CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

Subject to final approval by the Court and in exchange for the good and valuable consideration set forth herein, this Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release dated as of the date of the last signatory is entered into by and between Helena Haddad (the “Class Representative” or “Plaintiff”), on behalf of herself and the Class Members, and West-Aircomm Federal Credit Union (“WAFCU”), intending that as among the Parties, including all Class Members, the Litigation and the Settled Claims shall be fully and finally compromised, settled, and released, and the Litigation shall be dismissed with prejudice as to all Parties upon the terms and conditions set forth below.

WHEREAS, on June 13, 2019, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint in the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County in a matter captioned Helena Haddad, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated v. West-Aircomm Federal Credit Union, GD-19-008596 (the “Litigation”), which alleged, inter alia, violations of Pennsylvania’s Uniform Commercial Code with respect to certain notices that Plaintiff contends were required to be sent to Pennsylvania consumers after the repossession of their vehicles by WAFCU;

WHEREAS, on July 31, 2019, WAFCU filed preliminary objections to the Complaint, which the Court overruled on December 18, 2019;

WHEREAS, on July 16, 2021, Plaintiff filed a Second Amended Complaint (“SAC”), which also alleged, inter alia, violations of Pennsylvania’s Uniform Commercial Code;

WHEREAS, WAFCU filed an Answer with New Matter in which it denied the material allegations made in the SAC, denied any and all liability with respect to the allegations and claims previously and currently alleged in the Litigation, and further denied that the Class Members are entitled to any recovery;

WHEREAS, contested issues of both law and fact exist concerning the allegations and claims made in the SAC and Answer thereto;

WHEREAS, Class Counsel has conducted an extensive investigation into the facts and law relating to the Litigation, and has filed a Motion for Class Certification, which is pending as of the date of this Agreement;

WHEREAS, the Parties, through counsel, engaged in settlement negotiations, ultimately reaching a settlement in principle to be memorialized herein and presented to the Court for approval;

WHEREAS, Plaintiff and WAFCU hereby execute this Settlement Agreement and intend to urge its approval by the Court after consideration of the following substantial benefits that the settlement bestows upon the Class (and as further described below):

- (i) WAFCU will pay the sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000.00) to create a Settlement Fund that will be used to provide monetary relief to Class Members, to pay Class Counsel's approved fees and expenses, to pay an approved class representative service award, and to pay the costs of Class Notice and administration of the Settlement, all as approved by the Court; and,
- (ii) WAFCU will make a request to Credit Reporting Agencies to delete entirely any trade line from Class Members' credit files relating to the finance agreements at issue in the Litigation in the manner set forth at ¶ 2.09 below.

WHEREAS, Class Counsel has fully analyzed and evaluated the merits of the Parties' contentions and this settlement as it affects all Parties, (including the individual Class Members), and has twice deposed the designee of WAFCU and has reviewed copious documents and data; and after taking into account the foregoing along with the substantial risks of continued litigation, is satisfied that the terms and conditions of this Agreement are fair, reasonable, adequate, and equitable, and that a settlement of the Litigation is in the best interests of the Class; and

WHEREAS, WAFCU denies any and all liability in connection with the Litigation, but nevertheless desires to settle the Litigation on the terms and conditions herein set forth, for the purposes of avoiding the burden, expense, and uncertainty of continuing litigation, and for the purpose of putting to rest the controversies engendered by the Litigation;

NOW THEREFORE, intending to be legally bound and in consideration of the covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement, the Class Representative, the Class, and WAFCU agree to the settlement of the Litigation, subject to Court approval, as follows:

II. GENERAL TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT

2.01. Conditional Nature of Agreement.

This Agreement, including all associated exhibits and attachments, is made for the sole purpose of attempting to consummate a settlement of the Litigation on a classwide basis. The Agreement is made in compromise of disputed claims. The Agreement is intended by the Parties to fully, finally, and forever resolve the Settled Claims subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. Because this Agreement resolves a class action on a classwide basis, it must receive preliminary and final approval by the Court. Accordingly, the Parties enter into this Agreement on a conditional basis, subject to the final approval of the Court.

2.02. Effect of Disapproval.

If the Court does not enter the Final Approval Order, or the Agreement does not become final for any reason, this Agreement shall be of no force or effect whatsoever (except with respect to this paragraph and with respect to the return of funds as indicated in this Agreement). The Parties agree that if the Court does not approve the Agreement, or any appellate court disapproves of the Agreement in any way that prevents the Agreement from becoming final and effective, no Party will use or attempt to use any conduct or statement of any other Party in connection with this Agreement, including any effort to seek approval of the settlement, to affect or prejudice any other Party's rights in any ensuing litigation.

To the extent this Agreement is deemed void or the Effective Date does not occur, the Parties do not waive, but rather expressly reserve, all rights to challenge all claims and allegations in the Litigation upon all procedural, factual, and legal grounds.

If this Agreement terminates pursuant to its terms without final approval, the Litigation shall revert to its status as it existed before the execution of this Agreement, and any monies paid or advanced by WAFCU shall be returned within fourteen (14) days, except for any portion of the funds advanced to the Settlement Administrator for services actually rendered.

2.03. Denial of Liability.

WAFCU denies the validity of all claims asserted in the Litigation. Neither this Agreement, nor any of its terms and provisions, nor any of the negotiations connected with it, shall be construed as an admission or concession by WAFCU of any legal violations, any legal requirement, or any failure to comply with any applicable law.

2.04. Class Certification.

The Parties agree that the Class shall be certified for purposes of settlement, that Helena Haddad shall be appointed as Class Representative, and that Cary L. Flitter, Andrew M. Milz, Jody Thomas López-Jacobs along with the law firm Flitter Milz, P.C., and Emily S. Gomez-Hayes of the Law Office of Emily Gomez, LLC shall be appointed as Class Counsel, subject to approval of the Court.

2.05. Proposed Order for Preliminary Approval.

In connection with the application for Preliminary Approval of this Agreement, the parties shall submit to the Court a proposed order in the form attached as Exhibit A.

2.06. Monetary Relief to Class Members.

(a) Within twenty (20) days following the entry of an order granting Preliminary Approval, WAFCU will issue or cause to be issued one or more checks to the Settlement Administrator in the amount of $300,000.00, payable to the order of “Haddad v. WAFCU Settlement Fund” for deposit into PNC Bank, N.A.

Under no circumstances shall WAFCU be required to pay an amount in excess of $300,000.00 in connection with this Settlement. The Settlement Fund shall be used solely for purposes of implementing this Agreement, which will be used to provide monetary relief to Cash Payment Eligible Class Members, to pay Class Counsel’s attorney fees and expenses as approved by the Court, to pay any approved class representative service award, and to pay for costs of notice and administration.

(b) Class Relief. Cash Payment Eligible Class Members shall be entitled to their respective share of the Settlement Fund after the deduction of approved Class Counsel fees and expenses, approved class representative service awards, and administrative costs (yielding the “Net Fund”). The Net Fund will be distributed on a pro rata basis to all Cash Payment Eligible Class Members based on the proportion of their statutory damages. If two or more Cash Payment Eligible Class Members share a single Secured Obligation (e.g., if there are co-borrowers), those individuals shall be entitled to a single recovery per repossessed vehicle. If a Cash Payment Eligible Class Member had more than one vehicle repossessed, such member shall be entitled to a separate recovery for each Secured Obligation. Any Cash Payment Eligible Class Member who had the same vehicle repossessed more than once shall be entitled to only one recovery per vehicle, not per repossession. If there are co-obligors, the check(s) may be payable jointly, but upon request from one of the co-obligors and the return of the original check(s), new checks may be issued, payable to each individually for half of the sum otherwise payable.

