that alter in any way the Parties' rights or duties before approving the Settlement, or if the Agreement is approved by the Court, but such approval is later reversed, modified, or vacated on appeal. Provided, however, that the Parties, in their sole discretion, can consent to modify this Agreement, in accordance with Section 12.4.1 below, to be consistent with any modifications requested or required by the Court.

11.2. Defendant shall have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate and rescind this Agreement if more than fifty (50) Settlement Class Members file valid Requests for Exclusion. To exercise this right, Defendant must provide written notice to Class Counsel no later than fourteen (14) days following the Objection and Exclusion Period. This Agreement, and the Settlement, shall be null and void upon Defendant's delivery of such notice.

11.3. In the event that the Agreement does not receive Final Approval, or otherwise becomes null and void, the Parties shall return to the status quo ante as if no Agreement had been negotiated or entered into. Moreover, the Parties shall be deemed to have preserved all of their rights or defenses and shall not be deemed to have waived any substantive or procedural rights of any kind that they may have as to each other or any Settlement Class Members. In that event, the Settlement and all negotiations and proceedings related to the Settlement will be without prejudice of the rights of the Parties, and evidence of the Settlement, negotiations, and proceedings will be inadmissible and will not be discoverable. As to the Damages Class, in the event the Court does not approve the requested Class Counsel Fees and/or Class Representative Award, the Settlement shall remain effective. In no circumstance shall any portion of the Damages Class Gross Settlement Fund revert to Defendant. As to the Injunctive Relief Class, should the Court award Class Counsel Fees in an amount less than $500,000, the unawarded amount shall remain Defendant's property.

12. Miscellaneous.

12.1. Execution of this Agreement.

12.1.1. Parties' Authority. Class Counsel, on behalf of the Settlement Classes, are expressly authorized by Class Representative and the Settlement Class Members to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by the Settlement Classes pursuant to the Agreement to effectuate its terms, and also are expressly authorized to enter into any modifications or amendments to the Agreement on behalf of the Settlement Classes that they deem necessary or appropriate. Each attorney or other person executing the Agreement on behalf of any Party hereto hereby warrants that such attorney or other person has the full authority to do so.

12.1.2. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall apply to and be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto, the Settlement Class Members, the Released Parties, and Class Counsel, as well as their respective successors, heirs and assigns. The Parties acknowledge it is their intent to consummate this Agreement and agree to cooperate to the extent reasonably necessary to effect and implement all terms and conditions of the Agreement and to exercise their best efforts to accomplish the foregoing terms and conditions of the Agreement

12.1.3. No Claims Arising From This Agreement. No person shall have any claim against the Released Parties, Defendant, Defense Counsel, the Class Representative, or Class Counsel based on distribution of benefits made substantially in accordance with this Agreement or any Settlement-related order(s) of the Court.

12.1.4. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, execution in counterparts shall have the same force and effect as if all Parties had signed the same instrument.

12.1.5. Facsimile or Scanned Signatures. Any signature made and transmitted by facsimile, email, PDF or other electronic methods for the purpose of executing this Agreement shall be deemed an original signature for purposes of this Agreement and shall be binding upon the Party whose counsel transmits the signature page by such electronic means.

12.2. Construction.

12.2.1. Materiality of Terms. Unless otherwise stated, all terms and conditions of this Agreement in the exact form set forth in this Agreement are material to this Agreement and have been relied upon by the Parties in entering into this Agreement.

12.2.2. No Construction Against the Author. The Parties have negotiated all the terms and conditions of this Agreement at arm's length. Each Party participated jointly in drafting this Agreement, and therefore its terms are not intended to, and shall not be, construed against any Party by virtue of draftsmanship.

12.2.3. Exhibits Incorporated by Reference. This Agreement include the terms set forth in any attached exhibit. Any exhibit to this Agreement is an integral part of it.

12.2.4. Headings. The headings within this Agreement appear for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of any part of this Agreement.

12.3. No Media Announcements or Other Undue Publicity. In order to preserve the integrity of the notice process, no Party shall make any public statement to the news, print, electronic, or Internet media concerning this Agreement. Class Counsel shall decline to respond to media inquiries concerning this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement prevents Class

Counsel from making truthful representations to this Court or other courts about the resolution of this matter.

12.4. Parties' Entire Agreement. This Agreement, with its definitions, recitals, and exhibits, constitutes the entire agreement on its subject matter, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous negotiations and understandings between the Parties. All prior and contemporaneous negotiations and understandings between the Parties shall be deemed merged into this Agreement.

12.4.1. Waivers and Modifications to Be in Writing. No waiver, modification, or amendment of this Agreement, whether purportedly made before or after the Court's approval of this Agreement and the Settlement, shall be valid or binding unless it appears in a writing signed by or on behalf of all Parties, and then only to the extent set forth in such written waiver, modification or amendment, subject to any required Court approval. Any failure by any Party to insist upon the strict performance by the other Party or Parties of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of future performance of the same provisions or of any of the other provisions of this Agreement, and such Party, notwithstanding such failure, shall have the right thereafter to insist upon the specific performance of any and all of the provisions of this Agreement.

12.5. Inadmissibility of Settlement Documents. The Parties agree that this Agreement and all exhibits thereto, shall be inadmissible in any action or proceeding, except a proceeding to approve or enforce this Agreement. This Agreement will operate as a complete defense to—and may be used as the basis for an injunction against—any proceeding attempted in breach of this Agreement.

12.6. No Tax Advice. Nothing in this Agreement is advice by Class Counsel or Defense Counsel regarding taxes or tax liability, and no Party of Settlement Class Member is relying upon Class Counsel or Defense Counsel for such advice. Each Party instead is relying exclusively on the Party's own independent tax counsel in connection with this Agreement.

12.7. No Prior Assignments or Undisclosed Liens. The Class Representative and the Class Counsel represent that they have not assigned, transferred, conveyed, or otherwise disposed of any Released Claim or claim to attorneys' fees and costs to be paid under this Agreement. Each Class Representative and the Class Counsel further represent and warrant that there are not any liens or claims against any amount that Defendant is to pay under this Agreement.

12.8. Cooperation of the Parties. The Parties will comply with the covenants of good faith and fair dealing and otherwise cooperate and use their best efforts to obtain the Court's approval of this Agreement and all of its terms, including as follows. Each Party, upon the request of another, agrees to perform such acts and to execute and to deliver such documents as are reasonably necessary to carry out this Agreement. In the same spirit, the Parties agree to make all reasonable efforts to avoid unnecessary Administrative Costs.

12.9. Confidential Information. Class Counsel will destroy all "CONFIDENTIAL" documents and information produced by Defendant within sixty (60) calendar days of the Effective Date. Class Counsel further agree that no information provided by Defendant shall be used for any purpose other than prosecution of this Action.

12.10. Disputes. If the Parties dispute the interpretation of this Agreement, then they will attempt to resolve the dispute informally. If those efforts fail, they will mediate the dispute. The Parties will split the costs of the mediator, and the Parties will bear their own fees and costs. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over enforcement and implementation of this Agreement, and can require specific performance, although the Court lacks jurisdiction to modify the terms of this Agreement. If a Party institutes legal action to enforce this Agreement, then the prevailing Party will be entitled to recover attorney's fees and costs incurred in vindicating that Party's position.

Learning About the Lawsuit & Settlement

What is This Lawsuit About?

Plaintiff Grace Grissom ("Plaintiff") filed a class action lawsuit in federal court against Sterling Infosystems, Inc. ("Defendant") alleging that Defendant violated the Fair Credit Reporting Act ("FCRA") by including criminal records on individuals' consumer reports that were matched to the individuals, in part, by a SSN Trace, but which allegedly did not belong to the subject of the report. The law requires that a consumer reporting agency, like Defendant, follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy. Plaintiff alleged that Defendant violated the law by including records on consumer reports that allegedly did not belong to the subject of the reports.

Defendant denies that it did anything wrong or that it violated any laws. Defendant maintains that it follows reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy in the information it reports on all consumer reports. The Court has not made a determination that Defendant violated the FCRA. Nor has the Court made any determination that this lawsuit should proceed as a class action, as opposed to an individual claim brought by Plaintiff. This Notice should not be interpreted as an expression of the Court's opinion on the merits of the lawsuit. If the Parties had not reached a settlement, Defendant would have vigorously defended the lawsuit and moved for judgment in its favor.

Within the settlement, you are a member of the "Damages Class." The Damages Class is defined to include: all consumers for whom Defendant matched a record included in a consumer report based on a name developed through a SSN Trace from September 25, 2018 through June 4, 2021 wherein the consumer's first name, last name, and middle name or middle initial did not exactly match the first name, last name, and middle name or initial of the record reported; and where the consumer either made a dispute to Defendant regarding the report and an amended report was issued, or a pre-adverse action notice was sent to the consumer regarding the report.

By being a member of the Damages Class, you are also a member of the "Injunctive Relief Class." The Injunctive Relief Class includes all consumers who meet the above Damages Class definition, but who did not dispute or have a pre-adverse action notice issued to them. The Injunctive Relief component of the settlement is further described in the Injunctive Relief Long Form Notice available here: www.[xx].com.

What Can I Get Out of The Settlement?

A $2,500,000 Settlement Fund will be used to make cash payments to the Damages Class Members and to pay, if approved by the Court, a service award to the Class Representative and Class Counsel's attorneys' fees in the amount of one-third of the Fund and the attorneys' out of pocket costs, and to reimburse the Settlement Administrator for its expenses.

