CLASS REPRESENTATIVE'S MOTION TO APPOINT CLASS ADMINISTRATOR

Class Representative hereby moves this Court for an order appointing American Legal Claim Services, LLC, as the class administrator for this matter and, in support, states:

1. Following the Missouri Supreme Court's denial of Prestige's writ of prohibition seeking to overturn the Court's class certification order, Class Counsel reached out to three companies that handle the tasks of class administration, including providing required notice of the pending class action to class members, for the purpose of obtaining a cost estimate for acting as class administrator in this case.

2. Without revealing potentially confidential business information, Class Representative can state that American Legal Claims Services, LLC ("ALCS"), had the most competitive estimate among the three companies.

3. Class Counsel has worked with ALCS on another UCC bad notice class action in Bailey v. Alliance Credit Union, Case No. 2322-CC09369, City of St. Louis. ALCS effectively handled class notice as well as the administration of the settlement in that matter and did so in a timely and professional manner.

Electronically Filed - LAFAYETTE - February 03, 2026 - 02:20 PM

4. On ALCS's website, it shows that they have acted as class administrator in at least five other UCC bad notice class actions, in addition to many other class actions listed on their website involving other causes of action.

5. ALCS has already taken a proactive approach to this matter. It has proposed editing the mail form class notice to a postcard format to make the process of class notice more cost effective.

WHEREFORE, Class Representative respectfully requests the Court enter an order appointing American Legal Claim Services, LLC, as the class administrator for this matter.

Respectfully Submitted,
SWMW LAW, LLC