(c) Illustration. By way of illustration, if the Court approves Class Counsel fees and litigation expenses in the sum of $120,000.00 and $5,000, respectively, administrative expenses of $11,500.00, and a class representative service award of $12,500.00, the Net Fund will be $151,000.00. The median payment for each of the approximately 57 Secured Obligations in the Class is approximately $2,600.00. However, each Class Member will receive their pro rata share of the Net Fund.

(d) Timing of Payment. On or about the Distribution Date, the Settlement Administrator shall mail a check to each Cash Payment Eligible Class Member at their original address or any updated address obtained pursuant to ¶¶ 3.02 or 4.02.

2.07. Identification of Class Members.

WAFCU represents that to the best of its knowledge after having reviewed its records of customer accounts, there are 57 Secured Obligations within the Class, representing 59 Class Members.

2.08 Electronic List.

WAFCU shall prepare an electronic list for the Settlement Administrator containing the names, last known addresses, finance charges, amounts financed, and Social Security numbers of Class Members (including co-obligors). The same list, minus Social Security numbers, shall be provided to Class Counsel. The purpose of providing Class Members' Social Security numbers is to assist the Settlement Administrator in locating valid addresses where necessary as described in ¶¶ 3.02 and 4.02. The Settlement Administrator and Class Counsel shall treat the respective lists as confidential. The Settlement Administrator shall update each Class Member's last known address through the United States Postal Service National Change of Address ("NCOA") database for updates as far back as feasible. For Class Members for whom there is no updated address in the NCOA database, the Settlement Administrator will update the last known address via a Social Security number (or equivalent personal identifier) search through the Accurant database or other equivalent database. The Settlement Administrator may take further steps to locate as many Class Members as reasonably feasible. WAFCU will respond to reasonable written inquiries, if any, by Class Counsel concerning the procedures used in updating and maintaining the list of Class Members.

2.09. Credit Reporting and Collections.

(a) Not later than sixty (60) days after the Effective Date, WAFCU will make a request to the Credit Reporting Agencies to delete the trade line for the motor vehicle financing accounts at issue (hereinafter “Accounts”) from the credit files of all Class Members, including those Class Members who redeemed their account (i.e. pay off the entire amount owed in exchange for the vehicle), but not including those Class Members who reinstated their account.

To that end, WAFCU shall submit a Metro II form coded with “DA” (delete account) and/or a Universal Data Form with the “Delete Tradeline” option box checked to each consumer reporting agency to which WAFCU has reported any information about Class Member. Each required “Universal Data Form,” or a substantially equivalent form, must contain WAFCU’s certification that it has modified its internal records so that the Account information to be deleted is not re-reported. WAFCU shall adjust its relevant internal records in a manner that will permanently reflect the agreed-upon status of the Accounts.

If, 90 or more days after the Effective Date, WAFCU is advised by a Class Member or Class Counsel that a trade line has not been deleted, WAFCU will make a further request that it be deleted. If WAFCU is not so advised, WAFCU will take no further action. After WAFCU has made the request(s) to the Credit Reporting Agencies described above, if a Class Member disputes such WAFCU trade line with one or more Credit Reporting Agencies, WAFCU shall not respond to such request for verification. WAFCU shall have no further obligation with respect to deletion of credit reporting trade lines;

(b) The Class Members acknowledge that the Credit Reporting Agencies are separate entities from WAFCU, and that no cause of action can or will be stated, including any for breach of this Settlement against WAFCU, if any Credit Reporting Agency fails to so amend the Class Members' credit history despite a request from WAFCU, so long as WAFCU performs its obligations in ¶ 2.09(a). The Class Members also expressly acknowledge that they understand the limitations of WAFCU in this regard, and that any action, inaction, omission, and/or error solely by the Credit Reporting Agencies is not and shall not be attributable to WAFCU and shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement. WAFCU shall not be liable to any Class Member under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681, or similar law, for complying with this paragraph in correcting or requesting deletion of any Class Member's credit reporting trade line.

2.10. Attorneys' Fees and Expenses

Plaintiff intends to apply for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses from the Settlement Fund in an amount not to exceed $120,000.00 and $5,000, respectively. All attorneys' fees and expenses shall be paid from the Settlement Fund on a common fund/benefit basis, and the amounts of such fees and expenses shall not increase in any way the amount that WAFCU is required to pay under this Agreement. WAFCU agrees not to oppose a request by Plaintiff for fees and costs to be awarded to Class Counsel. The amount of Class Counsel fees and expenses is subject to Court approval. Class Counsel fees awarded shall also serve as compensation to Class Counsel for addressing ongoing and future Class Member inquiries concerning their repossession, deficiency balance, and trade line credit reporting after final approval. Class Counsel fees and expenses approved by the Court shall be paid by the Settlement Administrator within fourteen (14) days of the Effective Date. Class Counsel shall provide WAFCU an executed Form W-9.

2.11. Individual Service Award.

The Class Representative shall apply for an individual service award in the amount of $12,500.00. Any service award shall be paid from the Settlement Fund. WAFCU agrees not to object to this request for an individual service award. The amount of any such award is subject to Court approval. The approved service award shall be forwarded to Class Counsel by the Settlement Administrator within fourteen (14) days of the Effective Date, upon the Settlement Administrator's receipt of an executed Form W-9 from the Class Representative. This service award is in addition to Plaintiff's entitlement to the settlement benefits provided to all Class Members under this Agreement.

III. ADMINISTRATION OF THE SETTLEMENT

3.01. Costs of Administration.

Costs of providing notice to the Class of the settlement of the Litigation, administering this Agreement, and making the cash payments and distributions required under this Agreement, shall be paid from the Settlement Fund. The Settlement Administrator, American Legal Claims Services, LLC of Jacksonville, FL, shall administer the settlement in accordance with the terms of this Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Administrator shall promptly respond to all queries from WAFCU and Class Counsel about the calculations and payments called for by this Agreement, including the provision of a W-9 form. The Settlement Administrator shall provide a quote for the costs of the first distribution, which shall not exceed $11,500. Further notice or administrative expenses associated solely with a second distribution to Class Members (not to exceed $3,500.00) may be withdrawn by the Administrator out of the res then remaining before any Second Distribution.

3.02. Treatment of Class Members Who Have Moved or Died.

For Class Members whose checks mailed pursuant to ¶ 2.06 are returned by the U.S. Postal Service for lack of current correct address, the Settlement Administrator shall seek an address correction via a Social Security number search through the Accurant database, or other equivalent database, and the checks for those Class Members will be resent to any subsequently obtained addresses. The Settlement Administrator may in its discretion employ skip-trace or other location tools. If the Settlement Administrator receives notice that a Class Member is deceased, the Settlement Administrator will, upon receipt of proper notification and documentation within thirty (30) days of that notice, make any payment due to the Class Member's estate. "Proper notification and documentation" means, in the discretion of the Settlement Administrator, a death certificate, or a copy of the official filings appointing an executor, administrator, or other personal representative of the estate along with the name and address of such executor, administrator, or personal representative. Any payment to or on behalf of an estate must be made not later than one ninety (90) days after the Distribution Date.