If the settlement is approved in full, each Damages Class Member will receive a settlement payment. Those Damages Class Members who already disputed the record at issue with Sterling and had an amended report issued or who complete and submit through the Settlement Website a Request for an Enhanced Payment by [date], will receive a settlement payment that is two times the amount of those Damages Class Members who do not meet those criteria. To be eligible to return a Request for an Enhanced Payment, the Damages Class Member must attest that they were harmed by the record(s) on their consumer report by having an inaccurate record on their report and having a lost or delayed employment opportunity Requests for an Enhanced Payment are subject to separate review by the Parties and their Counsel.

Depending on the final number of Damages Class Members and the final number of those eligible for the Enhanced Payments, and after deduction of the requested amounts to be approved by the Court to be paid from the Settlement Fund for fees, costs, and a service award, it is estimated that each Damages Class Member will receive approximately $175-$200, with those who submit a valid Request for an Enhanced Payment receiving twice that amount.

Who Are The Attorneys Representing The Class And How Will They be Paid?

The Court has approved lawyers to represent the Settlement Class ("Class Counsel"). If you prefer to hire your own attorney to represent you in this case, you may do so at your own expense. The attorneys who have been appointed by the Court to represent the Settlement Classes are:

E. Michelle Drake
John G. Albanese
Berger Montague PC
1229 Tyler Street NE, Suite 205
Minneapolis, MN 55413
612-594-5999
GrissomClassCounsel@bm.net

Subject to Court approval, Class Counsel will seek attorneys' fees in the amount of one-third of the Settlement Fund ($833,333) and reimbursement of their out-of-pocket expenses. Class Counsel may also seek a service award in an amount not to exceed $10,000 to be paid to Plaintiff for her services in representing the Settlement Classes. The attorneys' fees, costs, service award, and settlement administration expenses will be paid from the Settlement Fund if approved by the Court.

Deciding What You Want to Do

What are my options?

You have three options. You can (1) do nothing and remain in the Damages Class, or (2) exclude yourself (i.e., opt-out) from the settlement, or (3) object to the settlement.

This chart shows the effects of selecting each option:

	Do nothing and remain in the Damages Class	Opt-Out of the Damages Class	Object to the Settlement

Your options and rights are explained in the following sections, along with the steps you must take if you wish to opt-out or object.

How Do I Object to The Settlement?

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

GRACE GRISSOM, individually and on behalf of those similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

-against-

STERLING INFOSYSTEMS, INC.,

Defendant.

Case No.: 1:20-cv-07948-VSB

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT, CERTIFYING SETTLEMENT CLASSES, AND TERMINATING ACTION

Plaintiff Grace Grissom ("Class Representative"), on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, has submitted to the Court a Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement Agreement ("Final Approval Motion").

This Court has reviewed the papers filed in support of the Final Approval Motion, including the Settlement Agreement filed with Plaintiff's Preliminary Approval Motion, the memoranda and arguments submitted on behalf of the Settlement Classes, and all supporting exhibits and declarations thereto, as well as the Court's Preliminary Approval Order. The Court held a Final Fairness Hearing on _____, 2023, at which time the Parties and other interested persons were given an opportunity to be heard in support of and in opposition to the proposed Settlement. Based on the papers filed with the Court and the presentations made at the Final Fairness Hearing, the Court finds that the Settlement Agreement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. This Final Approval Order incorporates herein and makes a part hereof the Settlement Agreement and the Preliminary Approval Order. Unless otherwise provided herein, the capitalized terms used herein shall have the same meanings and/or definitions given to them in the Preliminary Approval Order and Settlement Agreement, as submitted to the Court with the Preliminary Approval Motion.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action, the Class Representative, the Settlement Classes, and Defendant.

RULE 23(b)(2) SETTLEMENT CLASS

3. In the Preliminary Approval Order, this Court previously certified, for settlement purposes only, the Injunctive Relief Class defined as follows:

> All consumers for whom Sterling matched a record included in a consumer report based on a name developed through a SSN trace from September 25, 2018 through June 4, 2021 wherein the consumer's first name, last name and middle name or middle initial did not exactly match the first name, last name, middle name or middle initial of the record reported.

4. Certification of the Injunctive Relief Class is hereby reaffirmed as a final Settlement Class pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2). For the reasons set forth in the Preliminary Approval Order, this Court finds, on the record before it, that this action may be maintained as a class action on behalf of the Injunctive Relief Class.

5. In the Preliminary Approval Order, this Court previously appointed Plaintiff as Class Representative, and hereby reaffirms that appointment, finding, on the record before it, that Plaintiff has and continues to adequately represent the Injunctive Relief Class Members.

RULE 23(b)(3) SETTLEMENT CLASS

6. In the Preliminary Approval Order, this Court previously certified, for settlement purposes only, the Damages Class defined as follows:

> All consumers for whom Sterling matched a record included in a consumer report based on a name developed through a SSN Trace from September 25, 2018 through June 4, 2021 wherein the consumer's first name, last name and middle name or middle initial did not exactly match the first name, last name, middle name or middle initial of the record reported; and where the consumer either made a dispute to Defendant regarding the report and an amended report was issued or where a pre-adverse action notice was sent to the consumer regarding the report.

7. Certification of the Damages Class is hereby reaffirmed as a final Settlement Class pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). For the reasons set forth in the Preliminary Approval Order, this Court finds, on the record before it, that this action may be maintained as a class action on behalf of the Damages Class.

8. In the Preliminary Approval Order, this Court previously appointed Plaintiff as Class Representative for the Damages Class and hereby reaffirms that appointment, finding on the record before it, that Plaintiff has and continues to adequately represent the Damages Class Members.

9. CLASS COUNSEL APPOINTMENT — In the Preliminary Approval Order, this Court previously appointed E. Michelle Drake and John G. Albanese of Berger Montague PC as Counsel for the Settlement Classes and hereby reaffirms that appointment, finding, on the record before it, that Class Counsel have and continue to adequately and fairly represent Settlement Class Members.

10. CLASS NOTICE — The record shows, and the Court finds, that notice to the Settlement Classes has been given in the manner approved by the Court in the Preliminary Approval Order. The Court finds that such notices (i) constituted the best notice practicable to the Settlement Classes under the circumstances; (ii) were reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the Settlement Classes of the pendency of this Action, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, their rights under the Settlement Agreement and deadlines by which to exercise them, and the binding effect of the Final Approval Order on the Settlement Class Members; (iii) provided due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons or entities entitled to receive notice; and (iv) fully satisfy the requirements of the U.S. Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, and any other applicable law.

11. Full opportunity has been afforded to members of the Settlement Classes to participate in the Final Fairness Hearing. Accordingly, the Court determines that all Settlement Class Members, except the ___ individuals who have successfully opted out of the Damages Class, are bound by this Final Approval Order in accordance with the terms provided herein.

FINAL APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

12. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e), the Court hereby finally approves in all respects the Settlement as set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and finds the benefits to the Settlement Classes, and all other parts of the Settlement are, in all respects, fair, reasonable, and adequate, and in the best interest of the Settlement Classes, within a range that responsible and experienced attorneys could accept considering all relevant risks and factors and the relative merits of the Plaintiff's claims and any defenses of Defendant, and are in full compliance with all applicable requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Due Process Clause, and the Class Action Fairness Act. Accordingly, the Settlement shall be consummated in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Settlement Agreement, with each Settlement Class Member, except the ___ individuals who have successfully opted out of the Damages Class, being bound by the Settlement Agreement, including all releases set forth in the Settlement Agreement.

13. Specifically, the Court finds that the terms of the Settlement Agreement are fair, reasonable, and adequate given the following factors, among other things:

A. All claims within the above-captioned proceeding are complex and time-consuming, and would have continued to be so through summary judgment and/or trial if it had not settled;

B. Class Counsel had a well-informed appreciation of the strengths and weaknesses of the Action while negotiating the Settlement Agreement;

C. The relief provided for by the Settlement Agreement is well within the range of reasonableness in light of the best possible recovery and the risks the Parties would have faced if the case had continued to trial;

D. The Settlement Agreement was the result of arms' length, good faith negotiations and exchange of information by experienced counsel;

E. The reaction of the Settlement Classes has been positive.

14. All claims in the above-captioned proceeding are hereby dismissed with prejudice and terminated. Except as otherwise provided herein or in the Settlement Agreement, such dismissal and termination shall occur without costs to Plaintiff or Defendant. All Injunctive Relief Class Members are hereby enjoined from asserting any Released Claim, other than on an individual basis, against any Released Party. All Damages Class Members hereby fully release all Released Parties for all Damages Class Released Claims, and are hereby enjoined from instituting, maintaining, or prosecuting, either directly or indirectly, any lawsuit or claim that asserts any Damages Class Released Claims.

15. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, as of the Effective Date, Plaintiff and the Settlement Class Members shall be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released and discharged the Released Parties from any and all Released Claims, as those terms are defined in the Settlement Agreement.

16. ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS, AND SERVICE AWARD – Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(h), Class Counsel applied to the Court for awards of attorneys' fees and costs as related to each Settlement Class.

17. The Court notes that the requested amounts were included in the notice materials disseminated to the Settlement Classes and there have been no objections to the requested amounts.

18. The Court, having reviewed the declarations, exhibits, and memoranda submitted in support of the requests for attorneys' fees and reimbursement of costs, approves an award of attorneys' fee and costs to Class Counsel as to the Damages Class in the amount of $_____ and $_____, respectively, and as to the Injunctive Relief Class, approves the separate payment by Defendant of $500,000. The Court finds these amounts are reasonable and appropriate under all circumstances presented.

19. The Court also approves a service award to the Class Representative Grace Grissom of $_____ of which $_____ is to be paid from the Damages Class Settlement Fund and $_____ to be paid from the $500,000 awarded in connection with the Injunctive Relief Class.

20. The Settlement Administrator is further approved to reimburse its reasonable costs in connection with the Damages Class from the Damages Class Settlement Fund prior to the distribution to the Damages Class Members.

21. The Settlement Administrator is directed to distribute the balance of the Settlement Fund to participating Damages Class Members as expressly set forth in the Settlement Agreement. Should funds remain for cy pres distribution, the Parties' selected organization, The Innocence Project, is approved to receive such residual funds.

22. The Court expressly retains exclusive and continuing jurisdiction, without affecting the finality of this Order, over the Settlement Agreement, including all matters relating to the implementation and enforcement of the terms of the Settlement Agreement. Nothing herein, including the Court's retention of jurisdiction over the Settlement Agreement, shall be a basis for any Party, including any class member, to assert personal jurisdiction over any other Party in any matter other than a matter seeking to enforce the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

23. If the Effective Date, as defined in the Settlement Agreement does not occur for any reason whatsoever, this Final Approval Order shall be deemed vacated and shall have no force or effect whatsoever.

24. The Parties are hereby directed to carry out their obligations under the Settlement Agreement.

25. There being no just reason for delay, the Court directs this Final Order be, and hereby is, entered as a final and appealable order.

It is SO ORDERED.

Learning About the Lawsuit & Settlement

What is This Lawsuit About?

Plaintiff Grace Grissom ("Plaintiff") filed a purported class action lawsuit in federal court against Sterling Infosystems, Inc. ("Defendant") alleging that Defendant violated the Fair Credit Reporting Act ("FCRA") by including records on individuals' consumer reports that were matched to the individuals, in part, by using a SSN Trace, but which allegedly did not belong to the subject of the report. The law requires that a consumer reporting agency, like Defendant, follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy. Plaintiff alleged that Defendant violated the law by including records on consumer reports that allegedly did not belong to the subject of the reports.

Defendant denies that it did anything wrong or that it violated any laws. Defendant maintains that it follows reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy. The Court has not made a determination that Defendant violated the FCRA. Nor has the Court made any determination that this lawsuit should proceed as a class action, as opposed to an individual claim brought by Plaintiff. This Notice should not be interpreted as an expression of the Court's opinion on the merits of the lawsuit. If the Parties had not reached a settlement, Defendant would have vigorously defended the lawsuit and moved for judgment in its favor.

Within the settlement, you are a member of the "Injunctive Relief Class." The Injunctive Relief Class is defined to include: all consumers for whom Defendant matched a record included in a consumer report based on a name developed through a SSN Trace from September 25, 2018 through June 4, 2021 wherein the consumer's first name, last name, and middle name or middle initial did not exactly match the first name, last name, and middle name or initial of the record reported.

What Do I Get Out of The Settlement?

You are receiving the benefits of important practice changes Defendant has agreed to as part of the settlement. Specifically, Defendant has agreed not to use any name that is solely developed through a SSN Trace as a primary matching identifier to associate consumers with criminal records that are included on consumer reports prepared by Defendant.

In exchange for this relief, you are only giving up your right to pursue any potential legal rights as part of a class action or other aggregated proceeding.

There is a separate settlement that provides some people with monetary relief. If you are part of that settlement you will receive an additional notice. You are not giving up any other rights you may have.

Who Are The Attorneys Representing The Class And How Will They be Paid?

The Court has approved lawyers to represent the Settlement Classes ("Class Counsel"). If you prefer to hire your own attorney to represent you in this case, you may do so at your own expense. The attorneys who have been appointed by the Court to represent the Settlement Classes are:

John G. Albanese
Berger Montague PC
1229 Tyler Street NE, Suite 205
Minneapolis, MN 55413

Subject to Court approval, Class Counsel will seek attorneys' fees in the amount of $500,000 for their work on behalf of the Injunctive Relief Class. This amount will be paid separately by the Defendant if it is approved by the Court.

A settlement has been reached in a purported class action lawsuit (the "Action") against Sterling Infosystems, Inc. ("Defendant") for alleged violations of the Fair Credit Reporting Act ("FCRA"). Plaintiff claims that Sterling violated the FCRA by not following reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy by allegedly matching records to individuals where the record allegedly did not belong to the subject of the report. Defendant vigorously denies that it violated any law but has agreed to settle to avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with continuing the Action. This Notice summarizes the proposed Settlement. The complete Settlement terms and conditions are available in the Settlement Agreement at www.xxxxx.com.

Am I a Class Member? Defendant's records indicate you are an Injunctive Relief Class Member. This means, between September 25, 2018 and June 4, 2021, Defendant included a record on your consumer report that may not belong to you.

What Do I Get? Defendant has agreed to implement important practice changes as part of the Settlement. Specifically, Defendant has agreed to change its practices so it does not use any name that is solely developed through a SSN Trace as a primary matching identifier to associate consumers with records that are included on consumer reports prepared by Defendant. In exchange for this relief, you are only giving up your right to pursue any potential legal rights as part of a class action or other aggregated proceeding. There is a separate settlement that provides some people with monetary relief. If you are part of that settlement you will receive an additional notice. You are not giving up any other rights you may have.

What Are My Options? As part of the Injunctive Relief Class, you are unable to opt out of the settlement. You and/or your lawyer do have the right to appear before the Court and object to the Settlement. When Will the Court Consider the Settlement? The Court will hold a final approval hearing on DATE, at TIME. At that hearing, the Court will hear any objections concerning the fairness of the Settlement, decide whether to approve requested attorneys' fees and costs, Class Representative award, and determine whether the Settlement should be approved.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

GRACE GRISSOM, individually and on behalf of those similarly situated, Plaintiff, -against- STERLING INFOSYSTEMS, INC., Defendant.	Case No.: 1:20-cv-07948-VSB

[PROPOSED] ORDER PRELIMINARILY APPROVING CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT, CERTIFYING CONDITIONAL SETTLEMENT CLASSES, APPOINTING CLASS COUNSEL, APPROVING AND DIRECTING NOTICE PLAN, APPOINTING SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR, & SETTING FAIRNESS HEARING

WHEREAS, the Court has been advised that the Parties to the above-captioned proceeding ("the Action"), Plaintiff Grace Grissom ("Plaintiff"), on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, and Sterling Infosystems, Inc. ("Defendant" or "Sterling") (collectively, the "Parties"), through their respective counsel, have agreed, subject to Court approval following notice to the Settlement Class Members and a hearing, to settle the Action upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, which has been filed with the Court, and the Court deeming that the definitions set forth in the Settlement Agreement are hereby incorporated by reference herein (with capitalized terms as set forth in the Settlement Agreement);

NOW, THEREFORE, based upon the Settlement Agreement and all of the files, records, and proceedings herein, and it appearing to the Court that, upon preliminary examination, the proposed settlement appears fair, reasonable, and adequate, and that a hearing should and will be held after notice to the proposed Settlement Class Members, to confirm that the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and to determine whether a Final Approval Order should be entered in this Action.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Action and over all settling Parties hereto.

2. RULE 23(b)(2) SETTLEMENT CLASS — Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2), the Action is hereby preliminarily certified, for settlement purposes only, as a class action on behalf of the following Injunctive Relief Class:

> All consumers for whom Sterling matched a record included in a consumer report based on a name developed through a SSN trace from September 25, 2018 through June 4, 2021 wherein the consumer's first name, last name and middle name or middle initial did not exactly match the first name, last name, middle name or middle initial of the record reported.

3. PRELIMINARY CERTIFICATION OF INJUNCTIVE RELIEF CLASS — The Court preliminarily finds that the Action and Injunctive Relief Class satisfy the applicable prerequisites for class action treatment under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23. Namely, the Court preliminarily finds that:

A. The members of the Injunctive Relief Class ("Injunctive Relief Class Members") are so numerous that joinder of all of them in the lawsuit is impracticable;

B. There are questions of law and fact common to the Injunctive Relief Class Members;

C. The claims of the Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Injunctive Relief Class Members;

D. The Plaintiff and Class Counsel have fairly and adequately represented and protected the interests of all of the Injunctive Relief Class Members; and

E. Defendant is alleged to have acted on grounds generally applicable to the Injunctive Relief Class as a whole. Defendant maintains that it has always acted in compliance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act and all other applicable laws. For purposes of settlement and class certification, however, and consistent with the terms of the Settlement Agreement, once finally approved by this Court, Defendant has agreed to modify its procedures through the injunctive relief set forth in Section 5.1 of the Settlement Agreement. Defendant's agreement to this injunctive relief makes the Injunctive Relief Class appropriate for certification under Rule 23(b)(2). Any individual claims that Injunctive Relief Class Members may have under the FCRA or any provisions of state FCRA equivalent are preserved by the Settlement Agreement and thus do not preclude certification under Rule 23(b)(2). Consequently, the Court finds that the requirements for preliminary approval and certification of a settlement class under Rule 23(b)(2) are satisfied.

4. If the proposed Settlement Agreement is not finally approved, is not upheld on appeal, or is otherwise terminated for any reason, the Injunctive Relief Class shall be decertified; the Settlement Agreement and all negotiations, proceedings, and documents prepared, and statements made in connection therewith, shall be without prejudice to any party and shall not be deemed or construed to be an admission or confession by any party of any fact, matter, or proposition of law; and all parties shall stand in the same procedural position as if the Settlement Agreement and all associated proceedings had not been negotiated, made, or filed with the Court; and the Parties agree that the case will return to the status quo prior to the execution of the Settlement Agreement.

5. RULE 23(b)(3) SETTLEMENT CLASS — Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3), the Action is hereby preliminarily certified, for settlement purposes only, as a class action on behalf of the following Damages Class:

> All consumers for whom Sterling matched a record included in a consumer report based on a name developed through a SSN Trace from September 25, 2018 through June 4, 2021 wherein the consumer's first name, last name and middle name or middle initial did not exactly match the first name, last name, middle name or middle initial of the record reported; and where the consumer either made a dispute to Defendant regarding the report and an amended report was issued or where a pre-adverse action notice was sent to the consumer regarding the report.