3.03. Uncashed/Unclaimed Checks.

Checks to Class Members shall be good for ninety (90) days from the date the check is mailed, and that "stale date" shall be stated on the check. Approximately sixty (60) days after mailing settlement checks, the administrator shall send a "reminder letter" to each Cash Payment Eligible Class Member who has not cashed or negotiated the settlement check, advising that the check will go stale in approximately thirty (30) more days and urging the Class Member to act promptly to negotiate their check. Class Members who are not located or whose checks are not cleared within ninety (90) days after the mailing of the check shall be ineligible to share in the Settlement Fund, but shall be eligible for the non-cash benefits of this settlement.

3.04 Second Distribution

If, after the check stale date there remains in the account a balance of $30,000.00 or more, there shall be a second distribution. From that remaining balance, reasonable administration and notice costs for the second distribution shall be paid per ¶ 3.01 above. The balance then remaining shall be allocated on a per capita basis among each Class Member who negotiated the first mailed check.

If a second distribution is called for by this Agreement, the Settlement Administrator shall mail checks no later than 110 days after the Distribution Date. Checks mailed in a Second Distribution shall be marked as valid for a period of forty-five (45) days from mailing.

3.05. Notification to Class Counsel.

Approximately one hundred (100) days after the Distribution Date, the Settlement Administrator shall notify Class Counsel and WAFCU's counsel in writing of the number of Class Members, the number of Class Members to whom checks were sent, the number of Class Members who did not cash the checks, the total dollar amount of the checks distributed, the total dollar amount of uncashed checks, and the remaining balance of the Settlement Fund, accounting for interest (if any), bank fees, and other administration expenses.

If there is a Second Distribution hereunder, the Administrator shall provide a supplemental affidavit approximately sixty (60) days after the Second Distribution with the same detail provided.

3.06. Residual Funds/ Cy Pres.

If a balance remains sixty (60) days after a Second Distribution, or if less than $30,000.00 remains 100 days after the initial distribution, that remaining balance is deemed "Residual Funds." Residual Funds will be distributed as follows: (a) pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1716, fifty percent (50%) shall be distributed to the Pennsylvania Interest on Lawyers Trust Account ("IOLTA") to support activities and programs which promote the delivery of civil legal assistance to the indigent in Pennsylvania by non-profit corporations described in § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; (b) the remaining fifty percent (50%) shall be distributed to the following nonprofit entity for purposes including consumer credit education, counseling, or the representation or assistance of low-income Pennsylvania consumers in consumer credit, bankruptcy, foreclosure, and similar matters: 25% to Neighborhood Legal Services based in Pittsburgh, PA, and 25% to Alliance for Consumer Protection, Beaver County.

If there is no second distribution, the Settlement Administrator shall deliver the checks payable to the cy pres recipients to Class Counsel for distribution to the recipient organization within 120 days of the initial distribution. If there is a second distribution, such checks shall be delivered within 70 days of the second distribution. The letter enclosing delivery of the cy pres checks to the recipients shall be copied to Counsel for WAFCU. Promptly after the cy pres checks have cleared, the Settlement Administrator shall close the account at PNC Bank, N.A.

Under no circumstances (other than termination of this Agreement) shall any of the money in the Settlement Fund revert to WAFCU.

3.07. Certification of Distribution.

Within ten (10) days after the final distribution of all portions of the Settlement Fund, the Settlement Administrator shall provide to all counsel an affidavit attesting that the distributions provided for by this Agreement have all been timely made. Within 14 days of receipt of the affidavit, Class Counsel shall docket such affidavit and any other appropriate case-closing affidavit or praecipe.

IV. CLASS SETTLEMENT PROCEDURES

4.01. Motion for Preliminary Approval.

Plaintiff shall file a motion for Preliminary Approval of the proposed settlement no later than fourteen days from the execution of this Agreement. WAFCU agrees not to oppose the entry of an order of Preliminary Approval in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A, which provides, among other things:

- (a) That the settlement is preliminarily approved as being within the range of reasonableness such that notice thereof should be given to the Class;
- (b) That the requirements for certification of the Class for settlement purposes have been satisfied, and this action shall be maintained and proceed as a class action for settlement purposes pursuant to Pa. R. Civ. P. 1701, et seq.;
- (c) That the notice of proposed class action settlement substantially in the form attached as Exhibit B is approved by the Court; that the mailing of the Class Notice in the manner and form set forth in the Order meets all the requirements of Pa. R. Civ. P. 1712, 1714, and any other applicable law; that such Notice constitutes the best notice practicable under the particular circumstances of this case; and shall constitute valid, due, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to it;
- (d) That deadlines shall be established for mailing Class Notices, filing any objections and requests to opt out of the settlement, and filing any papers in connection with the Final Approval Hearing and the consideration of the approval or disapproval of the Settlement Agreement;
- (e) That any objections by Class Members to: (i) the proposed settlement, or (ii) the entry of the Final Approval Order, shall be heard and any papers submitted in support of such objections shall be considered by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing only if, on or before a date (or dates) specified in the Class Notice and the Preliminary Approval Order, the objector files with the Court a notice of their intention to appear, and states the basis for such objections. Any objection shall be postmarked or electronically filed with the Prothonotary on or before the date specified in the Class Notice, which shall be forty-two (42) days from the date of the initial mailing of the Class Notice. The objector shall mail copies of any objection to Class Counsel, counsel for WAFCU, and the Settlement Administrator;
- (f) That any person who wishes to opt out of the settlement shall mail a notice of intention to opt out to the Settlement Administrator on or before a date specified in the Class Notice and the Preliminary Approval Order (forty-two (42) days from the date of the initial mailing of the Class Notices). The notice of intention to opt out shall: (i) set forth the Class Member's full name, current address, and telephone number; (ii) contain the signatures of each Class Member obligated on the Secured Obligation; and (iii) state an intent of all signatories not to participate in the settlement;
- (g) That Plaintiff's motion for final approval, for approval of a Class Representative service award, and for an award of Class Counsel fees and expenses, shall be filed at least seven (7) days prior to the Final Approval Hearing;

- (h) That the Preliminary Approval Order substantially in the form of Exhibit A to the Settlement Agreement is approved;
- (i) That a hearing or hearings (“Final Approval Hearing”) shall be held before the Court, at the time and date to be set by the Court, to consider whether the proposed settlement, including the payment of the Class Representative service award, Class Counsel’s attorneys’ fees and expenses, and administrative costs is fair, reasonable, and adequate and should be approved by the Court, and whether the judgment approving the settlement and dismissing the Litigation on the merits and with prejudice against the Class Representative and the Class Members should be entered, and to consider such other matters as may properly come before the Court in connection with the Final Approval Hearing;
- (j) That the Final Approval Hearing may, from time to time and without further notice to the Class (except those who filed timely and valid objections), be continued or adjourned by order of the Court;
- (k) That all Class Members (except those who timely excluded themselves) will be bound by the Final Approval Order.