6. The Parties estimate that there are approximately 7,469 members of the Damages Class ("Damages Class Members").

7. PRELIMINARY CERTIFICATION OF DAMAGES CLASS — The Court preliminarily finds that the Action and Damages Class satisfy the applicable prerequisites for class action treatment under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23. Namely, the Court preliminarily finds that:

A. The Damages Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all of them in the Action is impracticable;

B. There are questions of law and fact common to the Damages Class Members, which predominate over any individual questions;

C. The claims of the Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Damages Class Members;

D. The Plaintiff and Class Counsel have fairly and adequately represented and protected the interests of all of the Damages Class Members; and

E. The Court finds that as to this Damages Class, class treatment of these claims will be efficient and manageable, thereby achieving an appreciable measure of judicial economy, and a class action is superior to other available methods for a fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Consequently, the Court finds that the requirements for certification of a conditional settlement class under Rule 23(b)(3) are satisfied.

8. If the proposed Settlement Agreement is not finally approved, is not upheld on appeal, or is otherwise terminated for any reason, the Damages Class shall be decertified; the Settlement Agreement and all negotiations, proceedings, and documents prepared, and statements made in connection therewith, shall be without prejudice to any party and shall not be deemed or construed to be an admission or confession by any party of any fact, matter, or proposition of law; and all parties shall stand in the same procedural position as if the Settlement Agreement and all associated proceedings had not been negotiated, made, or filed with the Court; and the Parties agree that the case will return to the status quo prior to the execution of the Settlement Agreement.

9. CLASS REPRESENTATIVE APPOINTMENT — Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, the Court preliminarily appoints Grace Grissom as the Class Representative for the Settlement Classes. The Court finds that Plaintiff has no interests that are adverse or antagonistic to the interests of the Settlement Classes. Both the Plaintiff and the Injunctive Relief Class Members share the common interest of obtaining certain benefits concomitant with Defendant's practices. Each Damages Class Member will also benefit from payments made from the Qualified Settlement Fund. The proposed settlement also preserves the right of Damages Class Members to opt out of the monetary relief settlement and preserves any individual rights of Injunctive Relief Class Members.

10. CLASS COUNSEL APPOINTMENT — Having considered the work Plaintiff's Counsel have done in identifying and investigating potential claims in this Action, Counsel's experience in handling class actions, other complex litigation, and claims of the type asserted in this Action, Counsel's knowledge of the applicable law, and the resources they will commit to representing the Settlement Classes, the following attorneys are designated Class Counsel under Rule 23(g)(1): E. Michelle Drake and John G. Albanese of Berger Montague PC.

11. THIRD-PARTY SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR — The Parties have proposed American Legal Claim Services as the Settlement Administrator for the Settlement Classes. The Court has reviewed the materials about this organization and concludes that it has extensive and specialized experience and expertise in class action settlements and notice programs. The Court hereby appoints American Legal Claim Services as the Settlement Administrator, to assist and provide professional guidance in the implementation of the Notices to Class Members as provided in the Settlement Agreement, and all other aspects of the settlement administration. American Legal Claim Services shall also be responsible for maintaining any records of, and keeping the Court and the Parties apprised of, any objections or written statements filed by any Settlement Class Member or government officials.

12. CLASS NOTICE — The Court approves the form and substance of the class notice procedures set forth in Section 6 of the Settlement Agreement and the notices of class action settlement, attached as Exhibits A-C and E-G to the Settlement Agreement. The proposed forms and methods for notifying the proposed Settlement Class Members of the Settlement Agreement and its terms and conditions meet the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B) and due process, constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled to the notice. The Court finds that the proposed notices concisely and clearly state, in plain, easily understood language, the nature of the action; the definition of the classes certified; the class claims, issues, and defenses; that a class member may enter an appearance through counsel if the member so desires; and the binding effect of a class judgment on class members. Such notice of a Rule 23(b)(2) class settlement and Rule 23(b)(3) class settlement is designed with the intention to reach all Settlement Class Members and is otherwise proper under Rule 23(e)(1).

Based on the foregoing, the Court hereby approves the notice procedures set forth in Settlement Agreement, and to be developed and implemented by the Parties and the Settlement Administrator, and directs that they be implemented according to the Settlement Agreement and the exhibits thereto. The Court finds that the notice procedures set forth in the Settlement Agreement and exhibits thereto constitute reasonable notice under Rule 23(e)(1) and satisfy due process. The cost of all class notice procedures shall be paid according to the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

13. EXCLUSIONS FROM DAMAGES CLASS AND OBJECTIONS TO THE RULE 23(b)(3) SETTLEMENT — As soon as practicable but no later than forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, the Settlement Administrator will send the notice to each Damages Class Member identified on the Class List pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement. No later than fourteen (14) days before the Final Fairness Hearing in this Litigation, Class Counsel shall file the Settlement Administrator Declaration regarding proof of implementation of the notice procedures set forth in the Settlement Agreement and exhibits thereto.

A. Any Damages Class Member who desires to be excluded from the Damages Class must send a written request for exclusion to the Settlement Administrator with a postmark date no later than sixty (60) days from the distribution of Notice. Any Damages Class Member who submits a valid and timely request for exclusion shall not be bound by the terms of the Settlement Agreement as to the Damages Class. To be valid, the Damages Class Member's opt-out request must be made by the Objection and Exclusion Deadline, and contain their full name, original signature, current postal address, current telephone number, last four digits oof their Social Security number, and a statement that the Damages Class Member wants to be excluded from the Damages Class. An opt-out request must not purport to opt out of the Damages Class for more than one consumer, i.e., purported opt-outs for a group, aggregate, or class are invalid. Requests for exclusions that do not substantially comply with the requirements described herein are invalid.

B. Any Damages Class Member who does not opt out may object to the Settlement by sending the objection to the Settlement Administrator, postmarked no later than sixty (60) days from the distribution of Notice.

C. Any objection must include all of the following:

   i. The indication the objection is related to Grissom v. Sterling;

   ii. The objecting Damages Class Member's full name, mailing address, telephone number, and last four digits of their Social Security number; and

   iii. A written statement detailing the specific basis for each objection, as well as supporting documentation, if any, signed by the Damages Class Member.

D. An objection submitted through an attorney must also contain:

   i. The identity, mailing address, email address, fax number, phone number for the counsel by whom the Damages Class Member is represented;

   ii. A statement of whether the objecting Damages Class Member intends to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing; and

iii. A written statement detailing the specific basis for each objection, including any legal and factual support that the objecting Damages Class Member wishes to bring to the Court's attention and any evidence the objecting Damages Class Member wishes to introduce in support of the objection.

E. Either Party may respond to an objection.

F. Any lawyer who intends to appear or speak at the final approval hearing on behalf of a member of the Damages Class must enter a written notice of appearance of counsel with the Clerk of the Court no later than three (3) days prior to the Final Approval Hearing.

G. Any objector to the Settlement who does not properly and timely object in the manner set forth above will not be allowed to appear at the Final Approval Hearing and will not be allowed to object to or appeal the final approval of the proposed Settlement, the dismissal of the case, any award of attorneys' fees and expenses to Class Counsel, or any service award to the Named Plaintiff.

H. Damages Class members who submit exclusions may not object to the Settlement.

14. OBJECTIONS TO THE RULE 23(B)(2) SETTLEMENT — Any individual Injunctive Relief Class Member, or a representative of a government entity, who wishes to object to the Settlement Agreement may do so by mailing a copy of the objection to the Settlement Administrator with a postmark date no later sixty (60) days the distribution of Notice. Objections may only be made by an individual Injunctive Relief Class Member on their own behalf, and not as a member of a group or subclass. All properly submitted objections shall be considered by the Court.

A. The objection must include all of the following:

i. An indication it is related to the matter of Grissom v. Sterling;

ii. The objector's full name, mailing address, telephone number, last four digits of their Social Security number; and

iii. A written statement detailing the specific basis for each objection.

B. An objection submitted through an attorney must also contain:

i. The identity, mailing address, email address, fax number, phone number for the counsel by whom the Injunctive Relief Class Member is represented;

ii. A statement of whether the objecting Injunctive Relief Class Member intends to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing; and

iii. A written statement detailing the specific basis for each objection, including any legal and factual support that the objecting Injunctive Relief Class Member wishes to bring to the Court's attention and any evidence the objecting Injunctive Relief Class Member wishes to introduce in support of the objection.

C. Either Party may respond to an objection.

D. Any objector to the Settlement who does not properly and timely object in the manner set forth above will not be allowed to appear at the Final Approval Hearing and will not be allowed to object to or appeal the final approval of the proposed Settlement, the dismissal of the case, or any award of attorneys' fees and expenses to Class Counsel.

15. PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT — The Court preliminarily finds that the settlement of the Action, on the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, is in all respects fundamentally fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interest of the Settlement Class Members, especially in light of the benefits to the Settlement Class Members; the strength of the Parties' case; the complexity, expense, and probable duration of further litigation; the risk and delay inherent in possible appeals; the risk of collecting any judgment obtained on behalf of the Settlement Classes; the appropriateness of the releases from the Class Representative and Settlement Class Members; and the limited amount of any potential total recovery for Settlement Class Members if the Action continued.

16. FINAL APPROVAL — The Court shall conduct a hearing (hereinafter referred to as the "Final Fairness Hearing") on _____, 2023 at _____ [time] to review and rule upon the following issues:

A. Whether this action satisfies the applicable prerequisites for class action treatment for settlement purposes under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23;

B. Whether the proposed settlement is fundamentally fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interest of the Settlement Class Members and should be finally approved by the Court;

C. Whether the Final Approval Order, as provided under the Settlement Agreement, should be entered, dismissing the Action with prejudice, terminating the above-captioned proceedings, and releasing the Released Claims against the Released Parties; and

D. To discuss and review other issues as the Court deems appropriate.

17. Settlement Class Members need not appear at the Final Fairness Hearing or take any other action to indicate their approval of the proposed class action settlement. Settlement Class Members wishing to be heard are, however, required to indicate in their written objection whether or not they intend to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing. The Final Fairness Hearing may be postponed, adjourned, transferred, or continued without further notice to the Settlement Class Members.

18. Applications for attorneys' fees and reimbursement of costs and expenses by Class Counsel and a service award for the Class Representative shall be filed with the Court no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the Objection and Exclusion Deadline. Further submissions by the Parties, including memoranda in support of the proposed Settlement and responses to any objections, shall be filed with the Court no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the Final Fairness Hearing.

19. The Court may (i) approve the Settlement Agreement, with modifications to the Settlement Agreement that alter in any way the Parties' rights or duties to the extent affirmatively agreed to by the Parties, without further notice; and (ii) adjourn the Final Fairness Hearing from time to time, by oral announcement at the hearing without further notice. Class Counsel shall ensure that any rescheduled hearing dates are promptly posted to the Settlement Website.

20. The Court retains continuing and exclusive jurisdiction over the Action to consider all further matters arising out of or connected with the Settlement, including the administration and enforcement of the Settlement Agreement.

It is SO ORDERED.

About Berger Montague

Berger Montague is a full-spectrum class action and complex civil litigation firm, with nationally known attorneys highly sought after for their legal skills. The firm has been recognized by courts throughout the country for its ability and experience in handling major complex litigation, particularly in the fields of antitrust, securities, mass torts, civil and human rights, whistleblower cases, employment, and consumer litigation. In numerous precedent-setting cases, the firm has played a principal or lead role.

The National Law Journal selected Berger Montague in 12 out of 14 years (2003-2005, 2007-2013, 2015-2016) for its "Hot List" of top plaintiffs-oriented litigation firms in the United States. The select group of law firms recognized each year had done "exemplary, cutting-edge work on the plaintiffs' side." The National Law Journal ended its "Hot List" award in 2017 and replaced it with "Elite Trial Lawyers," which Berger Montague has won from 2018-2021. The firm has also achieved the highest possible rating by its peers and opponents as reported in Martindale-Hubbell and was ranked as a 2021 "Best Law Firm" by U.S. News - Best Lawyers.

Currently, the firm consists of 71 lawyers; 15 paralegals; and an experienced support staff. Few firms in the United States have our breadth of practice and match our successful track record in such a broad array of complex litigation.

History of the Firm

Berger Montague was founded in 1970 by the late David Berger to concentrate on the representation of plaintiffs in a series of antitrust class actions. David Berger helped pioneer the use of class actions in antitrust litigation and was instrumental in extending the use of the class action procedure to other litigation areas, including securities, employment discrimination, civil and human rights, and mass torts. The firm's complement of nationally recognized lawyers has represented both plaintiffs and defendants in these and other areas and has recovered billions of dollars for its clients. In complex litigation, particularly in areas of class action litigation, Berger Montague has established new law and forged the path for recovery.

The firm has been involved in a series of notable cases, some of them among the most important in the last 50 years of civil litigation. For example, the firm was one of the principal counsel for plaintiffs in the Drexel Burnham Lambert/Michael Milken securities and bankruptcy litigation. Claimants in these cases recovered approximately $2 billion in the aftermath of the collapse of the junk bond market and the bankruptcy of Drexel in the late 1980's. The firm was also among the principal trial counsel in the Exxon Valdez Oil Spill litigation in Anchorage, Alaska, a trial resulting in a record jury award of $5 billion against Exxon, later reduced by the U.S. Supreme Court to $507.5 million. Berger Montague was lead counsel in the School Asbestos Litigation, in which a national class of secondary and elementary schools recovered in excess of $200 million to defray the costs of asbestos abatement. The case was the first mass tort property damage class action certified on a national basis. Berger Montague was also lead class counsel and lead trial counsel in the Cook v. Rockwell International Corporation litigation arising out of a serious incident at the Rocky Flats nuclear weapons facility in Colorado.

Additionally, in the human rights area, the firm, through its membership on the executive committee in the Holocaust Victim Assets Litigation, helped to achieve a $1.25 billion settlement with the largest Swiss banks on behalf of victims of Nazi aggression whose deposits were not returned after the Second World War. The firm also played an instrumental role in bringing about a $4.37 billion settlement with German industry and government for the use of slave and forced labor during the Holocaust.

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Initiatives

Berger Montague not only supports the idea of its Diversity, Equity and Inclusion ("DEI") initiatives, it is a part of the DNA and fabric of the firm—internally amongst the Berger Montague family and in the way we practice law with co-counsel, opposing counsel, the courts, and with our clients. Through our DEI initiatives, Berger Montague actively works to increase diversity at all levels of our firm and to ensure that professionals of all races, religions, national origins, gender identities, ethnicities, sexual orientations, and physical abilities feel supported and respected in the workplace.

Berger Montague has a DEI Task Force with the leadership of the DEI Coordinator, Camille Fundora Rodriguez, and including, Candice J. Enders, Caitlin G. Coslett, Sophia Rios, and Reginald L. Streater. Berger Montague has enacted a broad range of diversity and inclusion projects, including successful efforts to hire and retain attorneys and non-attorneys from diverse backgrounds and to foster an inclusive work environment, including through firmwide trainings on implicit bias issues that may impact the workplace.

Additionally, at Berger Montague women lead. Women comprise over 30% of Berger Montague's shareholders, well above the national average as reported by the National Association of Women Lawyers. Moreover, women at the firm are encouraged and have taken advantage of professional development support to bolster their trajectories into key participation and leadership roles, both within and outside the firm, including mentoring, networking, and educational opportunities for women across all career levels. As a result of these intentional policies and initiatives, women attorneys at Berger Montague are managing departments, running offices, overseeing major administrative programs, generating new business, serving as first chair in trials, handling large matters, and holding numerous other leadership positions firmwide.

Berger Montague's commitment to DEI activities extends beyond our firm. For example, DEI Task Force members are involved in numerous community and professional activities outside of the firm. Practice Areas and Case Profiles

Antitrust

In antitrust litigation, the firm has served as lead, co-lead or co-trial counsel on many of the most significant civil antitrust cases over the last 50 years, including In re Payment Card Interchange Fee and Merchant Discount Antitrust Litigation (settlement of approximately $5.6 billion*), In re Namenda Direct Purchaser Antitrust Litigation* (recovery of $750 million), In re Loestrin 24 Fe Antitrust Litigation (recovery of $120 million), and In re Domestic Drywall Antitrust Litigation (settlements totaling $190.7 million).

Once again, Berger Montague has been selected by Chambers and Partners for its 2021 Chambers USA Guide as one of Pennsylvania's top antitrust firms. Chambers USA 2021 states that Berger Montague's antitrust practice group is "a preeminent force in the Pennsylvania antitrust market, offering expert counsel to clients from a broad range of industries."

The Legal 500, a guide to worldwide legal services providers, ranked Berger Montague as a Top Tier Law Firm for Antitrust: Civil Litigation/Class Actions: Plaintiff in the United States in its 2021 guide and states that Berger Montague's antitrust department "has a flair for handling high-stakes plaintiff-side cases, regularly winning high-value settlements for clients following antitrust law violations."

- In re Payment Card Interchange Fee and Merchant Discount Antitrust Litigation: Berger Montague served as co-lead counsel for a national class including millions of merchants in the Payment Card Interchange Fee and Merchant Discount Antitrust Litigation against Visa, MasterCard, and several of the largest banks in the U.S. (e.g., Chase, Bank of America, and Citi). The lawsuit alleged that merchants paid excessive fees to accept Visa and MasterCard cards because the payment cards, individually and together with their respective member banks, violated the antitrust laws. The challenged conduct included, inter alia, the collective fixing of interchange fees and adoption of rules that hindered any competitive pressure by merchants to reduce those fees. The lawsuit further alleged that defendants maintained their conspiracy even after both Visa and MasterCard changed their corporate forms from joint ventures owned by member banks to publicly-owned corporations following commencement of this litigation. On September 18, 2018, after thirteen years of hard-fought litigation, Visa and MasterCard agreed to pay as much as approximately $6.26 billion, but no less than approximately $5.56 billion, to settle the case. This result is the largest-ever class action settlement of an antitrust case. The settlement received preliminary approval on January 24, 2019. The settlement received final approval on December 16, 2019, for approximately $5.6 billion.

- Contant, et al. v. Bank of America Corp., et al.: Berger Montague served as lead class counsel in the multistate indirect purchaser antitrust class action Contant, et al. v. Bank of America Corp., et al., against 16 of the world's largest dealer banks. Plaintiffs alleged that the defendants colluded to manipulate prices on foreign currency ("FX") instruments, using a number of methods to carry out their conspiracies, including sharing confidential price and order information through electronic chat rooms, thereby enabling the defendants to coordinate pricing and eliminate price competition. As with prior bank rigging scandals involving conspiracies to manipulate prices on other financial instruments, the defendants' alleged conspiracy to manipulate FX prices was the subject of numerous governmental investigations as well as direct purchaser class actions brought under antitrust federal law. However, the Contant action was the first of such cases to bring claims under state indirect purchaser antitrust laws on behalf of state-wide classes of retail investors of those financial instruments and whose claims have never been redressed. On July 29, 2019, U.S. District Judge Lorna G. Schofield granted preliminary approval of a $10 million settlement with Citigroup and a $985,000 settlement with MUFG Bank Ltd. On July 17, 2020, the Court granted preliminary approval of three settlements with all remaining defendants for a combined $12.695 million. Each of the five settlements, totaling $23.63 million, received final approval on November 19, 2020.