4.02. Notice of Class Settlement.

Subject to Court approval, the Parties agree that notice to the Class Members shall be mailed by the Settlement Administrator in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B in the following manner: (a) WAFCU shall supply an list of the Class in accordance with ¶ 2.08 within ten (10) days of preliminary approval, and the Settlement Administrator shall update the address list as set forth in ¶¶ 2.07 and 2.08; (b) the Settlement Administrator shall mail the notice as approved by the Court, by first class United States mail to the updated addresses within ten (10) days of receiving the class list from WAFCU (i.e., within twenty (20) days of preliminary approval); (c) if a mailed notice is returned with a forwarding address provided by the Postal Service, the Settlement Administrator will re-mail it to the forwarding address; (d) if a mailed notice is returned without a forwarding address, or is otherwise designated by the Postal Service as bearing an invalid address, the Settlement Administrator shall use the Accurant database, or other equivalent database, to attempt to locate an updated address for the particular Class Member, and shall re-mail the notice to the Class Member at the updated address (if one is obtained). If a notice is returned after such address update and re-mailing, and no current address is reasonably available to the Settlement Administrator, the notice may be deemed “undeliverable.”

4.03. Opting Out

The Class Notice described in Paragraph 4.02 above shall permit any Class Member to elect not to be part of the Class and not to be bound by this Agreement if the affected person mails a timely opt-out notice to the Settlement Administrator. The notice of intention to opt out shall: (i) set forth the Class Member’s full name, current address, telephone number and email address, if available; (ii) contain the signatures of each Class Member obligated on the motor vehicle loan or installment sale agreement; and (iii) state an intent of all signatories not to participate in the Settlement. The notice of intention to opt out must be postmarked on or before the date specified in the Class Notice, which shall be forty-two (42) days after the initial mailing of the Class Notices. No Class Member, or proxy, may exclude any other Class Member. At least twenty-four (24) days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, the Settlement Administrator shall prepare a list of the persons who have validly objected to or requested exclusion from the Settlement Agreement and shall serve such list upon Class Counsel and WAFCU’s counsel, and Class Counsel shall file the list with the motion for final approval. Upon the entry of the Final Approval Order, the persons who timely and properly requested exclusion from the Class will not be considered Class Members for purposes of this settlement. The Class Notice shall also explain in plain language that payment will result in issuance of an IRS form 1099.

4.04. Order and Final Judgment.

Before the Final Approval Hearing, the Plaintiff shall request, with Defendant’s concurrence, that the Court approve the settlement and enter judgment in accordance with this Agreement, substantially in the form attached as Exhibit C.

4.05. Settlement Administrator Duties and Consent to Jurisdiction.

(a) The Settlement Administrator shall be responsible to prepare, fold, and properly mail Class Notice; to set up an appropriate website on which key document from the case will be located; set up a toll-free telephone number so that Class Members with questions may call-in; handle and administer opt-out requests and objections, if any, and other Class Member inquiries; handle and facilitate mailing of checks to Class Members and such other administrative services as needed, consistent with its proposal, to implement notice and distribution.

(b) The Settlement Administrator shall, by virtue of its voluntary appointment, deem itself subject to the jurisdiction of the Court for purposes of its administration of the settlement in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and this Litigation.

V. RELEASES

5.01. Release by the Class.

On the Effective Date, the Class Representative and all Class Members, by operation of this Release and the Final Approval Order, fully, finally, and forever release and discharge WAFCU from all Settled Claims and, without further action by any person, shall be deemed (a) to have consented to the dismissal with prejudice of all Settled Claims; (b) to have released and discharged all Settled Claims; and (c) to be barred and enjoined from instituting or further prosecuting, in any forum whatsoever, including but not limited to any state, federal, or foreign court or regulatory agency, any Settled Claim.

5.02. Unknown Claims or Losses.

The Class Representative and WAFCU expressly understand and acknowledge that it is possible that unknown losses or claims exist or that present losses may have been underestimated in amount or severity. The Class Representative and WAFCU explicitly took that possibility into account in entering into this Agreement, and a portion of the consideration and the mutual covenants contained in this Agreement, having been bargained for between the Class Representative and WAFCU with the knowledge of the possibility of such losses or claims, was given in exchange for a full discharge of all such losses or claims.

VI. QUALIFIED SETTLEMENT FUND

6.01. Definition.

The Settlement Fund shall constitute a Qualified Settlement Fund (“QSF”) within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.468B–1 promulgated under § 468B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Settlement Administrator shall be the “administrator” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.468B–2(k).

6.02. Employer Identification Number.

Upon or before establishment of the QSF, the Settlement Administrator shall apply for an employer identification number for the QSF utilizing Internal Revenue Service Form SS-4 and in accordance with Treasury Regulation § 1.468B–2(k)(4).

WAFCU and the Settlement Administrator shall fully cooperate in filing a relation-back election under Treasury Regulation § 1.468B–1(j)(2) to treat the QSF as coming into existence as a settlement fund as of the earliest possible date.

6.04. WAFCU’s Obligations After Making Deposits.

After making the payments described in ¶ 2.06, WAFCU shall have no responsibility, obligation, or liability with respect to: (a) the notifications to the Class Members (except to provide its best and latest location data); (b) the processing of claims and opt-out letters; (c) the allowance or disallowance of claims by Class Members; (d) payments to Class Counsel; (e) investment of QSF funds; (f) payment of federal, state, and local income, employment, unemployment, excise, and any other taxes, penalties, interest, or other charges related to taxes imposed on the QSF or its disbursements; (g) payment of the administrative, legal, accounting, or other costs occasioned by the use or administration of the QSF.

6.05. Administration Tax Obligations.

The Settlement Administrator shall file or cause to be filed, on behalf of the QSF, all required federal, state, and local tax returns, information returns, including any Form 1099-series return and tax withholdings statements, in accordance with the provisions of Treasury Reg. § 1.468B-2(k)(1) and Treasury Reg. § 1.468B-2(l)(2)(ii). Any contract with the Settlement Administrator relating to the QSF shall require the Settlement Administrator to undertake these tasks.

VII. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

The Parties' counsel shall use their best efforts to cause the Court to give Preliminary Approval to this Agreement as promptly as practicable, to take all steps contemplated by this Agreement, to effectuate the Settlement on the stated terms and conditions, and to obtain final approval of this Agreement.

7.02. Choice of Law and Venue.

This Agreement is intended to and shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, without regard to conflict of laws rules. This Agreement shall be enforced in the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, Pennsylvania. WAFCU, Plaintiff, and the Class Members waive any objection to personal jurisdiction or venue with respect to such action.

7.03. Entire Agreement.

This Agreement constitutes the complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between the Parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement, superseding all previous negotiations and understandings. This Agreement may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior or contemporaneous agreement, and no extrinsic evidence bearing on the meaning of this Agreement may be introduced in any judicial proceeding.

7.04. Modification Only in Writing.

This Agreement may be amended only in a writing signed by the Parties or counsel for all Parties. This Agreement may not be orally amended. Any prior settlement agreement between the Parties is null and void. This Agreement controls.

7.06. Successors.

This Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the respective heirs, successors, and assigns of the Parties.

7.07. Waivers.

The waiver by one Party of any provisions or breach of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any other provision or breach of this Agreement.

This Agreement shall become effective upon its execution by all of the undersigned. The Parties may execute this Agreement in counterparts.

7.09. Retention of Jurisdiction.

The Court shall retain jurisdiction over the interpretation, effectuation, and implementation of this Agreement and all orders entered in connection with the Agreement.

7.10 Taxes.

Plaintiff, for herself and her agents and representatives, and WAFCU, for itself and its representatives, agree that they shall take no action to induce or encourage any person included in the Class to seek exclusion from the Class, provided that this provision shall not restrict Class Counsel from providing appropriate legal advice in response to inquiries from Class Members.