- In re Dental Supplies Antitrust Litigation: Berger Montague served as co-lead counsel for a class of dental practices and dental laboratories in In re Dental Supplies Antitrust Litigation, a suit brought against Henry Schein, Inc., Patterson Companies, Inc., and Benco Dental Supply Company, the three largest distributors of dental supplies in the United States. On September 7, 2018, co-lead counsel announced that they agreed with defendants to settle on a classwide basis for $80 million. The settlement received final approval on June 24, 2019. The suit alleged that the defendants, who collectively control close to 90 percent of the dental supplies and equipment distribution market, conspired to restrain trade and fix prices at anticompetitive levels, in violation of the Sherman Act. In furtherance of the alleged conspiracy, plaintiffs claimed that the defendants colluded to boycott and pressure dental manufacturers, dental distributors, and state dental associations that did business with or considered doing business with the defendants' lower-priced rivals. The suit claimed that, because of the defendants' anticompetitive conduct, members of the class were overcharged on dental supplies and equipment. In the 2019 Fairness Hearing, Judge Brian M. Cogan of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York said: "This is a substantial recovery that has the deterrent effect that class actions are supposed to have, and I think it was done because we had really good Plaintiffs' lawyers in this case who were running it."

- In re Domestic Drywall Antitrust Litigation: Berger Montague served as co-lead counsel on behalf of a class of direct purchasers of drywall, in a case alleging that the dominant manufacturers of drywall engaged in a conspiracy to fix drywall prices in the U.S. and to abolish the industry's long-standing practice of limiting price increases for the duration of a construction project through "job quotes." Berger Montague represented a class of direct purchasers of drywall from defendants for the period from January 1, 2012 to January 31, 2013. USG Corporation and United States Gypsum Company (collectively, "USG"), New NGC, Inc., Lafarge North America Inc., Eagle Materials, Inc., American Gypsum Company LLC, TIN Inc. d/b/a Temple-Inland Inc., and PABCO Building Products, LLC were named as defendants in this action. On August 20, 2015, the district court granted final approval of two settlements—one with USG and the other with TIN Inc.—totaling $44.5 million. On December 8, 2016, the district court granted final approval of a $21.2 million settlement with Lafarge North America, Inc. On February 18, 2016, the district court denied the motions for summary judgment filed by American Gypsum Company, New NGC, Inc., Lafarge North America, Inc., and PABCO Building Products. On August 23, 2017, the district court granted direct purchaser plaintiffs' motion for class certification. On January 29, 2018, the district court granted preliminary approval of a joint settlement with the remaining defendants, New NGC, Inc., Eagle Materials, Inc., American Gypsum Company LLC, and PABCO Building Products, LLC, for $125 million. The settlement received final approval on July 17, 2018, bringing the total amount of settlements for the class to $190.7 million.

- In re Currency Conversion Fee Antitrust Litigation: Berger Montague, as one of two co-lead counsel, spearheaded a class action lawsuit alleging that the major credit cards had conspired to fix prices for foreign currency conversion fees imposed on credit card transactions. After eight years of litigation, a settlement of $336 million was approved in October 2009, with a Final Judgment entered in November 2009. Following the resolution of eleven appeals, the District Court, on October 5, 2011, directed distribution of the settlement funds to more than 10 million timely filed claimants, among the largest class of claimants in an antitrust consumer class action. A subsequent settlement with American Express increased the settlement amount to $386 million. (MDL No. 1409 (S.D.N.Y)).

- In re Marchbanks Truck Service Inc., et al. v. Comdata Network, Inc.: Berger Montague was co-lead counsel in this antitrust class action brought on behalf of a class of thousands of Independent Truck Stops. The lawsuit alleged that defendant Comdata Network, Inc. had monopolized the market for specialized Fleet Cards used by long-haul truckers. Comdata imposed anticompetitive provisions in its agreements with Independent Truck Stops that artificially inflated the fees Independents paid when accepting the Comdata's Fleet Card for payment. These contractual provisions, commonly referred to as anti-steering provisions or merchant restraints, barred Independents from taking various competitive steps that could have been used to steer fleets to rival payment cards. The settlement for $130 million and valuable prospective relief was preliminary approved on March 17, 2014, and finally approved on July 14, 2014. In its July 14, 2014 order approving Class Counsel's fee request, entered contemporaneously with its order finally approving the settlement, the Court described this outcome as "substantial, both in absolute terms, and when assessed in light of the risks of establishing liability and damages in this case."

- Ross, et al. v. Bank of America (USA) N.A., et al.: Berger Montague, as lead counsel for the cardholder classes, obtained final approval of settlements reached with Chase, Bank of America, Capital One and HSBC, on claims that the defendant banks unlawfully acted in concert to require cardholders to arbitrate disputes, including debt collections, and to preclude cardholders from participating in any class actions. The case was brought for injunctive relief only. The settlements remove arbitration clauses nationwide for 3.5 years from the so-called "cardholder agreements" for over 100 million credit card holders. This victory for consumers and small businesses came after nearly five years of hard-fought litigation, including obtaining a decision by the Court of Appeals reversing the order dismissing the case, and will aid consumers and small businesses in their ability to resist unfair and abusive credit card practices. In June 2009, the National Arbitration Forum (or "NAF") was added as a defendant. Berger Montague also reached a settlement with NAF. Under that agreement, NAF ceased administering arbitration proceedings involving business cards for a period of three and one-half (3.5) years, which relief is in addition to the requirements of a Consent Judgment with the State of Minnesota, entered into by the NAF on July 24, 2009.

- Johnson, et al. v AzHHA, et al.: Berger Montague was co-lead counsel in this litigation on behalf of a class of temporary nursing personnel, against the Arizona Hospital and Healthcare Association, and its member hospitals, for agreeing and conspiring to fix the rates and wages for temporary nursing personnel, causing class members to be underpaid. The court approved $24 million in settlements on behalf of this class of nurses. (Case No. 07-1292 (D. Ariz.)).

The court certified a trial class seeking monetary damages, alleging that the failure to offer these optional levels of coverage, and the failure to provide increased first party benefits to personal injury claimants, breached Nationwide's insurance policies and its duty of good faith and fair dealing, and violated the West Virginia Unfair Trade Practices Act. From Judge William E. Smith, of the U.S. District Court for the District of Rhode Island:

> "The degree to which you all litigated the case is – you know, I can't imagine attorneys litigating a case more rigorously than you all did in this case. It seems like every conceivable, legitimate, substantive dispute that could have been fought over was fought over to the max. So you, both sides, I think litigated the case as vigorously as any group of attorneys could. The level of representation of all parties in terms of the sophistication of counsel was, in my view, of the highest levels. I can't imagine a case in which there was really a higher quality of representation across the board than this one."

> "[T]he size of the settlements in absolute terms and expressed as a percentage of total damages evidence a high level of skill by petitioners … The Court has repeatedly stated that the lawyering in the case at every stage was superb, and does so again."

In re Linerboard Antitrust Litig., 2004 WL 1221350, at *5-*6 (E.D. Pa. 2004).

From Judge Nancy G. Edmunds, of the U.S. District Court of the Eastern District of Michigan:

In re Cardizem CD Antitrust Litig., MDL No. 1278 (E.D. Mich., Nov. 26, 2002).

From Judge Charles P. Kocoras, of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois:

> "The stakes were high here, with the result that most matters of consequence were contested. There were numerous trips to the courthouse, and the path to the trial court and the Court of Appeals frequently traveled. The efforts of counsel for the class has [sic] produced a substantial recovery, and it is represented that the cash settlement alone is the second largest in the history of class action litigation. . . .There is no question that the results achieved by class counsel were extraordinary [.]"

Regarding the work of Berger Montague in achieving more than $700 million in settlements with some of the defendants in In Re Brand Name Prescription Drugs Antitrust Litigation, 2000 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 1734, at *3-*6 (N.D. Ill. Feb. 9, 2000).

From Judge Donald W. Van Artsdalen, of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania:

> "As to the quality of the work performed, although that would normally be reflected in the not immodest hourly rates of all attorneys, for which one would expect to obtain excellent quality work at all times, the results of the settlements speak for themselves. Despite the extreme uncertainties of trial, plaintiffs' counsel were able to negotiate a cash settlement of a not insubstantial sum, and in addition, by way of equitable relief, substantial concessions by the defendants which, subject to various condition, will afford the right, at least, to lessee-dealers to obtain gasoline supply product from major oil companies and suppliers other than from their respective lessors. The additional benefits obtained for the classes by way of equitable relief would, in and of itself, justify some upward adjustment of the lodestar figure."

Bogosian v. Gulf Oil Corp., 621 F. Supp. 27, 31 (E.D. Pa. 1985).

From Judge Krupansky, who had been elevated to the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals:

> "Finally, the court unhesitatingly concludes that the quality of the representation rendered by counsel was uniformly high. The attorneys involved in this litigation are extremely experienced and skilled in their prosecution of antitrust litigation and other complex actions. Their services have been rendered in an efficient and expeditious manner, but have nevertheless been productive of highly favorable result."

In re Art Materials Antitrust Litigation, 1984 CCH Trade Cases ¶65,815 (N.D. Ohio 1983).

From Judge Stewart Dalzell of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania:

> "The quality of lawyering on both sides, but I am going to stress now on the plaintiffs' side, simply has not been exceeded in any case, and we have had some marvelous counsel appear before us and make superb arguments, but they really don't come any better than Mrs. Savett… [A]nd the arguments we had on the motion to dismiss [Mrs. Savett argued the motion], both sides were fabulous, but plaintiffs' counsel were as good as they come."