7.12. Blow-Up Provision.

If Class Members on more than five (5) Secured Obligations validly request exclusion from this Agreement, WAFCU may, within fourteen (14) days of the opt-out deadline, advise Class Counsel that WAFCU wishes to declare this Agreement voided, and the parties shall so advise the court; and the litigation shall be restored to the status quo ante.

CLASS ACTION

WEST-AIRCOMM FEDERAL CREDIT UNION
Defendant.

ORDER CERTIFYING SETTLEMENT CLASS, PRELIMINARILY APPROVING CLASS SETTLEMENT AND DIRECTING THE ISSUANCE OF NOTICE TO THE CLASS

AND NOW, this day of , 202__, the Court finds and Orders:

This Court has before it a proposed class action settlement. Having reviewed the Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release, which was filed of record as an exhibit to the Motion for Preliminary Approval (docketed _____ and incorporated herein by reference) (the “Settlement Agreement”), having read the Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval, having been advised that Defendant joins in the relief requested, and based specifically upon the facts and circumstances at issue in the present case, the Court finds and ORDERS as follows:

1. Summary of Claims and Defenses:

The lawsuit claims that West-Aircomm Federal Credit Union (“WAFCU” or “Defendant”) violated Pennsylvania’s Uniform Commercial Code (“UCC”) by failing to send borrowers in Pennsylvania (a) proper notices of disposition of collateral (“Repossession Notices”) after repossession of their vehicle(s), and (b) proper explanations of calculation of deficiency (“Deficiency Notices”) after the sale of the vehicles. Plaintiff asserts on behalf of herself and a class of borrowers (the “Class”) that the Repossession Notices sent by WAFCU fail to advise the borrower of (1) the method of intended disposition; (2) the borrower’s right to an accounting of any unpaid indebtedness, and the charge (if any) for such accounting; and (3) a telephone number or mailing address from which additional information concerning the disposition and the secured obligation may be obtained. See 13 Pa. C.S. §§ 9611, 9614; Cubler v. TruMark Fin. Credit Union, 83 A.3d 235, 237 n.1 (Pa. Super. 2013). Plaintiff also asserts on behalf of herself and the Class that the Deficiency Notices fail to provide the statutorily mandated explanation of how WAFCU calculated a deficiency. 13 Pa. C.S. § 9616.

WAFCU disputes Plaintiff's legal entitlement to any relief under the UCC and maintains that its Repossession Notices and Deficiency Notices are legally compliant. WAFCU further asserts defenses to the Second Amended Complaint and maintains that the matter would not meet the requirements for class certification if contested, but WAFCU consents to this Settlement Class and preliminary approval.

2. Class Findings for Settlement Purposes.

- (a) The numerosity requirement of Pa. R. Civ. P. 1702(1) is satisfied because the Class consists of approximately 59 Pennsylvania borrowers. Thus, the Class is so numerous that joinder would be impracticable.
- (b) The commonality requirement of Pa. R. Civ. P. 1702(2) is satisfied because members of the Class share at least one common factual or legal issue, i.e.:
 - (i) Whether Plaintiff and the class obtained motor vehicle financing through WAFCU and pledged the vehicle as collateral;
 - (ii) Whether WAFCU repossessed the financed vehicle or ordered it repossessed;
 - (iii) Whether WAFCU failed to send a proper notice of disposition of collateral required under the UCC after repossessing a vehicle;

(iv) The uniform statutory damages provided for such misconduct.

(c) The typicality requirement of Pa. R. Civ. P. 1702(3) is satisfied because Defendant sent form notices to Plaintiff and other members of the Class. Plaintiff asserts that the form notices used by Defendant fail to comply with state law. These are the same claims that all other members of the Class possess.

(d) The adequacy requirement of Pa. R. Civ. P. 1702(4) is satisfied in that (i) the interests of the Representative Plaintiff and the nature of her claims are consistent with those of all members of the Class, (ii) there appear to be no conflicts between or among the Representative Plaintiff and the Class Members, and (iii) Plaintiff and the Class Members are represented by qualified, experienced counsel who often have been certified as Class Counsel in similar matters.

(e) The requirements of Pa. R. Civ. P. 1702(5) and 1708 are met, in that a Class Action for settlement purposes provides a fair and efficient method for the resolution of the controversy.

(f) Common issues of law and fact alleged by Plaintiff predominate over any potential individualized issues, including the alleged common issue of whether form notices sent by Defendant post-repossession comply with the provisions of one Pennsylvania statute's requirement of "commercially reasonable" notice of disposition or of deficiency. Pa. R. Civ. P. 1708(a)(1). In actions such as this alleging failure to provide commercially reasonable notice, there are no potential individualized issues such as reliance or causation, and liability may be determined as a matter of law.

(g) In making these preliminary findings, the Court has also given consideration to, among other factors: (i) the interests of Class Members in individually controlling the prosecution of separate actions for modest sums; (ii) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning these claims already commenced (none has been identified); (iii) the desirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in this forum; (iv) the impracticability or inefficiency of prosecuting or defending separate actions. Pa. R. Civ. P. 1708(a)–(c).

(h) Because this action is being settled rather than litigated, the Court need not consider manageability issues that might be presented by the trial of a class action involving the issues in this case.

3. The Class, Class Representative, and Class Counsel.

(a) The Class is defined as All Persons:

(i) who financed a motor vehicle as a consumer good through WAFCU or whose consumer loan contract or Retail Installment Sales Contract was assigned to WAFCU;

(ii) from whom WAFCU, as secured party, repossessed the financed vehicle, or ordered it repossessed;

(iii) who had a Pennsylvania address as of the date of repossession;

(iv) in the period commencing June 13, 2013 through May 7, 2019.

(b) Helena Haddad is appointed and approved as the representative of the Class (“Representative Plaintiff”).

(c) Cary L. Flitter, Andrew M. Milz, Jody Thomas López-Jacobs along with the law firm of Flitter Milz, P.C., and Emily S. Gomez-Hayes from the Law Office of Emily Gomez, LLC, are appointed and approved as Class Counsel.

4. Findings Regarding Proposed Settlement. The Court finds that the proposed Settlement:

- (a) resulted from extensive arm's-length negotiations and was concluded after three years of litigation, motion practice, depositions, review by Class Counsel of hundreds of data points pertaining to the Class;
- (b) involves direct and substantial cash payments to Class Members as well as credit reporting relief; and
- (c) appears prima facie fair, reasonable, and adequate to warrant sending notice of this action and the proposed settlement to the Class Members and holding a final hearing on the proposed settlement.

5. Final Approval Hearing. A hearing (the "Final Approval Hearing") will be held on _____, 2023, at _____, M. in Courtroom 820, City-County Building, 414 Grant Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15219 to determine:

- (a) Whether the proposed settlement of this action should be finally approved as fair, reasonable and adequate;
- (b) Whether this action should be dismissed with prejudice pursuant to the terms of the settlement;
- (c) Whether Class Members should be bound by the release set forth in the proposed settlement; and
- (d) Whether Plaintiff's application for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses to Class Counsel, and for an individual service award, should be approved.

6. Pre-Hearing Notices to Class Members. Subject to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, an independent, third-party class action administrator, American Legal Claims Services, LLC of Jacksonville, FL, (the “Settlement Administrator”) shall provide Class Members with notice in the manner set forth below and in the Settlement Agreement. By accepting this assignment, the Settlement Administrator subjects itself to this Court’s jurisdiction.

7. Notice by Mail and Website. The Settlement Administrator shall mail the Class Notice (with proper dates filled in) substantially in the form filed with this Court as Exhibit B to the Settlement Agreement to the last-known address of each potential Class Member as reflected on Defendant’s current and reasonably accessible records, or such other, more current address as the Settlement Administrator sees fit, pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement. The Class Notice shall be sent by first-class mail, postage prepaid. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, WAFCU shall furnish its final class list, including co-borrowers, to the Administrator and Class Counsel within twenty (20) days hereof; the Administrator shall cause Notice to be mailed within 10 days of receipt.

The Settlement Administrator shall also create a website where the important case documents (the Amended Complaint, the Settlement Agreement, this Preliminary Approval Order, etc.) and deadlines may be viewed. The website shall appear in the Class Notice.

8. Proof of Mailing. At least twenty-four (24) days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, the Settlement Administrator shall submit to Class Counsel an affidavit of mailing of the Class Notice, identifying any Class Members who have validly objected to or requested exclusion from the Settlement Agreement. Class Counsel shall file the affidavit along with Plaintiff’s motion for final approval.

9. Findings Concerning Notice. The Court finds that the Class Notice is the best practicable notice and is reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the Class Members (i) of the settlement of this action, (ii) of their right to exclude themselves from the Class and the proposed settlement, (iii) that any judgment, whether favorable or not, will bind all Class Members who do not request exclusion, and (iv) that any Class Member who does not request exclusion may object to the settlement and enter an appearance personally or through counsel.

The Court further finds that the Class Notice proposed and submitted as an exhibit to the Motion for Preliminary Approval is written in plain English and is readily understandable. In sum, the Court finds that the proposed notice and methodology for giving notice and the forty-two (42) day period to act are reasonable, that they constitute due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to be provided with notice, and that they meet the requirements of Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 1714 and the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause).

10. Exclusion from Class. Any Class Member who wishes to be excluded from the Class must send a written request for exclusion to the Settlement Administrator (with copies to Class Counsel and Defense counsel) at the addresses provided in the Settlement Class Notice. Any such exclusion request must be sent by first-class mail, postage prepaid, and must be postmarked no later than a date forty-two (42) days after the date the Notice is mailed by the Administrator. If the proposed settlement is approved, any Class Member who has not submitted a timely, written request for exclusion from the Class shall be bound by all subsequent proceedings, orders, and judgments in this action.

11. Objections and Appearances.

(a) Written Objections. Any Class Member who does not submit a written request for exclusion and who complies with the requirements of this paragraph may object to any aspect of the proposed settlement, including the fairness, reasonableness, or adequacy of the proposed settlement, the adequacy of the Class's representation by the Representative Plaintiff or Class Counsel, the award of attorneys' fees and expenses, and/or the individual service award to the Representative Plaintiff. A Class Member may assert such objections independently or through an attorney hired at their own expense. To object, a Class Member must send a letter or file a pleading saying that he or she objects to the settlement in Helena Haddad, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated v. West-Aircomm Federal Credit Union, GD-19-008596. Any objection should state the reasons for the objection and why the objector thinks the Court should not approve the settlement. The objection must also include the name, address, telephone number, email address (if available), and signature of the objecting Class Member. The objection should be filed with the Department of Court Records, Civil/Family Division, City-County Building, 414 Grant Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15219, with copies mailed to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel below, filed no later than forty (42) days from the date of the mailing of the Notice.

(b) Other Objections. Any Class Member who does not timely file with the Court and serve a written objection complying with the terms of this paragraph shall be deemed to have waived any objection, and shall be foreclosed from raising any objection to the settlement. Any untimely objection shall be barred, absent extraordinary circumstances.

(c) Notice of Appearance. If a Class Member hires an attorney to represent him or her, the attorney must file a notice of appearance, and deliver a copy of that notice to Defendant's counsel and to Class Counsel, at the addresses set forth in paragraph 11(a) of this Order. Such counsel must receive any such notices of appearance contemporaneously with submission to the Court.

(d) Appearance at Final Approval Hearing. Any Class Member who files and serves a timely, written objection pursuant to the terms of paragraph 11 of this Order and complies with the requirements of this paragraph may also appear and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing either in person or through counsel retained at the Class Member's expense. Class Members or their attorneys intending to appear and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing must deliver to the Court, the Settlement Administrator, Defendant's counsel and Class Counsel, at the addresses specified in paragraph 11(a) of this Order, a notice of intention to appear, setting forth the case number, the name, address, and telephone number of the Class Member, and the name of the Class Member's attorney (if applicable), and any documents the objector may use at the hearing. Notices of intention to appear must be postmarked no later than forty-two (42) days from the date of the mailing of the Notice. Any Class Member who does not timely file and serve a notice of intention to appear pursuant to the terms of this paragraph shall not be permitted to appear and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing, absent extraordinary circumstances.

12. Termination of Settlement. This Order shall become null and void, and shall be without prejudice to the rights of the parties, all of whom shall be restored to their respective positions existing immediately before this Court entered this Order, if, pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the proposed settlement: (a) is not finally approved by the Court or does not become final; or (b) is terminated or does not become effective. In such event, the proposed settlement and Settlement Agreement shall become null and void and be of no further force and effect, and neither the Settlement Agreement nor this Order shall prejudice either party.

13. Use of Order. This Order shall not be construed or used as an admission, concession, or finding by or against Defendant of any fault, wrongdoing, breach, or liability, or of the appropriateness or permissibility of certifying a class on contest, or for any purpose other than settlement. Nor shall the Order be construed or used as an admission, concession, or finding by or against Plaintiff or the Class Members that their claims lack merit or that the relief requested in their pleadings is inappropriate, improper, or unavailable, or as a waiver by any party of any defenses or claims.

14. Continuance of Hearing. The Court reserves the right to continue the Final Approval Hearing without further written notice, except that notice of any continuance shall be provided to any Class Member, or their counsel, who has filed an objection.

The person suing is Helena Haddad, the Plaintiff (also called “Class Representative”) and the company being sued, West-Aircomm Federal Credit Union, is called the Defendant, or “WAFCU.”

This package explains the lawsuit, the settlement, your legal rights, what benefits are available, who is eligible, and how to get them.

WAFCU’s records reflect that you and any co-borrower on your vehicle loan were sent one or more notices from WAFCU following the repossession and sale of your vehicle between June 13, 2013 through May 7, 2019. WAFCU’s conduct post-repossession, including its use of these notices, forms the basis for this lawsuit.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

The lawsuit claims that WAFCU violated Pennsylvania’s Uniform Commercial Code by failing to send its borrowers in Pennsylvania (a) proper notice of disposition of collateral (“Repossession Notice”) after repossession of their vehicle(s), and (b) proper explanation of calculation of deficiency (“Deficiency Notice”) after the sale of the vehicle(s).

Specifically, Plaintiff asserts on behalf of herself and a class of borrowers that the Repossession Notice sent by WAFCU fail to advise the borrower of (1) the method of intended disposition; (2) the borrower’s right to an accounting of any unpaid indebtedness, and the charge (if any) for such accounting; and (3) a telephone number or mailing address from which additional information concerning the disposition and the secured obligation may be obtained. Plaintiff also asserts on behalf of herself and the Class that the Deficiency Notices fail to provide the statutorily mandated explanation of how WAFCU calculated a deficiency.