In re U.S. Bioscience Secs. Litig., No. 92-0678 (E.D. Pa. April 4, 1994).

Never in 22 years have I seen counsel going at it, hammer and tong, like they have gone at it in this case. And I think that's a testimony – Mr. Valihura correctly says that's what they are supposed to do. I recognize that; that is their job, and they were doing it professionally."

Ginsburg v. Philadelphia Stock Exchange, Inc., No. 2202 (Del. Ch., Oct. 22, 2007).

From Judge Stewart Dalzell of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania:

> "Thanks to the nimble class counsel, this sum, which once included securities worth $149.5 million is now all cash. Seizing on an opportunity Rite Aid presented, class counsel first renegotiated what had been stock consideration into Rite Aid Notes and then this year monetized those Notes. Thus, on February 11, 2003, Rite Aid redeemed those Notes from the class, which then received $145,754,922.00. The class also received $14,435,104 in interest on the Notes."

For this dedication and commitment to the victims, we should always be grateful to these lawyers."

Ms. Savett is widely recognized as a leading litigator and a top female leader in the profession by local and national legal rating organizations.

In 2019, The Legal Intelligencer named Ms. Savett a "Distinguished Leader," and in 2018 she was named to the Philadelphia Business Journal's 2018 Best of the Bar: Philadelphia's Top Lawyers.

In June 2008, Ms. Savett was named by Lawdragon as one of the "100 Lawyers You Need to Know in Securities Litigation."

Unquestionably, it is because of Ms. Savett, who for decades has been in the top leadership of the firm, that the firm has a remarkably high proportion of women lawyers and shareholders.

Ms. Savett has aggressively sought to hire women, without regard to age or whether they are "right out of law school." Several of the women who have children are able to continue working at the firm because Ms. Savett has instituted a policy of flexible work time and fosters an atmosphere of cooperation, teamwork and mutual respect. As a result, the women attorneys stay on and have long and productive careers while still maintaining a balanced life. Ms. Savett has a personal understanding of the challenges and satisfactions that women experience in practicing law while raising a family. Ms. Savett has three children and five grandchildren. One of her daughters and her daughter-in-law are lawyers.

Ms. Savett has taught those around her more than good lawyering. She places great emphasis in her own life on devotion to family, community service and involvement in charitable organizations. She teaches others by her example and her obvious interest in their efforts and achievements.

In 2005, Ms. Savett received The Spirit of Jerusalem Medallion, the State of Israel Bonds' highest honor.

Ms. Savett has used her positions of leadership in the community to identify and help promote women as volunteer leaders. Ms. Savett has selected a few worthy causes to which she tirelessly dedicates herself. According to leaders of The Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia, Ms. Savett is viewed by many women in the philanthropic world as a role model.

Ms. Savett earned her J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School and a B.A. summa cum laude from the University of Pennsylvania. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

In re Domestic Drywall Antitrust Litig., No. 13-md-2437, 2018 WL 3439454, at *18 (E.D. Pa. July 17, 2018). The Hot List profile focused on Mr. Dell'Angelo's role in the MF Global litigation (In re MF Global Holding Ltd. Inv. Litig., No. 12-MD-2338-VM (S.D.N.Y.)). In MF Global, Mr. Dell'Angelo represented former commodity account holders seeking to recover approximately $1.6 billion of secured customer funds after the highly publicized collapse of MF Global, a major commodities brokerage. At the outset of this high-risk litigation, the odds appeared grim: MF Global had declared bankruptcy, leaving the corporate officers, a bank, and a commodity exchange as the only prospect for the recovery of class's misappropriated funds. Nonetheless, four years later, a result few would have believed possible was achieved. Through a series of settlements, the former commodity account holders recovered more than 100 percent of their missing funds, totaling over $1.6 billion.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

GRACE GRISSOM, individually and on behalf of those similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

-against-

STERLING INFOSYSTEMS, INC.,

Defendant.

Case No.: 1:20-cv-07948-VSB

[PROPOSED] ORDER PRELIMINARILY APPROVING CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT, CERTIFYING CONDITIONAL SETTLEMENT CLASSES, APPOINTING CLASS COUNSEL, APPROVING AND DIRECTING NOTICE PLAN, APPOINTING SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR, & SETTING FAIRNESS HEARING

WHEREAS, the Court has been advised that the Parties to the above-captioned proceeding ("the Action"), Plaintiff Grace Grissom ("Plaintiff"), on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, and Sterling Infosystems, Inc. ("Defendant" or "Sterling") (collectively, the "Parties"), through their respective counsel, have agreed, subject to Court approval following notice to the Settlement Class Members and a hearing, to settle the Action upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, which has been filed with the Court, and the Court deeming that the definitions set forth in the Settlement Agreement are hereby incorporated by reference herein (with capitalized terms as set forth in the Settlement Agreement);

NOW, THEREFORE, based upon the Settlement Agreement and all of the files, records, and proceedings herein, and it appearing to the Court that, upon preliminary examination, the proposed settlement appears fair, reasonable, and adequate, and that a hearing should and will be held after notice to the proposed Settlement Class Members, to confirm that the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and to determine whether a Final Approval Order should be entered in this Action.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Action and over all settling Parties hereto.

2. RULE 23(b)(2) SETTLEMENT CLASS — Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2), the Action is hereby preliminarily certified, for settlement purposes only, as a class action on behalf of the following Injunctive Relief Class:

> All consumers for whom Sterling matched a record included in a consumer report based on a name developed through a SSN trace from September 25, 2018 through June 4, 2021 wherein the consumer's first name, last name and middle name or middle initial did not exactly match the first name, last name, middle name or middle initial of the record reported.

3. PRELIMINARY CERTIFICATION OF INJUNCTIVE RELIEF CLASS — The Court preliminarily finds that the Action and Injunctive Relief Class satisfy the applicable prerequisites for class action treatment under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23. Namely, the Court preliminarily finds that:

A. The members of the Injunctive Relief Class ("Injunctive Relief Class Members") are so numerous that joinder of all of them in the lawsuit is impracticable;

B. There are questions of law and fact common to the Injunctive Relief Class Members;

C. The claims of the Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Injunctive Relief Class Members;

D. The Plaintiff and Class Counsel have fairly and adequately represented and protected the interests of all of the Injunctive Relief Class Members; and

E. Defendant is alleged to have acted on grounds generally applicable to the Injunctive Relief Class as a whole. Defendant maintains that it has always acted in compliance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act and all other applicable laws. For purposes of settlement and class certification, however, and consistent with the terms of the Settlement Agreement, once finally approved by this Court, Defendant has agreed to modify its procedures through the injunctive relief set forth in Section 5.1 of the Settlement Agreement. Defendant's agreement to this injunctive relief makes the Injunctive Relief Class appropriate for certification under Rule 23(b)(2). Any individual claims that Injunctive Relief Class Members may have under the FCRA or any provisions of state FCRA equivalent are preserved by the Settlement Agreement and thus do not preclude certification under Rule 23(b)(2). Consequently, the Court finds that the requirements for preliminary approval and certification of a settlement class under Rule 23(b)(2) are satisfied.

4. If the proposed Settlement Agreement is not finally approved, is not upheld on appeal, or is otherwise terminated for any reason, the Injunctive Relief Class shall be decertified; the Settlement Agreement and all negotiations, proceedings, and documents prepared, and statements made in connection therewith, shall be without prejudice to any party and shall not be deemed or construed to be an admission or confession by any party of any fact, matter, or proposition of law; and all parties shall stand in the same procedural position as if the Settlement Agreement and all associated proceedings had not been negotiated, made, or filed with the Court; and the Parties agree that the case will return to the status quo prior to the execution of the Settlement Agreement.

5. RULE 23(b)(3) SETTLEMENT CLASS — Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3), the Action is hereby preliminarily certified, for settlement purposes only, as a class action on behalf of the following Damages Class:

> All consumers for whom Sterling matched a record included in a consumer report based on a name developed through a SSN Trace from September 25, 2018 through June 4, 2021 wherein the consumer's first name, last name and middle name or middle initial did not exactly match the first name, last name, middle name or middle initial of the record reported; and where the consumer either made a dispute to Defendant regarding the report and an amended report was issued or where a pre-adverse action notice was sent to the consumer regarding the report.

6. The Parties estimate that there are approximately 7,469 members of the Damages Class ("Damages Class Members").

7. PRELIMINARY CERTIFICATION OF DAMAGES CLASS — The Court preliminarily finds that the Action and Damages Class satisfy the applicable prerequisites for class action treatment under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23. Namely, the Court preliminarily finds that:

A. The Damages Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all of them in the Action is impracticable;

B. There are questions of law and fact common to the Damages Class Members, which predominate over any individual questions;

C. The claims of the Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Damages Class Members;

D. The Plaintiff and Class Counsel have fairly and adequately represented and protected the interests of all of the Damages Class Members; and

E. The Court finds that as to this Damages Class, class treatment of these claims will be efficient and manageable, thereby achieving an appreciable measure of judicial economy, and a class action is superior to other available methods for a fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Consequently, the Court finds that the requirements for certification of a conditional settlement class under Rule 23(b)(3) are satisfied.

8. If the proposed Settlement Agreement is not finally approved, is not upheld on appeal, or is otherwise terminated for any reason, the Damages Class shall be decertified; the Settlement Agreement and all negotiations, proceedings, and documents prepared, and statements made in connection therewith, shall be without prejudice to any party and shall not be deemed or construed to be an admission or confession by any party of any fact, matter, or proposition of law; and all parties shall stand in the same procedural position as if the Settlement Agreement and all associated proceedings had not been negotiated, made, or filed with the Court; and the Parties agree that the case will return to the status quo prior to the execution of the Settlement Agreement.

9. CLASS REPRESENTATIVE APPOINTMENT — Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, the Court preliminarily appoints Grace Grissom as the Class Representative for the Settlement Classes. The Court finds that Plaintiff has no interests that are adverse or antagonistic to the interests of the Settlement Classes. Both the Plaintiff and the Injunctive Relief Class Members share the common interest of obtaining certain benefits concomitant with Defendant's practices. Each Damages Class Member will also benefit from payments made from the Qualified Settlement Fund. The proposed settlement also preserves the right of Damages Class Members to opt out of the monetary relief settlement and preserves any individual rights of Injunctive Relief Class Members.

10. CLASS COUNSEL APPOINTMENT — Having considered the work Plaintiff's Counsel have done in identifying and investigating potential claims in this Action, Counsel's experience in handling class actions, other complex litigation, and claims of the type asserted in this Action, Counsel's knowledge of the applicable law, and the resources they will commit to representing the Settlement Classes, the following attorneys are designated Class Counsel under Rule 23(g)(1): E. Michelle Drake and John G. Albanese of Berger Montague PC.

11. THIRD-PARTY SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR — The Parties have proposed American Legal Claim Services as the Settlement Administrator for the Settlement Classes. The Court has reviewed the materials about this organization and concludes that it has extensive and specialized experience and expertise in class action settlements and notice programs. The Court hereby appoints American Legal Claim Services as the Settlement Administrator, to assist and provide professional guidance in the implementation of the Notices to Class Members as provided in the Settlement Agreement, and all other aspects of the settlement administration. American Legal Claim Services shall also be responsible for maintaining any records of, and keeping the Court and the Parties apprised of, any objections or written statements filed by any Settlement Class Member or government officials.

12. CLASS NOTICE — The Court approves the form and substance of the class notice procedures set forth in Section 6 of the Settlement Agreement and the notices of class action settlement, attached as Exhibits A-C and E-G to the Settlement Agreement. The proposed forms and methods for notifying the proposed Settlement Class Members of the Settlement Agreement and its terms and conditions meet the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B) and due process, constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled to the notice. The Court finds that the proposed notices concisely and clearly state, in plain, easily understood language, the nature of the action; the definition of the classes certified; the class claims, issues, and defenses; that a class member may enter an appearance through counsel if the member so desires; and the binding effect of a class judgment on class members. Such notice of a Rule 23(b)(2) class settlement and Rule 23(b)(3) class settlement is designed with the intention to reach all Settlement Class Members and is otherwise proper under Rule 23(e)(1).

Based on the foregoing, the Court hereby approves the notice procedures set forth in Settlement Agreement, and to be developed and implemented by the Parties and the Settlement Administrator, and directs that they be implemented according to the Settlement Agreement and the exhibits thereto. The Court finds that the notice procedures set forth in the Settlement Agreement and exhibits thereto constitute reasonable notice under Rule 23(e)(1) and satisfy due process. The cost of all class notice procedures shall be paid according to the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

13. EXCLUSIONS FROM DAMAGES CLASS AND OBJECTIONS TO THE RULE 23(b)(3) SETTLEMENT — As soon as practicable but no later than forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, the Settlement Administrator will send the notice to each Damages Class Member identified on the Class List pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement. No later than fourteen (14) days before the Final Fairness Hearing in this Litigation, Class Counsel shall file the Settlement Administrator Declaration regarding proof of implementation of the notice procedures set forth in the Settlement Agreement and exhibits thereto.

A. Any Damages Class Member who desires to be excluded from the Damages Class must send a written request for exclusion to the Settlement Administrator with a postmark date no later than sixty (60) days from the distribution of Notice. Any Damages Class Member who submits a valid and timely request for exclusion shall not be bound by the terms of the Settlement Agreement as to the Damages Class. To be valid, the Damages Class Member's opt-out request must be made by the Objection and Exclusion Deadline, and contain their full name, original signature, current postal address, current telephone number, last four digits oof their Social Security number, and a statement that the Damages Class Member wants to be excluded from the Damages Class. An opt-out request must not purport to opt out of the Damages Class for more than one consumer, i.e., purported opt-outs for a group, aggregate, or class are invalid. Requests for exclusions that do not substantially comply with the requirements described herein are invalid.

B. Any Damages Class Member who does not opt out may object to the Settlement by sending the objection to the Settlement Administrator, postmarked no later than sixty (60) days from the distribution of Notice.

C. Any objection must include all of the following:

   i. The indication the objection is related to Grissom v. Sterling;

   ii. The objecting Damages Class Member's full name, mailing address, telephone number, and last four digits of their Social Security number; and

   iii. A written statement detailing the specific basis for each objection, as well as supporting documentation, if any, signed by the Damages Class Member.

D. An objection submitted through an attorney must also contain:

   i. The identity, mailing address, email address, fax number, phone number for the counsel by whom the Damages Class Member is represented;

   ii. A statement of whether the objecting Damages Class Member intends to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing; and

iii. A written statement detailing the specific basis for each objection, including any legal and factual support that the objecting Damages Class Member wishes to bring to the Court's attention and any evidence the objecting Damages Class Member wishes to introduce in support of the objection.

E. Either Party may respond to an objection.

F. Any lawyer who intends to appear or speak at the final approval hearing on behalf of a member of the Damages Class must enter a written notice of appearance of counsel with the Clerk of the Court no later than three (3) days prior to the Final Approval Hearing.

G. Any objector to the Settlement who does not properly and timely object in the manner set forth above will not be allowed to appear at the Final Approval Hearing and will not be allowed to object to or appeal the final approval of the proposed Settlement, the dismissal of the case, any award of attorneys' fees and expenses to Class Counsel, or any service award to the Named Plaintiff.

H. Damages Class members who submit exclusions may not object to the Settlement.

14. OBJECTIONS TO THE RULE 23(B)(2) SETTLEMENT — Any individual Injunctive Relief Class Member, or a representative of a government entity, who wishes to object to the Settlement Agreement may do so by mailing a copy of the objection to the Settlement Administrator with a postmark date no later sixty (60) days the distribution of Notice. Objections may only be made by an individual Injunctive Relief Class Member on their own behalf, and not as a member of a group or subclass. All properly submitted objections shall be considered by the Court.

A. The objection must include all of the following:

i. An indication it is related to the matter of Grissom v. Sterling;

ii. The objector's full name, mailing address, telephone number, last four digits of their Social Security number; and

iii. A written statement detailing the specific basis for each objection.

B. An objection submitted through an attorney must also contain:

i. The identity, mailing address, email address, fax number, phone number for the counsel by whom the Injunctive Relief Class Member is represented;

ii. A statement of whether the objecting Injunctive Relief Class Member intends to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing; and

iii. A written statement detailing the specific basis for each objection, including any legal and factual support that the objecting Injunctive Relief Class Member wishes to bring to the Court's attention and any evidence the objecting Injunctive Relief Class Member wishes to introduce in support of the objection.

C. Either Party may respond to an objection.

D. Any objector to the Settlement who does not properly and timely object in the manner set forth above will not be allowed to appear at the Final Approval Hearing and will not be allowed to object to or appeal the final approval of the proposed Settlement, the dismissal of the case, or any award of attorneys' fees and expenses to Class Counsel.

15. PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT — The Court preliminarily finds that the settlement of the Action, on the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, is in all respects fundamentally fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interest of the Settlement Class Members, especially in light of the benefits to the Settlement Class Members; the strength of the Parties' case; the complexity, expense, and probable duration of further litigation; the risk and delay inherent in possible appeals; the risk of collecting any judgment obtained on behalf of the Settlement Classes; the appropriateness of the releases from the Class Representative and Settlement Class Members; and the limited amount of any potential total recovery for Settlement Class Members if the Action continued.

16. FINAL APPROVAL — The Court shall conduct a hearing (hereinafter referred to as the "Final Fairness Hearing") on _____, 2023 at _____ [time] to review and rule upon the following issues:

A. Whether this action satisfies the applicable prerequisites for class action treatment for settlement purposes under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23;

B. Whether the proposed settlement is fundamentally fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interest of the Settlement Class Members and should be finally approved by the Court;

C. Whether the Final Approval Order, as provided under the Settlement Agreement, should be entered, dismissing the Action with prejudice, terminating the above-captioned proceedings, and releasing the Released Claims against the Released Parties; and

D. To discuss and review other issues as the Court deems appropriate.

17. Settlement Class Members need not appear at the Final Fairness Hearing or take any other action to indicate their approval of the proposed class action settlement. Settlement Class Members wishing to be heard are, however, required to indicate in their written objection whether or not they intend to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing. The Final Fairness Hearing may be postponed, adjourned, transferred, or continued without further notice to the Settlement Class Members.

18. Applications for attorneys' fees and reimbursement of costs and expenses by Class Counsel and a service award for the Class Representative shall be filed with the Court no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the Objection and Exclusion Deadline. Further submissions by the Parties, including memoranda in support of the proposed Settlement and responses to any objections, shall be filed with the Court no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the Final Fairness Hearing.

19. The Court may (i) approve the Settlement Agreement, with modifications to the Settlement Agreement that alter in any way the Parties' rights or duties to the extent affirmatively agreed to by the Parties, without further notice; and (ii) adjourn the Final Fairness Hearing from time to time, by oral announcement at the hearing without further notice. Class Counsel shall ensure that any rescheduled hearing dates are promptly posted to the Settlement Website.

20. The Court retains continuing and exclusive jurisdiction over the Action to consider all further matters arising out of or connected with the Settlement, including the administration and enforcement of the Settlement Agreement.

It is SO ORDERED.