WAFCU denies that its disclosures violated any law, and WAFCU asserts that it satisfied all of the legal requirements as to its notices. WAFCU asserts other defenses. WAFCU further contends that many of the members of the Class owe WAFCU money for balances still due on their accounts following the sale of their repossessed vehicle(s) at auction.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called Class Representatives (in this case Helena Haddad), sue on behalf of all people who have similar claims. All these people are “Class Members,” and grouped together are a “Class.” One court resolves the issues for all Class Members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Class. WAFCU has challenged whether this case should proceed as a class action but has agreed not to oppose this case proceeding as a class for settlement purposes only.

4. Why is there a settlement?

Plaintiff believes the Class might have won more money than the settlement amount had the case gone to trial, but substantial delays and risks would have occurred, including the risk of the case not being certified as a class. WAFCU believes that the claims asserted in the case are without substantial merit, and that the Plaintiff may have recovered nothing if there had been a trial. But, there has been no trial. Instead, both sides agreed to a settlement. That way, they avoid the cost of a trial and appeal, and class members like yourself will get compensation and other settlement benefits promptly. The Class Representative and his attorneys think the settlement is best for all Class Members.

WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT

5. How do I know that I am part of the settlement?

If you received this Notice in the mail, WAFCU's records reflect that you are part of the Class. The Court has preliminarily certified a Class, which includes borrowers on secured auto loans who were sent certain notices between June 13, 2013 through May 7, 2019 after their vehicle was repossessed.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS – WHAT YOU GET

6. What does the settlement provide for me?

- Cash Component:
 - WAFCU has agreed to create a Settlement Fund of $300,000.00. Approved administrative costs, Class Counsel fees and expenses, and a service award for the Class Representative will be paid from that fund. The Net Fund that remains will be distributed to the members of the Class.
 - The Net Fund will be distributed to you and the other members of the Class in proportionate to the amount of statutory damages you may claim, which is different for each Class Member. There are approximately 57 secured obligations in the Class. If fees and expenses are allowed as requested, it is expected that your cash payment will be approximately $$$$$$$, unless there were multiple borrowers on your loan in which case you will receive a portion of this amount.
 - If after the first distribution of checks to the Class more than $20,000 remains in the Net Fund (from uncashed or undistributable checks), there will be a second distribution of checks to the Class. A balance remaining after the second distribution will be paid to the following cy pres beneficiaries for consumer uses: 50% to Pennsylvania Interest on Lawyers Trust Account ("IOLTA"), 25% to Neighborhood Legal Services based in Pittsburgh, PA, and 25% to Alliance for Consumer Protection, Beaver County.

- Credit Reporting Relief: Unless you reinstated your loan, WAFCU will request that the credit reporting agencies update your credit report to remove any reference to the WAFCU auto loan contract. Details about how and when this will be done, and limits on WAFCU's obligation to provide credit reporting relief are spelled out further in the Settlement Agreement.

TAX IMPLICATIONS

7. Tax Implications

This settlement has potential tax implications for you. The Settlement Administrator plans to issue IRS 1099-series forms for cash payments over $600. You may be required to furnish your Social Security Number to the administrator as a condition of payment of settlement proceeds over $600.

HOW YOU GET THE BENEFITS OF THE SETTLEMENT

8. Do I need to do anything to get a payment or the credit reporting benefit

No. You do not need to do anything further to remain in the Class. You will get a payment automatically, assuming court approval of the Settlement. You will also get any credit reporting benefit automatically unless you reinstated your auto loan.

9. When is the hearing on final approval of the proposed settlement?

The Court will hold a hearing on [DATE] at [TIME] .M. at Courtroom [REDACTED], Courtroom 820, City-County Building, 414 Grant Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15219 to decide whether to approve the settlement. If the Court approves the settlement after hearing, there may be appeals. It is always uncertain whether there will be an appeal and if so, when it will be resolved. Resolving an appeal can take time, often well more than a year. Please be patient.

10. What am I giving up to get a payment or stay in the Class?

Unless you exclude yourself, you will stay in the Class, and that means that you can't sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against WAFCU related to your repossessed motor vehicle. It also means that the Court's orders will apply to you and legally bind you. Unless you "opt-out" or exclude yourself from this case, you will automatically be deemed to have agreed to a "Release of Claims" which describes exactly the legal claims that you give up if you remain in the Class. The specific language of the release is set forth in the Settlement Agreement, which can be found on the website: www.West-AircommRepoSettlement.com.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you do not want a payment or other benefits from this settlement but you want to keep the right to sue or continue to sue WAFCU on your own about any of the subjects or issues set forth in the paragraph above, then you must take steps to get out. This is called excluding yourself – sometimes referred to as “opting out” of the Class.

11. How do I get out of the settlement?

To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must send a letter to the Settlement Administrator, with copies to counsel, by mail (first class, postage pre-paid) saying that you, as well as any and all other person(s) who signed your vehicle loan, want to be excluded from Helena Haddad, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated v. West-Aircomm Federal Credit Union, GD-19-008596. Be sure to include your name, address, email (if available), telephone number and your signature. Mail your exclusion request postmarked no later than [DATE] to all of three different addresses below.

12. If I don't exclude myself, can I sue WAFCU for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue WAFCU for the claims that this settlement resolves. If you have a pending lawsuit, speak to your lawyer in that case immediately. You must exclude yourself from this Class to continue your own lawsuit.

13. If I exclude myself, can I get money from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not receive any money from this lawsuit or settlement, credit report deletion, or other relief that this Class Settlement provides.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

14. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court has approved the law firms of Flitter Milz, P.C., in Narberth, PA, and the Law Office of Emily Gomez, LLC of Pittsburgh, PA, to represent you and other Class Members. These lawyers are called Class Counsel. You will not be charged individually for these lawyers. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire a firm at your own expense.

15. How will the lawyers and Representative Plaintiff be paid?

As part of the class settlement, Plaintiff will ask the court to approve a $12,500 service award for her time and effort in bringing this case. Plaintiff will ask the Court to approve a payment out of the settlement fund in the amount of $120,000 and $5,000 for Class Counsel fees and expenses, respectively. The fees would pay Class Counsel for investigating the facts, litigating the case, negotiating the settlement, filing legal papers with the Court, and oversight of future implementation of the settlement, including fielding inquiries from Class Members. Class Counsel has not been paid for its time or services since this case was originally filed in August 2021. The Court could award less than this amount.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

You can tell the Court that you don't agree with the settlement or some part of it.

16. How do I tell the Court that I don't like the settlement?

If you are a Class Member, you can object to the settlement if you don't like any part of it. You should state why you object and why you think the Court should not approve the settlement. The Court will consider your views. To object, you must file an objection, or send a letter saying that you object to the settlement in Helena Haddad, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated v. West-Aircomm Federal Credit Union, GD-19-008596. Please be sure to include your name, address, email address (if available), telephone number, your signature, and the reasons you object to the settlement. Mail the objection to all of the three different places listed in Section 12 above, postmarked no later than [XXXX], and file with the Department of Court Records, Civil/Family Division, City-County Building, 414 Grant Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15219.

17. What's the difference between objecting and excluding?

Objecting is telling the Court that you don't like something about the settlement, and that you, for that reason, want the settlement not to be approved. You can object only if you stay in the Class. Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you don't want to be part of the Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT'S FAIRNESS HEARING

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement. You may attend and you may ask to speak, but you don't have to, and attendance is not required or expected unless you advise that you intend to appear or have your lawyer appear.

18. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold a Fairness Hearing on [DATE] at [TIME].M. at Courtroom 820, City-County Building, 414 Grant Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15219. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and meets the test for class action settlements. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. The Court will listen to people who have asked to speak at the hearing. The Court may also determine the Class Representative Service Award and Class Counsel fees and expenses. Following the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the settlement. We do not know how long these decisions will take.

19. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. But you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you file an objection, you don't have to come to Court to talk about it, but you may. As long as you properly mailed (or electronically filed) your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend, if you wish.

20. May I speak at the hearing?

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Fairness Hearing. To do so, you or your lawyer must send a letter stating that it is your “Notice of Intention to Appear in Helena Haddad, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated v. West-Aircomm Federal Credit Union, GD-19-008596.” Your Notice of Intention to Appear must be filed or mailed so as to be filed with the Court no later than [DATE] and be sent to the Department of Court Records at the addresses in Section 11. You cannot speak at the hearing if you exclude yourself from the settlement.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

21. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do not exclude yourself and the Court finally approves the settlement, you will receive a settlement payment(s) and credit reporting relief as provided in the Class Action Settlement Agreement.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA
CIVIL DIVISION

HELENE HADDAD, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated

Plaintiff,

CLASS ACTION

v.

WEST-AIRCOMM FEDERAL CREDIT UNION
Defendant.

ORDER FOR FINAL JUDGMENT AND DISMISSAL

WHEREAS, Helena Haddad, (the “Class Representative” or “Plaintiff”) on behalf of herself and the Class Members, and West-Aircomm Federal Credit Union, the Defendant in the above captioned action (the “Action”) have entered into and filed with the Court, a Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release (the “Settlement Agreement”);

WHEREAS, the Court on _____, 202__ entered an Order Preliminarily Approving the Settlement (“Preliminary Approval Order”);

WHEREAS, on _____, beginning at _____ o’clock __.m. in Courtroom 820, City-County Building, 414 Grant Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15219, the Court held a hearing to consider, among other things (i) whether the settlement reflected in the Settlement Agreement should be approved as fair, reasonable, adequate and in the best interests of the members of the Class; (ii) whether final judgment should be entered dismissing the claims of the members of the Class with prejudice and on the merits, as required by the Settlement Agreement; and (iii) whether to approve Plaintiff’s application for a Class Representative service award, and Class Counsel’s petition or an award of Class Counsel fees, costs, and expenses from the common fund.

WHEREAS, based on the foregoing, having heard the statements of counsel for the parties and of such persons who chose to appear at the final approval hearing, having considered all of the files, records and proceedings in the Action, including specifically the Settlement Agreement (and the exhibits appended thereto), the memoranda and other papers filed by the parties in support of final approval of the proposed settlement, Plaintiff's request for an award of a Class Representative service award, and Plaintiff's request for an award of Class Counsel fees and expenses;

WHEREAS, there have been _____ objections to the settlement and _____ Class Members have opted out. A list of opt-outs, if any, is appended to this Order.

THE COURT HEREBY FINDS, ORDERS AND ADJUDGES THAT:

1. Notice to the Class: Notice to the Class has been provided by the Settlement Administrator pursuant to this Court's Order of Preliminary Approval, as attested to by the Affidavit of the Settlement Administrator. The Notice given to members of the Class by first class mail, along with the creation of a website, constituted due and sufficient Notice of the settlement and the matters set forth in said Notices to all persons entitled to receive Notice, and fully satisfies the requirements of due process and Pa. R. Civ. P. 1712, 1714(c).

2. Adequacy of Class Representative: Plaintiff Helena Haddad, as representative of the Class, fairly and adequately represents the interests of the Class, such that the requirements of due process, the requirements of Pennsylvania law, and the requirements of Pa. R. Civ. P. 1709 have been satisfied.

3. Adequacy of Class Counsel: Cary L. Flitter, Andrew M. Milz, Jody Thomas López-Jacobs along with the law firm of Flitter Milz, P.C., and Emily S. Gomez-Hayes from the Law Office of Emily Gomez, LLC, have fairly and adequately represented the interests of the Class, such that the requirements of due process, the requirements of Pennsylvania law and the requirements of Pa. R. Civ. P. 1709 have been satisfied.

4. Settlement Approved: The proposed settlement set forth in the parties' Settlement Agreement, a copy of which was filed as Ex. "1" to the Motion for Final Approval, is fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Class. The terms in this Order shall be interpreted in accordance with the definitions in the Settlement Agreement. All aspects of the Settlement Agreement are approved. The Class Representative's service award is approved in the amount of $12,500.

5. Class Counsel Fees and Expenses: The Court has reviewed the application for Class Counsel fees and expenses, and the documentation submitted in support. Consistent with the criteria set forth in Pa. R. Civ. P. 1717, and established Pennsylvania law providing for payment of reasonable counsel fees and expenses to Class Counsel from a common fund created for the benefit of the Class, the Court finds the cash payment of $300,000, and equitable type relief in the correction of consumer credit reports of Class Members creates a common fund valued well in excess of $300,000.

Class Counsel's request for fees and costs in the sum of $120,000 and $5,000, respectively, is approved as fair and reasonable in light of the factors set forth in Pa. R. Civ. P. 1717, and in light of ongoing future services reasonably anticipated to be required to implement and oversee this settlement. Litigation expenses of Class Counsel were reasonable and necessary for effective prosecution of the case. Counsel fees and expenses are both to be paid out of the Settlement Fund, as set forth in the Settlement Agreement.

6. Dismissal and Related Matters:

a. The claims of all members of the Class, except those Class Members who have excluded themselves from the Class pursuant to paragraph 4.03 of the Settlement Agreement, are hereby dismissed with prejudice, on the merits and without costs to any party.

b. Plaintiff, on her own behalf and on behalf of each Class Member, by operation of this Release and the judgment, hereby shall be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, and discharged with prejudice any and all Settled Claims against West-Aircomm Federal Credit Union, and shall be forever barred and enjoined from instituting or further prosecuting any Settled Claim (as defined), in any forum, including in any state or federal court. This release shall not bar any borrower from asserting any defense that would reduce or eliminate West-Aircomm Federal Credit Union's claimed deficiency balance.

c. In light of the Notice given to the Class Members, Plaintiff and all Class Members shall be bound by the Settlement Agreement, and all of their Settled Claims shall be dismissed with prejudice and released.

7. Cy Pres: The Court approves Pennsylvania Interest on Lawyers Trust Account ("IOLTA"), and the Pennsylvania Legal Aid Network ("PLAN") as cy pres beneficiaries. All funds remaining after distribution(s) of the Net Fund to Class Members, as called for in the Settlement Agreement, shall be distributed by the Settlement Administrator accordingly: (a) 50% to IOLTA; (b) 25% to Neighborhood Legal Services based in Pittsburgh, PA; and (c) 25% to Alliance for Consumer Protection, Beaver County. The cy pres fund shall be used for consumer purposes as set forth in the Class Action Settlement Agreement ¶ 3.06.

8. Continuing Jurisdiction: Consummation of the settlement shall proceed as described in the Settlement Agreement and the Court hereby retains jurisdiction of this matter in order to resolve any disputes which may arise in the implementation of the Settlement Agreement or the implementation of this Final Judgment and Order. The Court retains continuing jurisdiction for the purposes of supervising the implementation of the Settlement Agreement and supervising the distribution and allocation of the Settlement Fund. Final judgment shall be entered as provided herein.

BY THE COURT:

J.
